Marigolds are the official flower of the dead. Marigolds and flowers in general represent the fragility of life. Pink carnations stand for remembrance of the deceased. White carnations, as with a woman's white wedding dress, symbolize untainted love and innocence. Lilies evoke a feeling of beauty and simplicity. Symbolically, flowers like lilies promote the notion that the soul of the person has returned to a state of innocence. White lilies symbolize purity and appear more often at funerals. Stargazer lilies symbolize sympathy which makes them an appropriate option for the loved ones of the recently departed. Oriental lilies symbolize eternal life, a perfect option at religious services commemorating the dead. Flowers carry symbolic meanings.

By using the envelopes sent to you every other month, we are able to properly credit you for your contributions.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

Especially with regard to living the Gospel, we are not alone. A great cloud of witnesses journey with us offering us inspiration, wisdom, intercession, and support. We look to them for the example of perseverance we desperately need in order to be faithful, and for what it means to “walk the talk!” The Beatitudes are indeed a blessed vision that people hunger to hear and embrace. But, they also clearly remind us that following Jesus is difficult. Poverty of spirit, meekness, mercy, and peace making are not virtues readily accepted by the world. Pursuing a purity of heart and acknowledging the hunger of our souls require not only a courageous stance, but a single-minded devotion to God. And, after going against the grain of the world and meeting resistance along the way, the true disciple may find themselves persecuted and paying a high price. Look to all the saints for the secret to happiness and the example of fidelity. Their lives speak volumes of how God can use even the weakest and most humble among us in tremendous ways. Saints are not even close to being perfect. They are just ordinary folks like us trying to give honor to God with their lives.

WORSHIP & MEDITATION

FIRST READING:

After this I had a vision of a great multitude,
which no one could count,
from every nation, race, people, and tongue.
They stood before the throne
and before the Lamb, wearing white robes and holding palm branches in their hands. (Rev 7:9)

PSALM:

Lord, this is the people that longs to see your face.
(Ps 24)

SECOND READING:

We do know that when it is revealed
we shall be like him,
for we shall see him as he is.
Everyone who has this hope based on him makes himself pure, as he is pure. (1 Jn 3:2b-3)

GOSPEL:

"Blessed are the poor in spirit,
for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven." (Mt 5:3)

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

I remember as a child the meticulousness my father would bring to a task. Whether it be tending to a chore in the yard, repairing something, or painting a room, the tiniest of every detail demanded his attention. He had great patience. I benefited greatly by his example and remember these lessons well. We all need examples to follow. It is important to identify folks who excel at simple things and show us how to do things well. There are those among us and those who have gone before us who serve as these models and witnesses. They are ordinary people who in their "extraordinary ordinariness" capture our attention and allow us to see things more clearly.

These are the prophets, martyrs, teachers, witnesses, heralds, and innovators who bring a single-minded devotion to God to even the simplest of tasks they perform. They have an openness to being used and become vessels of Divine justice, mercy, and presence. They call us to the "more" of life and point us to the Gospel in all of its simplicity and splendor. They remind us of the little ones of the Kingdom and the values we all need to cultivate and possess. They are the poor in spirit, the meek, the merciful, and the peacemaker who often are rejected not only by those who have far different agendas but by those you think would welcome them.

All of the saints in heaven and on earth form this cloud of witnesses who journey with us as we make our way through life. They offer us inspiration, wisdom, intercession, and support. They direct us toward true happiness and remind us that we are all called to be saints. All it takes is desire, love, and fidelity. There is much we can learn from the official saints of the church. Their guidance is ever before us and ever with us. But there is also a lot to learn from the unofficial saints of the church. They sit beside us every Sunday, are our neighbors and ordinary people we meet every day. Because of the devotedness of their faith, they remind us to keep going, remain focused, and cultivate purpose and meaning, and give voice to those who have none. The inspiration is all around us.

Pay attention to the details. Do what you do with great love. Know that you are not alone. Believe that you can persevere. Have great faith.
