

UPCOMING TRIP TO CASA DE ESPERANZA

If you have ever wanted to travel to Anahuac, Mexico and see the children's home where Gil and Becky Sanchez have worked, this is your opportunity.

Gil Sanchez is driving a van on Monday, March 4 to Casa de Esperanza and will return to El Paso on Thursday morning, March 7.

Travelers will leave the Westside Building at 7:30 am Monday and should be home by about 1 pm Thursday. All costs for your transportation, room & board will be covered. Everyone traveling will need a passport. If you do not have one there is still time to apply and get one by going to the Passport Office in downtown El Paso.

If you plan to go, please talk with Gil Sanchez or Lacey Lamphere as soon as possible.

There will be a brief meeting on Sunday, March 3 to finalize plans. Don't miss this great opportunity!

IN MEMORY OF SUE WILKINS

Beverly and I want to thank all of you who have expressed your love for our family after the death of her mother Sue Wilkins in December. Some of you have asked if there is some cause or ministry to which you could donate in her memory. Beverly has wanted to donate books to the Children's Library at the Casa de Esperanza Home in Anahuac, Mexico in memory of her mother.

If you are interested in adding to that donation, please visit with Beverly. Checks can be made to Westside Church of Christ and just make an entry on the notation Memo: "Sue Wilkins Memorial".

Thank you for being our loving family in this time of grief.

Beverly and Howard

Please keep Ed and his family in your prayers. Mary Anna Freeman passed away Friday, February 15. Services were held yesterday.

Katherine Sanner is scheduled to have abdominal surgery Monday. If all goes well, it will be an outpatient procedure.

LaVoyne Newman's nephew and family are in need of prayer. His name is David Newman and he lives in Denver. Unfortunately, his health is declining rapidly, he was diagnosed with brain cancer a little over a year ago.
