Stewardship Reflection

Sink Into Jesus

Nineteenth Sunday of Ordinary Time

1 Kgs 19:9a, 11-13a
Ps 85:9, 10, 11-12, 13-14
Rom 9:1-5
Mt 14:22-33

There are days we feel like we could walk on water, then there are days we feel like we couldn't swim in a kiddie pool. Like Peter, we want to call out, "Lord, save me!" When Peter became frightened by the environment around him, he sank, but he wasn't sunk, he knew whom to cry for help. Whether we are walking on water or sinking in the world around us, bring Jesus into the moment! One way to do this is to visit one of our many Adoration Chapels in the diocese. What a better way to be a faithful steward than to visit God's only Son. We can take it a step further and commit to an hour with Jesus each week. We don't have to walk on water to adore Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament—but we may need a code to get the door open!

Pastor's Corner by Fr. Roger Lumbre

Attending Mass is a central practice of our Catholic faith, offering spiritual nourishment, community connection, and a chance to experience God's presence in a deeply personal and communal way.

The Spiritual Importance of Mass

Mass is not merely a tradition but a profound expression of worship. Catholics believe that each Mass is a celebration of the Eucharist, the body and blood of Christ, instituted at the Last Supper (Luke 22:19).

Through the Eucharist, Jesus gives himself to us, renewing our spiritual strength and communion with God. Participating in Mass allows us to speak to God in prayer, bring our struggles and gratitude before Him, and receive grace that strengthens our moral and spiritual lives. Mass is also a ritual that shapes our spiritual discipline. Its repetition and structure provide stability in our faith, helping believers focus above daily distractions and allowing transformation on a deeper, personal level.

By coming together as a community, Catholics engage in shared worship, reinforcing the Body of Christ and supporting one another in living out the Gospel.

Community and Inspiration

Being part of a parish community during Mass fulfills a natural human need for connection and belonging. Parishioners uplift and affirm each other, providing encouragement to live according to Christian principles. Attending Mass also inspires others—families, youth, and older members alike—as the faithful set powerful examples of devotion.

Mass encourages reflection and growth. Listening to Scripture, homilies, and prayers provides guidance and clarity, offering lessons and inspiration that influence our daily lives. It reminds us of the larger purposes of life, our responsibilities, and our potential to contribute meaningfully to the Church and the world.

Practical Benefits and Daily Discipline

Regular attendance fosters self-discipline, especially when attending daily or weekly Mass as a family. Children learn good habits, families cultivate unity, and adults maintain a spiritual rhythm that supports resilience and perspective in a secular world. Daily exposure to Scripture and the opportunity for frequent reception of the Eucharist strengthens both personal faith and moral character.

Mass also provides an intentional time to reflect on the past week, confess sins, and renew commitment to God's commands. It's a time to stand publicly for one's faith, confess imperfection, and embrace the comfort and guidance of a structured ritual in life.

Encouragement for All Catholics

Even when Mass may feel routine, challenging, or difficult to attend, it remains a spiritual gift. By prioritizing attendance, focusing on the positive aspects of parish life, and recognizing the personal and communal benefits, Catholics can experience renewed peace, purpose, and closeness to God.

Embracing Mass as an opportunity to participate in something far greater than ourselves allows us to engage in both personal spiritual growth and the universal mission of the Church.

In summary, Mass is essential not only because of obedience to God and Church but also as a powerful opportunity for worship, prayer, learning, community connection, and personal transformation. Choosing to attend Mass regularly nurtures one's faith, brings inspiration, and strengthens the living body of Christ in the world.

I pray all of us will value and avail of the best and greatest gift God has given us in this world- the mass and the Eucharist! Come every weekend and if possible on the weekdays! God bless you all! Fr. Roger
