STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

Today's Gospel passage comes as a pat on the back from Heaven for all of us striving to live a stewardship way of life. It reminds us why we live the way we do and why we make the choices we make. Let's face it, if we truly embrace this way of life, there will be people who find our choices — based on serving God and others — downright foolish. But let's see what God thinks. Spoiler alert: turns out Christian stewards are not the fools!

In this passage, Jesus makes it clear that life is not about "stuff" as he tells the parable of the wealthy businessman who thought he had everything figured out. The man had such an abundance of stuff that he didn't have room to store it all. So, thinking of earthly things and not on what is above, he decided to build a bigger place to store all that stuff. Patting himself on the back, he thought about what good times he would have in the years ahead. But Jesus tells us that day would turn out to be the man's last day on the earth. And he had spent it thinking only of himself. How foolish!

Don't be ashamed of living differently from the people around you. Be confident as you set priorities based on what is above. You are wise in God's eyes, Christian steward. And you will be rich in what matters most.

El pasaje del Evangelio de hoy es una palmada en la espalda del Cielo para todos los que nos esforzamos por vivir una vida de mayordomía. Nos recuerda por qué vivimos de la manera en que lo hacemos y por qué tomamos las decisiones que tomamos. Seamos realistas, si realmente adoptamos esta forma de vida, habrá personas que encontrarán nuestras elecciones, basadas en servir a Dios y a los demás, francamente tontas. Pero veamos qué piensa Dios. Alerta de spoiler: ¡resulta que los mayordomos cristianos no son tontos!

En este pasaje, Jesús deja en claro que la vida no se trata de "cosas", como cuenta la parábola del hombre de negocios rico que pensó que tenía todo resuelto. El hombre tenía tal abundancia de cosas que no tenía espacio para guardarlas todas. Entonces, pensando en las cosas terrenales y no en lo de arriba, decidió construir un lugar más grande para almacenar todas esas cosas. Dándose palmaditas en la espalda, pensó en los buenos momentos que tendría en los próximos años. Pero Jesús nos dice que ese día resultaría ser el último día del hombre en la tierra. Y lo había pasado pensando sólo en sí mismo. ¡Que tonto!

No te avergüences de vivir diferente a las personas que te rodean. Tenga confianza al establecer prioridades basadas en lo que está arriba. Eres sabio a los ojos de Dios, mayordomo cristiano. Y serás rico en lo que más importa.

DAILY PRAYERS FOR VOCATIONS

St. Pius X unites with all parishes of the San Diego Diocese in offering up prayers for the intentions of our Pope, Bishops, and Priests.

Please visit the Diocesan website for a monthly
"Priest of the Day" Calendar:
<https://www.sdccatholic.org/diocese/clergy/priests/>

Fr. Joe Carroll earned the label "Hustler Priest" early in his career and it stuck. Always a wheeler and dealer, his ability to get things done served him well in developing what is now called Father Joe's Villages.

Fr. Joe Carroll was a beloved priest of the St. Pius X Community. St. Pius was his second assignment as a parish priest, and he is remembered fondly by many. One of Fr. Joe's most notable contributions to St. Pius X is our Lenten Soup Kitchen, which brings together the many members of our parish family.

This book is full of heartwarming and hilarious stories, some of which our long-time parishioners may be familiar with.

A limited number of signed copies of Fr. Joe's book are available at Holy Grounds.

JUNIPERO SERRA VOCATIONS CHALICE

Parishioners of St. Pius X have a unique opportunity to pray for religious vocations. Those who sign up as hosts of the "Traveling Chalice" are presented with it at the end of Mass. It is placed in a prominent area of their home for the duration of one week, during which time daily prayers are recited for an increase in vocations to the priesthood and religious life.

Sign up as a
Chalice Host
by contacting the Parish Center.

Sunday Stories/Historias De Domingo: A Collection of Tales Humorous and Otherwise, is a bilingual collection of short stories and jokes paired with whimsical illustrations. It is written by Father Ned Brockhaus, a retired priest of the Diocese of San Diego.

The 2022 collection is the seventh installment in a series. Father Ned publishes one each year. Not only is the book great fun, but it is also available at a price that can't be beat: FREE! That's right, Father Ned charges nothing for his books, but does include a donation envelope addressed to Father Joe's Villages. If you enjoy what you read, you are encouraged to consider supporting those who are striving to overcome homelessness.

Copies of Fr. Ned's book are available at Holy Grounds.

CLERGY CORNER

With First Friday Adoration and Confession coming up, here are some helpful tips to making your time in front of the Blessed Sacrament fruitful.

1. Cultivate a Period of Silence

It's important to create a period of silence at the start of Adoration. [Compare] it to going to the gym. You don't just run off to the gym... Likewise, you have to settle yourself for prayer. Arriving early and silencing your cell phone before entering church is a good first step. Next, be conscious of how you walk in. If you're young like me and inclined to be hasty, slow your pace. You're going to meet Jesus, not run a race!

2. Be Aware of Your Physical Posture

Humans are creatures composed of body and soul. What we do with our bodies, therefore, affects our souls. If I'm slouched over in the pew, eyes half-closed, in a position comfortable enough to fall asleep, that's hardly going to cultivate a prayerful attitude in me, is it?

3. Take Time to Say Goodbye

Imagine if you were visiting a friend. The time's up for your visit and you snatch up your coat and rush out the door, not bothering to bid them farewell. It'd be beyond rude. Yet often people do this to Jesus... Take your time saying goodbye... Thank Jesus for this time you've had with Him... When you step outside, try not to launch right into the bustle of life. Take some time to carry that silence and peace of Adoration with you into the world. Checking your phone for texts can wait a couple of minutes.

St. Jude Adoration Chapel is open 24/7. Please sign up to make a Holy Hour at the Parish Center.

4. Make a Regular Commitment if Possible

I find that people are reluctant to regularly spend time in Adoration... They spend extra time with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament only when they feel like it, missing out on so many graces... Imagine if someone fell in love and thought they might marry another person. Wouldn't it be strange, then, if they only spent time with the other person when they felt like it? It would. We expect people in love to make time to regularly see each other, even at the cost of sacrificing time that could be spent on other things they enjoy doing. If this is so in our human relationships, how is it that people are so stingy with God? He hasn't just given us everything. He is everything. Life has no meaning at all without Him.

Someone might object: "But I pray at home, work, etc. Why should I spend extra time in church? Isn't God present everywhere?"

Yes, He is. But He is physically present in the Eucharist. As we all know, physical presence matters.

A Zoom meeting is nothing compared to an in-person visit.

So it is with Our Lord.

Jesus took on a human nature. He is truly present, Flesh and Blood (as well as Soul and Divinity) in the Eucharist. He longs not just for a spiritual union with us, but even a physical one. Simply to be in His Physical Presence, even without receiving Him in Holy Communion, imparts graces that can never be matched by a mere spiritual presence.
