Christ the King!

This weekend we celebrate the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. This is also the very last Sunday of the Church year, right before Advent. It's appropriate that we end the Church year with this feast because it reminds us of that essential idea — that Christ is king. He is the alpha and the omega, as St. John tells us in Revelation. He is the beginning and the end. The end all and be all. "The one who is and who was and who is to come." The idea that Christ is King is of utmost importance to our personal lives. As we look toward the end of the year and the beginning of a new year, we can also consider the beginning and end of our lives and see the work of Christ the King active throughout that time. We can put this idea into practice by offering our own service to Jesus Christ, King of the Universe through prayer at the beginning and ending of every day. Let us use this opportunity to praise the Lord and thank Him for His sovereign reign and let us renew our own fidelity to Christ and His Church.

Peace,
Fr. Jason Johnston

Father, all of Creation rightly owes you thanks and praise. Your justice, love and mercy abound.
 We thank you this day for all that you have given us:
 For the Passion and Death of your Divine Son,
 we thank you Father, through the Cross, He redeemed the world.
 For the Church, we thank you Father, it is our beacon for salvation.
 For the martyrs and saints who give testimony to your Son, we thank you Father, their witness to your Son is our inheritance.
 For our loved ones and friends who have died and gone before us,
 we thank you Father, their love abides with us forever.
 For loving spouses, we thank you Father, together we seek you.
 For the gift of children, we thank you Father, they are your precious gifts to us and to the world.
 For the gift of our families, loved ones and good friends, we thank you Father,
 Through them we see the reflection of your Son.
 For jobs, our homes and all that we have, we thank you Father, give us only that which we need, as we seek Your Kingdom.
 For the bounty we are about to eat, we thank you through Christ Our Lord.
