Welcome to St. Ann's, Fr. Taylor!

We welcome Fr. Taylor Elzner to our Saturday evening Mass this weekend. Parochial Vicar at St. Laurence Parish in Amarillo, Fr. Taylor was willing to cover for me so that I can spend more time with our youth at the Steubenville Conference in Irving. He is no stranger to St. Ann's as he served on our staff and participated in a variety of parish events in the past. Thank you, Fr. Taylor!

Missing Campaign Reminders

"The best laid plans of mice and men..." In our case, our human plans have recently run aground somewhere at the U.S. Post Office on Western Street in Amarillo. Fact: Capital Campaign reminders were bulk mailed on May 29. Fact: Most if not all these reminders never arrived in their intended recipients' mailbox, including mine. Fact: Our next round of reminders will be mailed this week as we're attempting to do at the end of every month. Fact: We will hand mail these at the customer service window at the Canyon post office instead of dropping them in the drive-up mailbox. Hope: You will receive these soon and continue to pay on your pledge to our capital campaign as we move forward together. Thank you for your patience and generosity and please accept our apologies for the confusion. St. Gabriel, patron saint of postal workers, pray for us!

Weddings at Sunday Liturgies

The Pastoral Council has recently discussed the growing practice in our parish of having the sacrament of matrimony celebrated during regularly scheduled Saturday and Sunday liturgies. It is a beautiful and theologically rich opportunity for the parish family to surround a couple with prayerful support on the day of their nuptials, similar to our preferred practice of celebrating baptism on weekends. The staff and I will continue to help couples who choose this option to remember the blessings as well as limitations of such a choice (having to use the Sunday readings, cooperating with the liturgical feast and season, limiting music choices, recognizing that it won't be just those they invite at their Mass, etc.) Also, we will take steps to make sure people coming for a regularly scheduled Masses know that they need not leave when they see people in wedding attire as they arrive to a Mass of the parish family. We thank everyone who is willing to have their weekend Mass expanded to include those who are marrying, especially our Saturday evening Mass-goers.

Next Saturday, July 2, we will welcome Colten Bison and Katherine Bezner and their families and friends as this couple exchange their marriage vows at the 5 p.m. Mass. Colten went through RCIA at St. Ann's last year and Katherine has been involved with our youth ministry. Please pray for them as they ready for their wedding among us!
