- Pastoral Council—Thursday, January 21, 7:00 p.m. in the parish hall

- Finance Council—Thursday, February 4, 7:00 p.m. in the parish hall

+++++ I have some "use it or lose it" travel points that will soon expire. While I'm not yet sure how far that will get me, I plan to take January 25-29 for some pre-Lent time off. There will be no daily Masses that week and hopefully the staff will be back to full steam to take care of any needs you may have. Thank you for your understanding.

+++++ Our "teaching Mass" that was postponed back in December due to weather is rescheduled for Sunday, January 31 at 5:00 p.m.

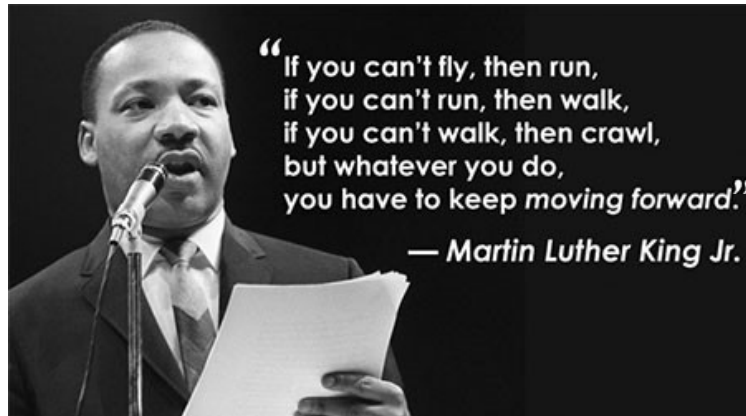

+++++ Part of our gearing back up for the new year is reminding parents of middle and high school youth that youth catechesis is part of the basic expectation of Catholic parents for their young people. Even and especially when our youth don't want to go to Mass and/or classes and youth group, we owe it to them to insist that they learn now that following Christ often entails going beyond what we want, is comfortable, and feels good to choose instead what is right and responsible. This includes keeping our commitment to God and to the community of believers, the Church. In this challenging time when union with God and with others different than ourselves seems to get lost in a myriad of other priorities, it is more important than ever to insist that our youth learn a different way. Many thanks to all our wonderful parents for refusing to allow God and Church to be shelved below all the other school, sports, and social activities that demand our young people's time and energy and to take the firm stand that with God and faith first, all the other things find their proper place and priority in our lives. Of course, we know that the pandemic has scaled back activities and participation. Meanwhile, our staff and I are here to listen and serve. How can we help?

Fr. Scott

We are excited to announce that St. Ann's will be forming small groups during the season of Lent this year. The purpose of our groups will be prayer, fellowship, learning more about our Catholic faith, and becoming active followers of Jesus. If you are interested in either hosting or facilitating a small group, please contact: Angela Asbill at aasbill@stannsofcanyon.org or 806-683-7470.

(Note: There will be an upcoming day retreat to help train and equip all leaders of these groups.)
