Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ

"Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them and they all drank from it." -- Mark 14:23

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Today we celebrate the Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ. We celebrate the great gift of the Eucharist. The Fathers of the Second Vatican Council described the Eucharist as "the source and summit of our faith." All of the grace and power that we need for our lives of holiness comes from the Eucharist, because it is here that the sacrifice of Christ is made present and we reap the salvation that He won for us. The Eucharist is what gives meaning to our lives, why? - because it is here that we receive the new life promised by Christ. Every time we come to the Eucharist, we receive an invitation - an invitation to go deeper with Christ our Lord - to understand more deeply what it is to live as His disciple.

At the 10:30am Mass next Sunday, June 10, we will be recognizing Deacon Del Wilkinson. This year, he is celebrating his 35th anniversary of ordination to the diaconate. I am so grateful for his ministry in our parish. Please make a special effort to attend the Mass and reception afterwards and thank him for his many years of ministry.

God bless,
Fr. Tony

-- NEW Bible Study -- The Bible & the Virgin Mary

"What the Catholic faith believes about Mary is based on what it believes about Christ, and what it teaches about Mary illumines in turn its faith in Christ." (CCC 487). In other words, learning about Mary draws us more deeply into our understanding of Jesus. We will explore the Old Testament references to the birth of a Savior, and how Mary is a large part of salvation history. Please join us for The Bible & the Virgin Mary series, which begins this Tuesday, June 5, at 1:30pm in the Library. Questions? Contact Carla: clabore@ourladyofthelake.com or 952-472-8404.

Alzheimer's / Dementia Support Group
Tuesday, June 5 • 10:00am • Church Library

Dementia can take many forms, including a diagnosis of Alzheimer's Disease. Being a caregiver for a person with any form of dementia can be quite challenging. In this group meeting, caregivers offer their experiences, suggestions, successes and failures in coping with these issues. Every situation is different, but there are common problems. It can be very comforting to know that others are experiencing the same kinds of difficulties. If you are a caregiver, or live with someone who is showing signs of dementia, please join us this Tuesday at 10:00am in the Library, or contact Carla at clabore@ourladyofthelake.com or 952-472-8404.

Liturgy
Seeking God, Encountering God

Ordinary Time
The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ
Corpus Christi

At the Last Supper, He took the bread, blessed it, broke it, and gave it to His disciples saying, "This is my body given up for you," and, taking the wine, said, "This is the cup of my blood poured out for you."

At Mass, representatives of the community, the Gift Bearers, bring the bread and wine to the sanctuary so that the priest may take it. All of us pray silently with him while he blesses it, breaks it and pours it. Communion Ministers help the Priest as he gives it to the people.

How can I bring the Eucharist from the Church into the World?

What kinds of service can I do to deepen my love for the body of Christ? How can I, a member of the faithful, show on the outside what I hold on the inside?

-- Sr. Carrie Link

Discipleship ... Faith In Action

Stewardship Thought

"Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them and they all drank from it." -- Mark 14:23

Jesus, the perfect steward, gave thanks, just before He gave Himself to us completely for our salvation. He offers us the chance to drink from His cup. In the Eucharist, we meet Christ personally and, if we listen to Him, we know that drinking from His cup means our own sacrifice - giving up some of our time, talent and treasure to do His work on Earth.

FOCUS (Fellowship of Catholic University Students)

My name is Joe Herder. I am a parishioner at Our Lady of the Lake. This past year, I sought to give my life to God as I became a FOCUS (Fellowship of Catholic University Students) missionary. We are missionaries who are stationed at different college campuses throughout the United States with the goal of evangelizing the Gospel to the college students, fostering encounters with Christ, and building up leaders in the faith who are capable of sharing their great love for God with others. We primarily do this through bible studies and one-on-one mentorship as we take students through salvation history and teach them to live out their faith life through deep prayer and sacramental life. This past year, I was stationed at the University of Nebraska-Kearney where I lived with four other missionaries (Brenda, Monica, Megan, and Kevin) and together we strived to live out this mission.

We live in a day and age where temptations and distractions are greater than ever. Students are saturated with technology, the social pressures of fitting in, and the stresses of needing to produce good grades so that they may make a living once they graduate. Will these students leave room for Christ or will the pressures of the world encapsulate around them? It was incredible to have the opportunity to be bold and challenge students to make time in their day for God. If we give time for Christ, will He not provide all else for us? Or, as the Gospel says, "Seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be given you besides." Matthew 6:33. I was struck with amazement as students responded to the call and showed up to bible study, volunteered at the Newman Center, and came to daily Mass. As a missionary, I was a "mere pencil in Gods hands" as Mother Theresa says. I simply invite, challenge, and call students to give more of their lives to God, and then I stand by and get to witness God and the Holy Spirit working in these students' souls as they begin to discover the deeper beauty of who they are and what they are made for. They see that they are beloved sons and daughters of Christ who were made to be in a relationship with the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. God's infinite mercy descends upon us as we slowly become liberated from all the cares and anxieties of the world. We realize that He provides all things for us, "If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your father who is in heaven give what is good to those who ask Him!" Matthew 7:11. It is from a life rooted in Christ that these students will then be prepared to one day leave college and enter into the world, the work force, and into their families, as proud warriors who carry this joy and love with them and proclaim it to those they encounter through word and deed for the rest of their lives. FOCUS believes by radically making a difference in a few students' lives, it is through these small acts of love and investments that a society will begin to be transformed.

This fall, I will be headed back to UNK for one more year serving as a FOCUS Missionary as I will strive (by the grace of God) to continue to call students deeper into a relationship with Christ. God desires every single one of these souls to know Him and give their lives to Him. I do not doubt the greatness of God, but your prayers are needed, so please pray for FOCUS and all students on college campuses!

Thank you!

Joe Herder, OLL Parishioner
