ABOUT OUR PILGRIMAGE

In the Spirit of the Freedom Riders, Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., and the Women and Men of the Civil Rights Movement

Legacy Museum, Montgomery

This pilgrimage tells a story. A story of bravery and righteousness meeting bigotry and oppression. This story marks a point in our history when nonviolent response transcended violent hostility and ultimately transformed our society. In this way, the Civil Rights Movement serves as its own gospel. This is not a new story; it is an old story told in a new way, of how love and nonviolence melt away cold injustice in hopes of creating a society where we all belong together.

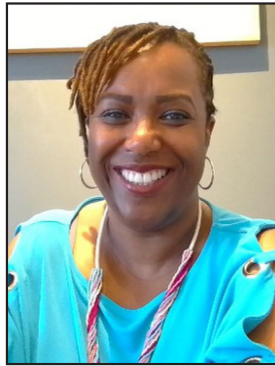

Although the Civil Rights Movement drew people of all faiths and many equally impassioned people of a secular disposition, the heart of the movement remained in the Black Christian churches. Our tour will highlight the churches that hosted key events in the movement's progress and fueled the activists' spirit.

If you are interested in exploring the history of the Civil Rights Movement--in community and in conversation--we invite you to join us as we walk in the footsteps of the brave women and men of this pivotal movement and allow their story to transform our hearts and minds.

Our Spiritual Co-Leaders

Msgr. John A. Wall

Msgr. Wall is a seasoned pilgrimage leader who has led thousands of pilgrims to sacred destinations around the world over his long tenure in ministry. In his role as Spiritual Co-Leader, he views the period of civil rights struggle from a unique perspective. As a high school student in Greensboro, North Carolina, he witnessed the world press's response to Bishop Vincent S. Waters's decision to integrate all Catholic churches, schools, and hospitals across the Diocese of Raleigh. The year was 1953, one year before Brown vs. Board of Education and more than a decade before passage of the Civil Rights Act.

Msgr. Wall recalls the world's reaction, while he was studying for the priesthood in Rome, Italy, to the integration of the lunch counter at Woolworth's in his hometown of Greensboro on July 25, 1960, one of the turning points of the civil rights struggle. Early in his priesthood, while serving as a rector of a boys' school in Asheville, North Carolina, he recalls marching with students and other community members following Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s assassination in April 1968. In the Spring of 2025, Msgr. Wall toured many of the sites on our pilgrimage with Scott Scherer, president of Catholic Travel Centre, planting the seeds for our Long Road to Freedom pilgrimage.

Dr. Agard is a native of Montgomery, Alabama and currently resides in the Triangle area. Her experience growing up in the South will provide our group with a rich perspective on the Civil Rights Movement. Throughout our pilgrimage, in addition to serving as a Spiritual Co-Leader, Dr. Agard will play a key role in facilitating our group discussions.

As a servant-leader in the Christian community, she has held positions, including Associate Minister, Pastor of Congregational Care, Senior Pastor, and most-recently church planter of Transformation Fellowship Christian Church (TFCC). Her vision for Christian ministry is for believers to grow in their relationship with Christ so that they are empowered, equipped, and encouraged to call others into a life-giving relationship with our Lord.

Our Group Co-Coordinators:

Ms. MJ Bettman and Ms. Margaret Cross are good friends who together have stepped forward to serve as our Group Co-Coordinators for this pilgrimage and will help to organize our group in the leadup to our departure.

Our Pilgrimage Company

Since 1991, Catholic Travel Centre, based in Burbank, California, has provided faith communities across the country with customized group pilgrimage services to destinations around the globe. Scott Scherer, President of Catholic Travel Centre, will join the team throughout our pilgrimage.

OUR DAILY ITINERARY

Thursday, November 5, Day 1: Arrive in Birmingham / Transfer to Montgomery: Welcome & Dinner

Welcome to Birmingham! Travelers will make their own travel arrangements to Birmingham and we will establish a meeting point at Birmingham Airport where you will meet your motor coach at 2:00 pm and transfer to our hotel in Montgomery, about a two-hour ride.

If you prefer to fly directly into Montgomery, upon arrival at Montgomery Regional Airport you can take a taxi directly to our centrally located Elevation Convening Center and Hotel, owned and operated by the Equal Justice Initiative (EJI). Check-in time at the hotel is 3:00pm. We gather at 6:00pm for a welcome reception and orientation, followed by a dinner at our hotel. (D)

Note: If you wish to arrive a day early in Montgomery, you will need to make your own pre-night reservation by going to the hotel's website. Be sure to book your pre-night reservation in the same category of room as our group's reservation: Deluxe Category Room.

Friday, November 6, Day 2: Montgomery: Panoramic City Tour plus Excursion to Selma

We begin with a panoramic tour of the city of Montgomery with our local guide. The city entered the nation's conscience when Rosa Parks refused to give up her seat on a segregated bus on December 1, 1955. Thereafter, Montgomery remained at the forefront of the Civil Rights Movement.

Our introductory tour will orient us to the city and provide some background on the history of the Confederacy, which began here. We will visit the parsonage of Dexter Avenue King Memorial Baptist Church (pending confirmation). The parsonage appears as it did when Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and his family resided here during Dr. King's pastorate from 1954-1960. The parsonage was bombed several times during the fight for civil rights, but fortunately no one was injured. From here, Dr. King helped to organize the Montgomery Bus Boycott.

Nearby the King's home, we view from outside the house of Dr. Richard Harris. During the siege at First Baptist, Dr. Harris opened his home to 33 activists who had been attacked at the bus station, serving as a haven during martial law. Civil rights leaders, including Dr. King and Rev. Ralph Abernathy, met there to plan the continuation of the Freedom Rides.

After some time for lunch on our own, we set out for Selma. Our first stop enroute to Selma is the Lowndes Interpretive Center for an audiovisual introduction to the Selma-to-Montgomery March. Then we arrive in Selma and view the Brown Chapel AME Church in Selma (currently under renovation), a National Historic Landmark built in 1908 and the pivotal staging ground for the 1965 Selma to Montgomery voting rights marches. It served as the SCLC headquarters, hosting mass meetings preceding the Voting Rights Act of 1965. The church was the assembly point for voting rights protesters on March 7, 1965 ("Bloody Sunday"), and again on March 21, 1965.

Next, we walk across Edmund Pettus Bridge. Built in 1940, it is named for Edmund Pettus, a former Confederate brigadier general, US senator, and state-level leader of the Alabama KKK. After, we will have some time to meet with the local Edmundite Missions, based in Selma. The Edmundites have been serving the men, women and children living in poverty-stricken communities throughout the Deep South since 1937. We return to Montgomery. Discussion and dinner follow. (D)

Saturday, November 7, Day 3: Montgomery: Montgomery Park, Legacy Museum & Tuskegee Airmen's Museum

We begin our morning at Montgomery Park, which will provide us with a timeline of the key events that took place in the city between 1955 and 1965. We continue to the Legacy Museum, a project pioneered by the Equal Justice Initiative (EJI). The EJI provides legal representation to prisoners who may have been wrongly convicted, poor prisoners without effective representation, and others denied a fair trial. Built on the site of a former cotton warehouse where enslaved Black people were forced to labor, the Legacy Museum tells the story of slavery in America and its legacy through interactive media, first-person narratives, art, and data-rich exhibits.

We will have time for lunch on our own in the nearby restaurants. This afternoon we board our motor coach for the Tuskegee Airmen National Historic Site, home of the country's first African American military aviators, who fought in WWII. We will join the City of St. Jude Catholic Community in the celebration of the Saturday evening Vigil Mass, then return to our hotel for discussion and dinner. (D)

Sunday, November 8, Day 4: Montgomery: Dexter Avenue King Memorial Baptist Church, National Memorial for Peace & Justice, and Freedom Monument Sculpture Park

We begin our day by joining the local community for Sunday worship at Dexter Avenue King Memorial Baptist Church, where Rev. King accepted the call to pastor while completing his doctoral studies in systematic theology at Boston University. He was installed in October 1954 and served until 1960. After church services we will have some time for lunch on our own.

This afternoon we visit National Memorial for Peace and Justice, the nation's first comprehensive memorial dedicated to the legacy of Black Americans who were enslaved, terrorized by lynching, humiliated by racial segregation, and presumed guilty and dangerous. More than 4,400 Black people killed in lynchings between 1877 and 1950 are remembered here. The memorial is a sacred space for truth-telling and reflection on racial terrorism and its legacy.

Our day concludes at the Freedom Monument Sculpture Park, overlooking the Alabama River. At this 17-acre site along the very river where tens of thousands of enslaved people were trafficked, breathtaking art and original artifacts invite an immersive, interactive journey and provide a unique view into the lives of enslaved people.

At the end of the day, we will meet with a member of the Equal Justice Initiative team for discussion. Dinner follows. (D)

Monday, November 9, Day 5: Montgomery: Rosa Parks & Holt Street Church Museum, plus Freedom Rides Museum and Civil Rights Memorial / Birmingham

We check out of our Montgomery hotel and begin our day at the Rosa Parks Museum, which contains artifacts of the Montgomery Bus Boycott. The museum was built in Rosa Parks' honor so that visitors could come to know her story. We explore the history of the 381-day Montgomery Bus Boycott, which planted the seeds for the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), founded by Rev. Ralph Abernathy, Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., and others as an outgrowth of the Montgomery Improvement Association (MIA). The SCLC was created to replicate the success of the Montgomery Boycott throughout the South, transitioning the local effort into a broader regional movement.

We continue to the Holt St. Church Museum, the church where Dr. King delivered the speech that would launch the Montgomery Bus Boycott on the heels of Rosa Parks' arrest. His speech cast him into the spotlight as the leader of the Boycott. We will hear a recording of King's speech in the very church it was first delivered and after, we will have some time for lunch on our own.

We continue to the Freedom Rides' Museum located at 210 South Court Street in Montgomery, formerly the Montgomery Greyhound Bus Station. It was the site of a violent attack on the Freedom Riders on May 20, 1961. Before departing Montgomery, we stop at the Civil Rights Memorial, created by Maya Lin as a Southern Poverty Law Center project. The structure commemorates 41 Civil Rights Movement martyrs.

Aboard our motor coach, we make our way north to Birmingham. Birmingham stands at the heart of the Civil Rights Movement, most famously through Project C, better known as the Birmingham Campaign. Peaceful lunch counter sit-ins, boycotts, and marches that were met with violence are widely recognized as a turning point in the Civil Rights Movement. We check in to the hotel. Discussion and dinner follow. (D)

Tuesday, November 10, Day 6: Birmingham City Tour: Dynamite Hill, Bethel Baptist, 16th Street Baptist, Kelly Ingram Park and Civil Rights Institute

Our panoramic tour of the city includes Dynamite Hill, a section in Birmingham so nicknamed because Ku Klux Klan members regularly bombed its streets during the Civil Rights era. We continue to Bethel Baptist Church. The church served as headquarters from 1956 to 1961 for the Alabama Christian Movement for Human Rights (ACMHR) led by the Rev. Fred Shuttlesworth. ACMHR focused on legal and nonviolent direct action against segregated accommodations, transportation, schools and employment discrimination, and it played a crucial role in the 1961 Freedom Rides, a fitting place to close our Civil Rights Pilgrimage.

We come to 16th Street Baptist Church, the first Black church in Birmingham. W.E.B. DuBois, Mary McLeod Bethune, Paul Robeson, and Ralph Bunche were among the noted Black Americans who spoke there during its early years. During the 1960s, the church served as headquarters for civil rights mass meetings and rallies.

On Sunday, September 15, 1963, at 10:22 a.m., the church became known around the world when a bomb planted by members of the KKK exploded, killing four young girls attending Sunday school and injuring over 20 other members of the congregation.

Across the street, we visit the Kelly Ingram Park, the 1963 civil rights campaign's epicenter and a pivotal assembly point for demonstrations against segregation. The park was the site of brutal police attacks, including the use of fire hoses and dogs against protesters, notably during the Children's Crusade. It is now a site honoring Civil Rights Movement leaders.

Our tour concludes at Birmingham Civil Rights Institute, a comprehensive museum and educational center depicting the events of the 1963 Birmingham campaign, including the Children's Crusade and other milestones of the Civil Rights Movement in the 1950s and 1960s. The afternoon is at our leisure. We gather for discussion and dinner this evening. (D)

Wednesday, November 11, Day 7: End of Our Pilgrimage Together

Travelers will arrange their own transfers to Birmingham-Shuttlesworth International Airport.

Additionally, in the event of an improper chargeback, CTC retains the right to cancel any travel reservation related to that improper chargeback. NOTE: Credit card charges will not show as "travel expense" on your credit card statement, but will appear as "specialty services", "shopping" or another designation.

HEALTH & MEDICAL CONSIDERATIONS: It is highly recommended Travelers be medically healthy and physically capable of significant walking. CTC cannot guarantee wheelchair, motorized scooter, or walker accessibility during a trip and does not provide individual assistance to Travelers. The Traveler agrees not to hold CTC, our suppliers, or the group leaders responsible should they contract any illness during or after their travel.

TRAVEL INSURANCE: CTC strongly suggests the purchase of Travel Insurance to help protect Travelers' investment in the trip and to help provide medical coverage. We also strongly suggest you purchase the broadest coverage available with the least amount of exclusions. Travel Insurance is encouraged because CTC strictly adheres to our Cancellation Policy. Because some travel insurance plans contain time-sensitive benefits for pre-existing conditions, cancel for any reason or for other coverages, we encourage you to do your research and consider purchasing optional travel insurance soon after making your initial tour registration deposit with CTC. CTC is not qualified to answer technical questions about the benefits, exclusions, and conditions of travel insurance plans. CTC cannot evaluate the adequacy of the prospective insured's existing insurance coverage. If you have any questions about your travel protection, call your insurer or insurance agent or broker. Declining to purchase an adequate travel protection plan could result in the loss of your travel cost and/or require more money to correct the situation. You also acknowledge that without this coverage, there may be no way to recoup any losses, costs, or expenses incurred. If you choose to travel without adequate coverage, CTC will not be liable for any of your losses howsoever arising, for which trip protection plan coverage would otherwise have been available.

ITINERARY: The itinerary presented in this brochure represents what CTC is planning for this trip; however, the itinerary is subject to final confirmations and changes in local schedules. While no changes are anticipated, CTC, at its sole discretion, reserves the right to change the itinerary, as it deems necessary or advisable. CTC is not responsible for costs or fees related to itinerary changes necessitated by changes in an airline's schedule or other arrangements not made through CTC.

FINAL TRAVEL DOCUMENTS: Travelers receive travel documents approximately two weeks prior to departure. Bulk items such as luggage and names tags will be shipped by CTC to group leaders for distribution.

ACCOMMODATIONS AND MEALS: Accommodations are based on double/twin rooms with private bathroom facilities. A limited number of single rooms are available and are subject to a single room supplement fee. If no roommate is available for you, or your roommate cancels prior to departure, a single room supplement surcharge applies. Triple rooms are not always available and are discouraged because of cramped quarters; no price reduction for triple rooms. Included meals are as shown in the itinerary (L=Lunch, D=Dinner). Meals are either menu of the day or buffet. For menu of the day, the only deviations from the group menu which CTC can request (and which still cannot be guaranteed) are: Vegan, Gluten Free, Dairy Free, and Vegetarian; CTC is unable to accommodate any other special meal requests. For buffet meals, it remains the responsibility of the traveler to select food items which satisfy their dietary needs.

Traveler waives any ownership or publication right in connection with photographs or film taken by CTC.

PARTICIPATION: CTC reserves the right to decline to accept or retain any Traveler on any of its tours if, in its sole discretion, it deems accepting or retaining any such Traveler as being detrimental to the tour. No refunds shall be made for any unused portion of the tour in this instance, and any expenses related to early return home are the sole responsibility of the traveler. Traveler agrees to and shall indemnify and hold harmless CTC, and each of our officers, directors, employees and agents (collectively "CTC"), from any expenses, losses, liabilities, damages, judgments, settlements, and costs (collectively, "damages") involved with or incurred by CTC (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and the advancement of same) with respect to any claims, law suits, arbitrations, or other causes of action, which result, directly or indirectly, from: (i) traveler's breach or violation, or threatened breach or violation, of this Agreement and (ii) Any damage caused by traveler while participating in the trip.

UNUSED SERVICES: There is no right to a refund for any unused services.

LIABILITY DISCLAIMER: CTC hereby expressly disclaims any and all liability for any personal injury, property damage, loss of baggage, accident, delay or irregularity, any claim for special or consequential damages, or any other loss that may be occasioned by the acts and/or omissions, whether negligent, wrongful, or intentional of any air carrier, hotel/motel, or other lodging operator, railroad operator, bus operator, public transportation, sea carrier, local sightseeing company, tour operator, tour leader, or spiritual director, any employees thereof, or for any other entity or individual not under the direct supervision and control of CTC when engaged in conveying the passenger or in carrying out the arrangements of the tour, or otherwise in connection therewith. CTC further disclaims any liability for any damages, losses, or expenses incurred, or inconvenience caused, due to delay or changes in schedules, defaults, over-booking of hotels or airlines, sickness, weather, strikes, quarantines, acts of terrorism, construction, war, pandemic, force majeure, or other such events that are beyond CTC's control. CTC likewise disclaims any liability for statements, actions, or inactions of any intermediary agents, such as group administrators, spiritual directors, tour leaders, travel agents, or any other intermediary involved with the selling, promotion, or operation of CTC's tours. Furthermore, to the fullest extent permitted by law, CTC disclaims any liability for any damages or injuries, or other losses whatsoever, sustained or incurred as a result of the negligence of CTC. Group administrators, spiritual leaders, and tour leaders likewise expressly disclaim any liability for the acts and/or omissions of any of the above entities and/or individuals not directly under their supervision or control. Please be advised that the liability of carriers as well as providers of hotel and lodging accommodations is limited by law, and Travelers may thus wish to consider purchasing a Travel Protection plan and/or additional insurance to protect themselves against any losses or injuries suffered as a result of their acts and/or omissions. In no event shall CTC's liability exceed the amounts paid by the Traveler for participation in the tour, and subject to the provisions and cancellation fees as set forth in this brochure. In the event the tour leader and/or spiritual director named in a brochure or itinerary does not travel with the group and a substitute is not named therein, CTC reserves the right to make substitutions of its choosing for such person(s). CTC is not responsible for any misquotes contained in this brochure or other accompanying documentations, and the contents therein may be changed at any time without notice and at CTC's sole discretion.

GROUP COORDINATOR/SPIRITUAL LEADER: The group coordinator and/or spiritual leader is not an employee, agent, or contractor of CTC. Statements made by group coordinator and/or spiritual leader are not binding on CTC, and we will not be liable for their actions, words or promises.

CANCELLATION BY GROUP COORDINATOR/SPIRITUAL LEADER: As CTC does not plan trips for individuals, a cancellation by the Group Coordinator and/or Spiritual Leader effectively cancels the trip for all individuals booked on that trip. The cancellation by the Group Coordinator and/or Spiritual Leader is effective on the date of the cancellation email, fax, or date of postmark. CTC will not be liable for any losses or expenses incurred due to the cancellation or alteration of the tour by your group coordinator and/or spiritual leader and you shall forfeit your $500 per person non-refundable operational fee in the event of any such cancellation.

CANCELLATION BY THE SUPPLIER: CTC will inform you as soon as reasonably possible if a supplier needs to cancel. CTC will also liaise between you and the supplier in relation to any alternative arrangements offered by the supplier, but CTC will have no further liability to you.

CANCELLATION BY CTC: CTC reserves the right to cancel any tour if the minimum number of travelers is not met. In such event, CTC shall refund all amounts paid by Traveler.

CANCELLATION BEYOND CTC'S CONTROL: CTC disclaims any responsibility for any losses or expenses incurred due to cancellation or alteration of the tour resulting from, but not limited to: travel advisories or warnings issued by the State Department or any other relevant authority, acts of war, terrorism, acts of God, natural disasters, pandemic, or any other circumstance beyond CTC's control. In such case, CTC will assist Travelers in requesting refunds for all land services not received by the Traveler, less a non-refundable operational fee of $500 per person, that covers all trip planning and refund processing. CTC shall not be responsible for any non-recoverable amounts disbursed to service providers on a Traveler's behalf. Suppliers may choose to provide a travel voucher or credit in lieu of refund. CTC is not responsible for a supplier's failure to pay a refund or for supplier bankruptcy or insolvency.

POLICY AGAINST DISCRIMINATION: CTC does not discriminate on the basis of race, religion, creed, color, national origin, ancestry, physical or mental disability, medical condition, marital status, sex, age, sexual orientation, or status as a Vietnam or other veteran in the provision of its tour and pilgrimage services.

This provision does not apply where CTC has remitted the payment to another registered wholesale seller of travel or a carrier, without obtaining a refund, and where the wholesaler or provider defaults in providing the agreed-upon transportation or service.
