Art Club next week will be on Thursday, March 9th from 3:05-4:30

Please keep selling raffle tickets. All prizes are paid for by a donation from Catholic United Financial. Therefore, all ticket sales are complete profit for our school.

Registration for next school year is ongoing. Plans are already underway for the next school year. If your child will not be returning, please let the school office know as well.

Thank you—

Hagemeister Family for treating the staff to a soup & salad lunch.

Ruffi Family for bringing in homemade Apple Coffee Cake

Anonymous donor for sponsoring random free lunch days in previous months.

Fish Frys are going well. Waitresses are needed for next Friday, March 10th.

Please let Kris Leggett in the parish office know if you can help.

Our celebration of Dr. Seuss was really fun! We had mis-matched clothes day, crazy hair & sock day, Read with a friend, cake to celebrate his birthday and a scavenger hunt. Mrs. Shimel kicked off the week by reading a Dr. Seuss book at morning prayer. She even dressed for the event!!!
