TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (B)

September 15, 2024

The readings for this weekend talk fundamentally about 'work' and 'action'. For example we hear Saint James speaking about how 'faith' is dead without 'works'. The message here is simple: praying and devout faithfulness in short order, has no value unless it is accompanied by good works of charity toward others. Similarly, we learn in the Gospel reading that following Christ is more than just faithful reference but about carrying one's cross. It is in doing this that we actually follow Christ and in the end, find our real purpose, fulfillment and mission!!

Psalm Reflection

Lord God, Deliverer and Redeemer, we come before you as your servants who have experienced your saving grace in our lives. In your loving kindness, enable us to walk in your truth and fidelity as we witness to the power of your salvation, calling always upon your name with trust and confidence. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.
