PASTORS' CORNER: NOVEMBER 1ST & 2ND

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

UPCOMING ALL SAINTS AND ALL SOULS:

The Feast of All Saints is on a SATURDAY this year. We'll have a 4pm Mass at Resn on Fri Oct 31, and then on Sat morn Nov 1 at 8am at St. Paul and a 9am at Resn.

- If you fill out an All Souls envelopes we will put those envelopes on the altar at both St. Paul and Resurrection for all the Masses in November. ALSO, you can write your loved one's name into the BOOK OF LIFE at both St. Paul and Resurrection and we will pray for all those names written into the Book of Life at each parish at all the Masse during the month of November as well (and this is free of charge!) The books will be in the churches starting November 1 and you can fill in names before or after Masses.
- Finally, on Sat Nov 1 at 5pm at St. Paul and Sun Nov 2 at 1130am at Resurrection we will have special "REMEMBRANCE" Masses where we will pray for all those who have died through our parishes BY NAME. Those who were buried through St. Paul at St. Paul and those who were buried through Resurrection at Resurrection. We will also be happy to read the names of any family or friends who have died in the last year who were not part of our pastorate.

THE ARTESANOS OF DON BOSCO are the artists who made the ambo and altar for the renovated new church at Resurrection. The group "Mato Grosso" is a Catholic group which runs 110 mission sites in South America for the poor. They raise money for those missions, in part, by selling art and furniture made by people from their missions. The furniture and art is of the highest quality. They will have their wares displayed and will have people to help you if you are interested in any of their items on the weekends of Nov 1-2 and Nov 8-9 at Church of the Resurrection. All of the funds raised go to Mato Grosso, which, again, is doing great work for those in-need in South America and which also is active in the Baltimore region.

Please mark your calendars for the FALL RETREAT FOR BOTH ST. PAUL AND RESURRECTION. THE THEME IS "HAVING HOPE" and the presenter is Fr. Jude Winkler, OFM Conv who lives at St. Anthony Shrine nearby. He is EXCELLENT and your commitment of time will be WORTH IT.

To sign up go to the QR code shown on the websites and facebook pages or to tinyurl.com/NOV8RETREAT The retreat will start with a light breakfast from 845-915am and there will be two talks by Fr. Jude and a prayer time when we will put our hopes upon Jesus's cross and ask for his help.

Date: Saturday November 8, 2025 . Time: 8:45am-11:30am. Place: Church of the Resurrection.

The Archdiocese of Baltimore is seeking faithful Catholic men who feel called to serve the Church as permanent deacons. Deacons are ordained ministers who proclaim the Gospel, assist at the altar, and serve those in need through acts of charity and pastoral care.

If you are a man between the ages of 35 and 55, active in your parish, and open to discerning this unique vocation, we invite you to learn more about the diaconate formation process.

Information sessions are being held throughout the Archdiocese. For a list of sessions, visit www.archbalt.org/clergy and click on "Deacons." No registration is required. Attendance at an information session is mandatory prior to receiving an application.

For more information, please contact Fr. Michael Foppiano at mfoppiano@archbalt.org.

We now have a 430pm Sunday nite Mass in the main church at Resurrection. Let's keep this Mass in prayer that it would help as many more youth and families and individuals in our parish to regularly come to Mass.

If you attend this Mass but go to St. Paul please put any donations in an envelope indicating you are from St. Paul (including cash) and we'll make sure those funds are sent to support the Parish of St. Paul.

God bless you and keep praying!

Fr. Andy

DEACON'S NOTE:

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Two weekends ago Dcn. Allen and myself along with our wives had the opportunity to attend the Archdiocese of Baltimore Deacon Convocation. It was an awesome weekend of fellowship and enrichment with other deacons in the diocese. The weekend provided us the opportunity to revisit our day of ordination. It reminded us that we were ordained to serve, requiring us to give of ourselves sacrificially. As deacons our servanthood is sourced in God. Jesus and His mother Mary are models of the servanthood we are called to undertake. We are called to minister to the poor and needy, not just physically, but also spiritually within our diaconate ministry. When we were ordained to the diaconate each of us took on a new identity. Just like in the sacrament of Baptism and Confirmation, an indelible seal is placed on our souls identifying us as deacons. Yes, we receive the title of deacon, not to set us apart from anyone, but to remind us of our call to servanthood. When we are addressed as deacon it truly is a reminder of the commitment that we made on the day of our ordination, to serve all of God's children.

As members of the clergy we have facilities within the Archdiocese of Baltimore to: Bless people and items, baptize people into the faith, officiate weddings, conduct funerals, perform communion services, serve at Mass, and offer homilies. What we are not are; glorified altar servers or the priest helper. In fact, according to the General Instructions of the Roman Missal (GIRM) the deacon is required to perform the following parts of the Mass; lead the penitential rite, proclaim the Gospel, lead the universal prayers, set the altar for the consecration, mingle the water and wine prior to the consecration, offer the sign of peace, distribute Holy Communion, and dismiss the congregation after the final Blessing.

Both Dcn. Allen and I can attest that our diaconate vocation has changed our lives for the better, serving God's children is a wonderful gift that we have received. The Archdiocese of Baltimore is seeking faithful Catholic men who feel called to serve the Church as permanent deacons. You need to be between the ages of 35 and 55 to apply to the diaconate formation program. Details of informational sessions being conducted by the archdiocese can be found further in the bulletin. If you or someone you know may feel the call to the diaconate please attend one of the sessions. You can also talk to Dcn. Allen or myself.

God Bless,

Deacon George

WELCOME NEW PARISHIONERS

Welcome to St. Paul! We look forward to sharing our faith, activities, and fellowship with you. Stop by the parish office or go to our website to download our New Member Registration Form and drop it off the next time you're at St. Paul.

INCLEMENT WEATHER POLICY FOR MASS

First and foremost, please use your own judgement as to whether you can attend Mass or other events at St. Paul or Church of the Resurrection safely. When in doubt, please err on the side of caution. In the event of inclement weather during the week (Monday – Thursday) St. Paul Church and Church of the Resurrection will follow Howard County Schools and/or Resurrection-St. Paul School delays and closings. If Howard County Schools and/or Resurrection-St. Paul School has a two-hour delay or is closed Daily Mass will not be held at St. Paul under these conditions. Parishioners are encouraged to attend the 9:00am Mass at Church of the Resurrection on Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday. On Wednesdays with these inclement weather conditions the 8 am Mass will be moved to the Chapel at the Church of the Resurrection. Please follow WBAL TV and radio for weather related updates from Howard County Schools and/or Resurrection-St. Paul School beginning at 5:30 a.m. For Saturday morning 9:00 am Mass, if it is snowing or there is more than 1 inch of snow on the ground at 7:00 am, Mass will be celebrated in the Chapel at Church of the Resurrection and not at St. Paul. Electronic Messages will be sent out and the Parish Websites will be updated by 7:30 am on Saturday to reflect any changes if required. Saturday Vigil and Sunday Masses are typically not canceled for inclement weather. If Weekend Masses are impacted by inclement weather an Electronic Message will be sent out as well as updates to the website.

HOLY COMMUNION

Everyone present is invited to come forward in the communion procession. Only Catholics may receive Holy Communion in the Catholic Church; and Catholics should receive only if properly prepared. A blessing will be given to non-Catholics and to Catholics who aren't prepared: please cross your arms over your chest to signify that you want to receive a blessing.

LOW GLUTEN HOSTS

Low-Gluten Hosts are administered at every Mass. Please process in the celebrant's Communion line: when you reach him, please say, "Low-gluten, please".

EFT

Many of our parishioners use EFT (Electronic Funds Transfer) for their offertory giving. Please contact the parish office for more information on EFT, or visit our website and follow the link to enroll in E-Giving through Ministry Platform.

PASTORAL COUNCIL

The Pastoral Council is an advisory body, elected by the parishioners, which exists to monitor the health of the parish and its ministries, to bring pastoral issues to the pastor's attention, and to advise the pastor with respect to such issues.
