The Catholic Campaign for Human Development

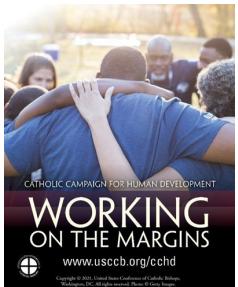

(CCHD) is the national anti-poverty program of the US Catholic Bishops.

Each year, the national collection for CCHD is used to provide grants to non-profit organizations that work to break the cycle of poverty through community or economic development projects.

Local Grants: 25% of the collection taken in our Archdiocese remains in our Diocese to fund local projects. Local “seed” grants of $1,500-$10,000 are available to eligible groups working with the poor to address long-term solutions. CCHD may also match grants from The Catholic Foundation. Local grants are available year-round.

National Grants: The remaining 75% of the collection is pooled with other Dioceses to fund larger national grants. National grants may award

$25,000-$75,000. A “Pre-Application” to determine National grant eligibility is available September 1st until November 1st at www.usccb.org/cchd/grants. In addition, a portion of the national collection supports USCCB poverty awareness education and CCHD national administration.

2022 ASF collection date is November 19 & 20.

Next Sunday's Readings

The First Sunday of Advent, Cycle A ~
Sunday, November 27,
2022

Readings & Background Grades 1-3

Grades 4-6 Grades 7-8 Family

FIRST READING: Isaiah 2: 1-5

Isaiah describes his vision in which all nations are gathered together by God in peace.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Psalm 122: 1-2, 3-4, 4-5, 6-7, 8-9

Rejoicing, let us enter the house of the Lord.

SECOND READING: Romans 13: 11-14

Be prepared, salvation is near.

GOSPEL READING: Matthew 24: 37-44; Jesus tells his disciples that the coming of the Son of Man will catch many people unprepared. Jesus tells his disciples that they are to always be ready for the day of the Lord.

BACKGROUND ON THE GOSPEL READING: Today is the first Sunday of Advent, which is also the first Sunday of a new liturgical year for the Church. The Advent season includes the four Sundays that precede Christmas. It is a time of preparation for the coming of the Lord. In this season, we recall two central elements of our faith: the final coming of the Lord in glory and the incarnation of the Lord in the birth of Jesus. Key themes of the Advent season are watchful waiting, preparation, and justice.

In this new liturgical year, the Gospel of Matthew will be the primary Gospel proclaimed (Lectionary Cycle A). In today's Gospel, we hear Jesus speak about the need for wakefulness, for watchful waiting, for the coming of the Son of Man.

Matthew's Gospel is dated by most scholars after 70 A.D. Most believe that Matthew wrote for a primarily Jewish community, but one that was no longer centered on the Temple in Jerusalem. These were Jewish Christians trying to come to terms with their relationship to Judaism in a new situation: Judaism after the destruction of the Temple in Jerusalem. There may have been Christians who believed that the events of the world around them gave evidence of the imminent return of the Lord in glory.

The passage from Matthew we read today is rather straightforward. No one knows the precise time of the coming of the Lord in glory, so watchful waiting and vigilance are required. The passage speaks to the uselessness of looking for signs; there will be none. As a thief sneaks in during the night, so will the Lord's coming in glory be.

The question for us as members of the Christian community, then, is how do we prepare for this? Today's passage speaks more about the manner of waiting, rather than the details of the preparation. Jesus compares the vigilance required of Christians to the vigilance of a homeowner who knows the plans of the thief. If one knows that the thief's action is imminent, one remains watchful. As Christians, we know that our Lord is coming even if we cannot know the precise timing. Jesus calls us to be watchful and vigilant, like the homeowner. If we become lax in our Christian living, we may be caught unprepared.

PREPARING FOR ADVENT

Mark your calendars for Tuesday, December 20, beginning at 6pm, as the last opportunity to go to confession before Christmas. We will have a brief Penance Service followed by the opportunity to go confession. We will have a group of priests available here for individual confession.

This Advent, for the 25 days leading up to Christmas, writers from the Ignatian family will reflect on personal heroes from the Ignatian tradition. You may reflect on the stories of folks throughout history who have been inspired by Ignatian spirituality, and you'll get insight into how those unique stories have impacted some of your Ignatian contemporaries. By Christmas, we will have journeyed with 25 writers, reflecting on 25 different women and men from our shared tradition. That's 50 different ways of encountering Christ and living out of that encounter in the day-to-day, from Christmas and beyond.

Receptionist Position, Part-Time, Available. The Parish Office is looking for someone to work Mondays through Fridays no more than 4 hours a day. Tasks require answering the phone, processing mail and deliveries, scheduling Masses, photocopying, posting contributions into our accounting system, and related tasks. El mes de noviembre honramos a todos los que nos han precedido en la muerte. El 1 de noviembre, la Solemnidad de Todos los Santos (un día de precepto) honramos a todos los que han vivido la fe de una manera ejemplar. Recordemos y demos gracias a Dios por todos los que nos han guiado en la fe. El 2 de noviembre, Día de los Fieles Difuntos (Día de Muertos), rezamos por todos los que han muerto, especialmente para nuestros seres queridos. En muchos países honran a los queridos difuntos con altares y ofrendas o visitan a las tumbas, para celebrar sus vidas y rezar por ellos.

POR TU MATRIMONIO

Queridas Parejas y Familias en Cristo,

Este mes de noviembre está lleno de oportunidades para celebrar nuestra fe en familia como iglesia doméstica y también para poner nuestra fe en acción. Iniciamos el mes con las dos grandes celebraciones para honrar a todos los santos y a todos los fieles difuntos. Los animo a tomar el tiempo en familia para recordar todos sus queridos difuntos, hablar sobre ellos, celebrar sus vidas, y rezar por su eterno descanso. Otras celebraciones de este mes son: la Semana para las Vocaciones, el Mes de la Adopción, la Jornada Mundial de los Pobres, la Celebración Global de la Juventud y el Día de Acción de Gracias. Espero que utilicen los recursos encontrados en este boletín como pareja y como familia para seguir creciendo en su fe y acercándose a Dios.

¡Viva Cristo Rey! Alejandro Aguilera-Titus
