TENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (B)

June 9, 2024

Our readings for today remind us that sin is not just 'personal'. In fact sin has deep ramifications and not only within us but even within the external bounds of nature! As we see in the story of Adam and Eve, God created the Garden of Eden. Everything in it was 'good' or 'perfect'. But as soon as Adam and Eve sinned, this perfection was lost. There was now enmity between not only Adam and Eve but also between them and nature. But God in His everlasting mercy did not give up on us. Even today, God's mercy is highly on offer. But it is up to us to use our free will and turn back to God and firmly follow in his ways. Are we making that turn in our own daily lives?

Almighty and ever-living God, in your boundless forgiveness hear our pleas and bestow on us you're reconciling love; for without your pardon, our journey is aimless, and only by your grace may we come to know the true meaning of our life. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.
