

St. Francis Xavier

January 7, 2022

Welcome to 2022!! Everyone has settled back to the school routine and we are looking forward to a wonderful 2nd half to the school year.

On the 1st Wednesday of each month we do not follow MAPS late start day. Our students are expected to be here by 7:50 to participate in morning prayer and to start class at 8:00. (4K does not participate in morning prayer)

For those of you who had family members unable to attend our Christmas Concert or just want to watch it again—this is the Youtube link: <https://youtu.be/QLj2G1qGiOo>

Catholic Schools Week is coming up Jan. 30-Feb. 5 Catholic Schools Week is an annual celebration of our Catholic School. There are many activities for all grades to participate in. Please watch future newsletters for the schedule of activities. The week will begin with a kick-off Mass on Saturday, Jan. 29th @ 4:00.

Everyone goes outside for recess as long as the temperature and the wind chill are above 0. Please be sure your child comes to school prepared for being outside—boots, snowpants, hats, mittens and a coat.
