

Marin Catholic Counselor

Marin Catholic currently has an opening for a full-time Counselor for the 2023-24 school year.

* Position will begin August 2023.

The Counseling program is an essential part of the total education process at Marin Catholic. The counselors are committed to the education of the whole person and work to enhance the personal, social, spiritual, educational, and career growth of each student. Marin Catholic recognizes students need a developmental approach to learning and life skill experiences. Therefore, school counseling is seen as developmental in nature, building upon previously learned skills.

The program's mission is to provide academic and personal support services that will assist each student to develop the highest degree of personal responsibility and growth. Emphasis is placed on academic preparation and course scheduling, decision-making, social development, and especially on the college search, selection and application process. Counselors report to the Director of Counseling and Dean of Studies.

Qualifications, credentials, experience, knowledge & skills for the position:

- Bachelor's degree in related field, Master's degree, preferred
- High school counseling or college counseling experience, preferred
- Practicing Catholic in good standing, preferred
- Desire and ability to witness to his or her personal faith journey and actively model the mission and Catholic identity of the school
- Student focused and lifelong learner
- Ability to collaborate effectively with faculty, students, parents and staff
- Maintains best professional practices in communicating with peers, students and parents

Salary ($69,948-$105,169) and benefits are according to a Union contract.

Full-time Faculty are eligible for benefits including health and dental insurance, medical and dependent care flex plan, Archdiocesan pension, and 403b.

Interested applicants for positions should submit a letter of interest and current resume to Michelle Mayfield-Baske, Director of Human Resources at hr@marincatholic.org.