

American Heritage Girls is...

- Fun, friends, feels like home (Brielle Ogburn)
- Helps me understand God more, makes me happy, helps me learn how to live in a community, helps me learn how to help the world, making new friends (Gabrielle & Victoria Roumier)
- Fun! It is a place where I learn more about God. I like American Heritage Girls because it makes me feel happier inside. (Noelle Janousek)
- I like AHG because I get to make friends and do fun activities. (Abby Crane)
- Helping out other people in the community, working together, getting together with friends to do fun activities (Meia McKenzie)
- Getting to do fun activities and doing things I have never done before (Grace Harpole)

AHG Mission: Building women of integrity through service to God, family, community, and country.

To learn more about the AHG Troop at STM, please contact Liz Janousek at thejanousekfamily@gmail.com, or Melissa Ogburn at melissaogburn@aol.com.