What are our numbers?

Many of you have asked how many people attend our Oratory each Sunday. During the months of October 2021, and March and October 2022, ushers counted the number of attendees at each Sunday Mass. I am happy to share with you these concrete numbers, which should not be confused with the number of registered households nor with the number of regular attendees at our Oratory. Thanks be to God, more and more households are registering, and many more find spiritual nourishment attending Holy Mass at St. Leo Oratory on a regular basis. However, it is above all these concrete numbers which will be a major determining factor for further developments of our apostolate. My thanks to all for their generous support of this apostolate.

– Canon David Silvey, rector

Mass Intentions Book Open for 2023

- This year, we received more Mass intentions than could be accommodated during the current calendar year, so the excess of intentions have already been scheduled in early 2023.
- In order to avoid overbooking in 2023, and in order to ensure that all have the opportunity to have Masses said for their intentions, we are currently accepting no more than two intentions per family. A bulletin notice will inform you in the New Year if any dates remain open, and if thus we are able to accept any additional intentions.
- Specific dates may be requested; however, it is not always possible to accommodate such requests. It is not possible to reserve multiple Sundays.
- The recommended offering per Mass intention is $10. It is presumed that someone who requests a Mass is willing and able to make the offering, so no Mass requests are confirmed until the offering has been received. In case of difficulty, please contact the parish office.
- Cash or check are accepted. There is no online form for submitting Mass intentions. Written requests with the accompanying donation – submitted by mail or dropped into the collection basket on Sunday – are the preferred method. Email requests are tolerated, but the donation must be submitted before requests are confirmed. We do not take intentions via telephone.

Christmas Cards now available at the back of church

A pack of 10 cards costs $20. The proceeds support St. Leo Oratory. All those who receive one of these beautiful Christmas cards will be specially remembered at Holy Mass celebrated by the U.S. Provincial Superior of the Institute on Christmas Day.
