

Thank you for all the expressions of love and concern and all of the prayers offered up for us during the illness and death of our mother Sue. We appreciate the many cards and the beautiful flowers for her funeral. Your love and support have been a great comfort during this difficult time.

Love,

CASA DE LA Esperanza THE FOUNDATION

Happy New Year to you all! We continue with thanksgiving in our hearts of your generosity! We cannot thank you enough for your donations of Christmas gifts for our children.*

We wish you could have seen the looks of joy on the faces of the children as they tore into their gifts. After the initial excitement, they spent hours exploring and enjoying their gift. They had such a fun time playing with everything and admiring their new clothing. We have posted some photos of our kids opening and playing with their gifts on Facebook should you like to see them.

Thank you again for the enjoyment you provided for our kids. It is a blessing for them to know that there are Christians out there, that they may have never met, who care about them enough to think of them at Christmas time. You are truly a blessing to us all!

*Most sincerely yours,
Gil Sanchez*

February

6 pm Sunday, February 10, 2019 - Annual Congregational Meeting

We extend our sincere sympathy to Patty Herмосillo upon the death of her father, Dwayne Simon of Azle, TX. He had been struggling with ALS, Lou Gehrig’s Disease. Services were pending in Dallas area as this went to print Friday.

Also, we were saddened to hear that Fred Lucero died January 10, 2019. Our condolences to D’Aun and their family. Fred’s services will be held at Sunset Funeral Homes-West, 480 North Resler.

Visitation: 5 pm – 9 pm this afternoon, and funeral is tomorrow, 2 pm Monday, also at Sunset-West

Jessica Estevão-Groover came forward Sunday to thank Church for the prayers, and to please continue to keep her in your prayers,. She attributes the power of prayer for gaining strength and courage from those prayers!
