BISHOP MCELROY TO BE INSTALLED AS A CARDINAL!

The Vatican announced on May 29 that Bishop Robert McElroy, has been appointed by Pope Francis to the College of Cardinals. Cardinal-Elect McElroy will be installed by Pope Francis in a consistory to take place August 27 at St. Peter's Basilica in Rome.

Pope Francis made the announcement at the end of his weekly Angelus prayers from the Papal Palace just after noon, Rome time, on May 29. McElroy is the fifth American to be named a Cardinal by Pope Francis. All cardinals under 80 years of age are voting members, able to serve in the Conclave that elects the Pope.

Bishop McElroy issued the following statement upon learning of his naming:

"I am stunned and deeply surprised by the news that Pope Francis has appointed me to the College of Cardinals. My prayer is that in this ministry I might be of additional service to the God who has graced me on so many levels in my life. And I pray also that I can assist the Holy Father in his pastoral renewal of the Church.

"In this moment, I give thanks for those who have contributed profoundly to my life and priesthood: my family, the priests and women religious who helped to form me, and the Catholic community of San Diego and Imperial Counties, whom it is my privilege to lead."

*Congratulations
Cardinal-Elect McElroy!*

Bishop Robert McElroy will ordain Dcn. Bradley D. Easterbrooks and Dcn. Guillermo Hernandez to the priesthood.

As students at the Pontifical North American College, the American seminary in Rome, the men were ordained to the transitional diaconate last September at St. Peter's Basilica in Vatican City.

Deacon Easterbrooks, 37, will be assigned to Holy Trinity Parish in El Cajon this summer and then will return to Rome for another year to earn an advanced degree in Dogmatic Theology at the Pontifical Gregorian University.
