Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

January 25, 2026

Saint Blaise was a 4th-century Armenian bishop, physician, and martyr, revered for his miraculous healing powers, particularly for throat ailments, and is the patron saint of those with throat problems and animals. He lived as a hermit in a cave, where sick animals would come to him for healing, and is famous for saving a boy choking on a fishbone, leading to the tradition of blessing throats with crossed candles on his feast day, February 3rd.

The Blessing of Throats will take place after Masses on January 31 and February 1.
