Liturgical Music Notes –

September 18, 2022 – Ordinary XXV

Every time we gather to celebrate Eucharist, we may sing a variety of texts and tunes: hymns, psalms, chants, anthems – but most importantly, we sing the Mass Ordinary: words that do not change. Music paired with texts sung so frequently must be well-crafted to stand the test of time! After the introduction of vernacular languages into worship, composers came forward to make settings for non-Latin words now to be used at Mass. One of them was the Dutch composer Jan Vermulst (1925 – 1994), invited to create English Masses for the U.S. Catholic Church. Two of those continue to be mainstays in our parish: The People's Mass and Mass for Christian Unity.

MUSIC MINISTRY AT ST. PETER'S

Can you help?

In addition to serving as a Cantor, playing an instrument, singing in our Choir, leading sung prayer with our children – 'behind the scenes' tasks enrich our worship: filing music, computer assistance, scheduling Cantors, designing service sheets, assembling folders/notebooks for Liturgies, being a Greeter for concerts.

It's NEVER too late to be part of the Choir TEAM that helps enrich our worship with song!

St. Peter Choir practices EVERY Wednesday,
7:00 – 8:30 PM in the Choir Room

RSVP to Jane so a music folder is ready for you!

If you can help, please contact Jane,
mrsjane@stpeterchurch.org

SUPERVISION OF CHILDREN

Our parish safety policy states that children under age 12 are expected to be with an adult or teen sibling at all times. This includes times when a child is walking to the bathroom or water fountain during Mass and/or walking to or from the atrium. We love and trust our parish children, but we have many visitors on Sunday mornings. Thank you for your understanding!

DOMINICAN FRIARS GALA OCTOBER 16 6-9 P.M.

From a luxury vacation getaway to a behind-the-scenes church experience for kids to an operatic interlude, there is a wide variety of experiences to explore at this year's auction associated with the Dominican Friars Gala on October 16th!
