

Accountability Partner Worksheet

Mary and Elizabeth had a special relationship with one another in which they seemed to seek out the best for each other. Do you have a relationship with someone who can help to hold you accountable to your plans for the future? Use this worksheet as a guide for setting life goals and sharing them with an accountability partner.

“Therefore, encourage one another and build one another up, as indeed you do.”
-- 1 Thessalonians 5:11

FUTURE PLANS:

- How do you envision your life of faith with God?
- What are your hopes and dreams for yourself?
- How do you envision your life of love with others?

PRAYER:

- How will you pray for your accountability partner?
- How will you pray for others with whom you will be in relationships, including boy/girlfriends and future spouses?
- How will you ask for prayers from others when you need their support?

JUDGEMENT:

- How will you share with another your concerns about making right choices?
- Are your actions consistent with your plans for the future?
- Are your actions consistent with your faith?

ENCOURAGEMENT:

- In what elements of your life do you live with integrity and wholeness in your choices as well as in your faith and plans for the future?
- In what areas of your life have you potentially placed yourself at risk? What changes might you need to make?
- In what areas might you continue to grow?

“Two are better than one . . . If one falls, the other will lift up his companion. Woe to the solitary man! For if he should fall, he has no one to lift him up.”

-- Ecclesiastes 4:9-10
