Coming Home

It has been almost a year since the bishops of Nebraska jointly decided to give a dispensation from Mass attendance on the Sabbath and Holy Days of Obligation because of COVID. While that dispensation remains in effect, I want to invite those who have been coming back to church to meet others where they are and to gently encourage them to return to church in some fashion this Lent.

Mind you, people could come back for devotions with smaller crowds like the Stations of the Cross, or they could attend one of our weekday Masses with fewer congregants. They could even make a visit to the church during the off hours when no one is around or stop into the Adoration Chapel. Some may be intimidated by Sunday crowds still but now is the time to invite them to make those first, small steps back into our liturgical life by reacquainting themselves and their families with the church building itself.

In love, let's welcome home our neighbors and friends during these holy 40 days. Could there be a better Lenten resolution?

Ash Wednesday

Feb. 17 is Ash Wednesday and the beginning of Lent. Masses with the distribution of ashes will occur this Wednesday at 6:30 a.m., 8:15 a.m., and 12:10 p.m. We also have an additional Mass at 6 p.m. for the vulnerable in which we ask everyone to wear masks throughout the entirety of the liturgy.

Please remember that Ash Wednesday is a day of fasting for all people 59 years old and younger, and a day of abstaining from meat for all people 14 years and older.

Lenten Confessions on Thursdays

We will offer additional times for the Sacrament of Reconciliation from 5:30 p.m. until 6:30 p.m. in the church on all of the Thursdays before Holy Week: Feb. 18 & 25; March 4, 11, 18 & 25. Please take advantage of the gift of Jesus' mercy at these special times.

Stations of the Cross

Walk with Jesus through the traditional Stations of the Cross on Fridays in Lent.

- 2:15 p.m.—Stations of the Cross with Eucharistic Benediction (with our school children) [Feb. 19; March 5, 19, & 26]
- 5:00 p.m.—Stations of the Cross with Eucharistic Benediction (whole parish) [Every Friday Feb. 19-March 26]

Mass Attendance Numbers

To help you plan the best experience for yourself, here are the attendance totals and trends of our Sabbath Masses over the last 5 weeks (we had inclement weather on Feb. 6/7):

- Mass for the Vulnerable Sat. 5 p.m.: 125 (1/9); 137 (1/16); 88 (1/23); 114 (1/30); 103 (2/6) - AVERAGE: 113
- Sun. 8 a.m.: 136 (1/10); 165 (1/17); 140 (1/24); 151 (1/31); 106 (2/7) - AVERAGE: 140
- Sun. 10 a.m.: 207 (1/10); 193 (1/17); 206 (1/24); 192 (1/31); 168 (2/7) - AVERAGE: 193
- Sun. 5 p.m.: 123 (1/10); 126 (1/17); 145 (1/24); 134 (1/31); 70 (2/7) - AVERAGE: 120

Scholarships for our 8th Graders

We are so proud of our Christ the King School 8th grade students; in particular, we recognize those who received high school scholarships based on their scores on their high school entrance tests. Of our 30 8th grade students, 27 are going on to attend a Catholic high school and 8 of our students received scholarships to these schools: Creighton Prep—Josh Franco, Bennett Hoberman and Hank McGill; Duchesne—Virginia Skybo; Marian—Ava Moore and Rowan Hamm; Mercy—Kaitlyn Beran; and Roncalli—Reece Quinlivan. Congratulations to these outstanding scholars and to their families!

Valentine's Day

Today is not only the 6th Sunday of Ordinary Time—and the last Sunday of Ordinary Time for a while—but St. Valentine's Day! It's the unofficial memorial of St. Valentine, an early Christian martyr.

St. Valentine's Day certainly contains many romantic themes and overtures but in much of the world, particularly in Latino cultures, today is more a celebration of amistad: Friendship! I firmly believe that much of the loneliness and brokenness we experience these days is because of a crisis of genuine friendship.

Let's face it, making friends and sustaining friendships can be tricky. We can sometimes confuse acquaintances of utility and convenience for deep fellowship, and we can all feel the sting of untested brotherhood. The Book of Sirach warns against superficial confidants (6:5-13) but goes on to extol the immense pearl that is a real friend:

Faithful friends are a sturdy shelter; whoever finds one finds a treasure. Faithful friends are beyond price, no amount can balance their worth. Faithful friends are life-saving medicine; those who fear God will find them. Those who fear the Lord enjoy stable friendship, for as they are, so will their neighbors be. (6:14-17)

Friendships require a deep investment in the other, a generous reciprocity, and an abundance of mercy and patience. We may have many "friends" on social media but we are truly blessed to have even one true friend, a person who genuinely wants our good and helps make us a better person, a brother or sister who is in it for the long haul. Jesus Himself tells us that "no one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends," (John 15:13). Jesus sees you as His friend and obeyed His own words, giving up His life for you on the cross. Now that's friendship!

There are many different kinds of love, from romantic to unconditional, but all of them must first be built up on the sublime commonness of friendship. Who has been a true friend to you? How do you let them know that they are? Do they know that? Don't let today pass by without reaching out to your friends, whether they are a phone call away or waiting on your prayer in the next world. St. Valentine, holy martyr, true friend to Jesus, teach us authentic fellowship.

Themes for Lenten Homilies

A couple of years ago, Fr. Boyd and I worked together to preach on the 7 Deadly Sins for the Sundays of Lent and to provide helpful, corresponding materials in the bulletin for further reflection and practical application of the themes. This year we are going to do something similar with the 1st three Sundays of Lent:

- 1st Sunday of Lent: Gratitude: The Center-piece of Prayer
- 2nd Sunday of Lent: Generosity: Where Your Heart is, There is Your Treasure
- 3rd Sunday of Lent: Building the Kingdom: Care of Self, the Church, and Posterity

Lenten Rules of Fasting and Abstinence from Meat

Every person 14 years or older must abstain from meat (and items made with meat) on Ash Wednesday, Good Friday, and all the Fridays of Lent. Every person between the age of 18 and 59 (beginning of 60th year) must fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.

Sixth Sunday of Ordinary Time

FIRST READING (Lv 13:1-2, 44-46)

LORD said to Moses and Aaron, "If someone has on his skin a scab or pustule or blotch which appears to be the sore of leprosy, he shall be brought to Aaron, the priest, or to one of the priests among his descendants.

If the man is leprous and unclean, the priest shall declare him unclean by reason of the sore on his head. "The one who bears the sore of leprosy shall keep his garments rent and his head bare, and shall muffle his beard; he shall cry out, 'Unclean, unclean!'

As long as the sore is on him he shall declare himself unclean, since he is in fact unclean. He shall dwell apart, making his abode outside the camp."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (32:1-2, 5, 11)

R. (7) I turn to you, Lord, in time of trouble, and you fill me with the joy of salvation.

Blessed is he whose fault is taken away, whose sin is covered. Blessed the man to whom the LORD imputes not guilt, in whose spirit there is no guile.

Then I acknowledged my sin to you, my guilt I covered not. I said, "I confess my faults to the LORD," and you took away the guilt of my sin.

Be glad in the LORD and rejoice, you just; exult, all you upright of heart.

SECOND READING (1 Cor 10:31—11:1)

Brothers and sisters, Whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do everything for the glory of God. Avoid giving offense, whether to the Jews or Greeks or the church of God, just as I try to please everyone in every way, not seeking my own benefit but that of the many, that they may be saved.

Be imitators of me, as I am of Christ.

ALLELUIA

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

A great prophet has arisen in our midst, God has visited his people.

R. Alleluia, alleluia

GOSPEL (Mk 1:40-45)

A leper came to Jesus and kneeling down begged him and said, "If you wish, you can make me clean." Moved with pity, he stretched out his hand, touched him, and said to him,

"I do will it. Be made clean." The leprosy left him immediately, and he was made clean. Then, warning him sternly, he dismissed him at once.

He said to him, "See that you tell no one anything, but go, show yourself to the priest and offer for your cleansing what Moses prescribed; that will be proof for them."

The man went away and began to publicize the whole matter. He spread the report abroad so that it was impossible for Jesus to enter a town openly. He remained outside in deserted places, and people kept coming to him from everywhere.

WHAT WILL YOUR LEGACY BE?

The Archdiocese of Omaha created the Living Legacy Circle as a special way to recognize those who have made a provision in their estate plans for the Archdiocese of Omaha or a parish or school within the archdiocese. Formerly known as the Heritage Society, the Living Legacy Circle provides a unique opportunity for those who want their giving to transcend their own lifetimes.

Upon notification of a planned gift or future bequest to the archdiocese or parish:

- The name of the individual or family is inscribed in the Living Legacy Circle framed print that is displayed at various archdiocesan events.
- A memento is presented to the individual or family.
- Twelve times throughout the year, all Living Legacy Circle members are remembered at a Mass.

On Sunday, February 14th, the 5 p.m. Mass is in remembrance of the living and deceased members of the Living Legacy Circle. Tony LaMar, Legacy Planning Officer for the Archdiocesan Stewardship and Development office, is very grateful for this remembrance and he will attend all Masses that weekend. He is happy to answer any questions you may have, and his contact information is below.
