FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (B)

July 14, 2024

The scriptures this weekend remind us that God's deepest desire from the beginning of creation is for us to feel the joy and freedom of sharing in the glory of His divinity. He wants us to be so infinitely and intimately attached to Him like a groom and His bride. But what we read is that we must first and foremost have a resolute 'faith' in Him. We must have an unrelenting belief in God and what He represents in order for God's grace and healing power to work in us. God assigned the twelve apostles to start His church through steadfast faith, courage and above all, humility. Thus, he has also called us out on mission. How well are we measuring up?

Psalm Reflection

O God, our Savior and Redeemer, who have shown us great favor in generous mercy and loving fidelity, grant us the vision to see your hand at work in things subtle and hidden, profound and life-altering, so that we may wait in confidence for the great day when the fullness of your kingdom is revealed among us. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.
