A Prayer to St. Simon the Apostle

O Glorious Saint Simon, you were a cousin of Jesus and a devoted follower as well.

You were called "the Zealot," indicating that you were willing to give your life for your religion and your freedom as a human person.

Obtain for us the grace to be willing to give our lives for Christ and to labor for the freedom and peace that only God can give.

Help us to spend ourselves for God on earth and be received by him in eternal bliss in heaven.
Amen.

From the Desk of Sr. Cora Lombardo, ASCJ

Jesus' Mission = Our Mission

Let us learn to be Apostles, not in name only, but in the spirit of the twelve Apostles." These words of Blessed Clelia remind us of the mission we embrace when we renew our Baptismal Promises at every Easter Vigil, Baptism and Confirmation. It's not my mission or your mission. It's Jesus' Mission because He is the One sent by the Father. By Baptism, we are plunged into Jesus' death and resurrection so we share His life; we participate in His Mission.

We need to remember WHO we are and WHO we are called to be during these tough times of COVID-19. We are called as apostles to share our faith and to encourage each other as we meet stressful challenges.

Jesus sent the twelve Apostles out to proclaim the Good News, the Gospel. Apostles are sent; we are sent. If we love God, we need to show some enthusiasm, some zeal, some fire in the belly.

On Saturday, October 17, Fr. Sorgie blessed the shrine dedicated to Blessed Clelia Merloni. The heart of the shrine is the exquisite statue of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Jesus is the focal point to which the portrait of Blessed Clelia points as if it were concretely revealing the dynamic union she shared with the Heart of Jesus. The Mission Lamp containing her relic is positioned between her and Jesus. It visually reminds us of that zeal that impelled Clelia to embrace the Mission of Jesus. Ignited by the love of Jesus' heart, she sought to comfort and care for the needs of the homeless, hungry and immigrants. Blessed Clelia embodies the motto of the Apostles of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, "Caritas Christi Urget Nos," the love of Christ impels us.

At our Baptism, our parents and godparents received a lit candle depicting the light of Faith: the fire of Love, the burning coal of Hope we received. We need to fan into flame these sacred gifts and proclaim the Good News of God's saving love, revealed to us in the Heart of His Son. When I was a little girl and the sky grew dark, the winds blew and the lights went out, my mother lit our Baptismal Candles. The light and warmth from them dispelled the darkness, fear and gloom. This is what we must do: "Learn to be Apostles, not in name only, but in the spirit of the twelve Apostles." Why? "Zeal is the duty not only of the Apostles but of every Christian," taught Blessed Clelia.

When we go to pray at the shrine, we may enter into the profound relationship of Blessed Clelia with Jesus who desires this same relationship with us. He calls us to put our Baptismal Promises into our lives and participate in His Mission.

How? By participating in the PREP-sponsored Coats & Cans Drive in the parking lot of Immaculate Conception Church:

Saturday, Nov. 7, from 3:30-5:00 PM

Our Parish Mission Statement

The Roman Catholic Parish of Immaculate Conception and Assumption of Our Lady is a Eucharistic community: glorifying the Father, united with the Son, led by the Holy Spirit and protected by Mary. We are called to pray, educate and serve God's people in this life and in the hope of eternal life.

Sacraments and Liturgy

If you have a question about any aspect of our Catholic Church and faith, contact us and we will answer to the best of our ability.

252. "How do I find and read a copy of documents written by our Pope?"

After a Pope writes a document, like Pope Francis' Exhortation "The Joy of the Gospel" – sometimes in his native language – it is translated into Latin (the official language of the Church). Following that, it gets officially translated into an enormous number of languages.

It then makes its way swiftly onto the Vatican website which is <http://www.vatican.va/>. There, you can find the document in eight languages, including English, Spanish and Italian. You can read it online, make a copy or download it to your computer.

In due time, the Vatican will officially publish paper translations that you can buy in Catholic book stores and through Catholic publishing houses. The official publishing house of the Vatican is "Libreria Editrice Vaticana," and you can shop for a document online.

Lastly, Catholic newspapers, bulletins and those that buy the rights to publish the document begin to disseminate the text.

The point is to read, study, pray with and then put into practice what the Holy Father — or one of his curial congregations — wants us to learn.

At this moment, the most recent document of Pope Francis is his encyclical "Fratelli Tutti" ("We are all Brothers and Sisters"). Find and read this most important reflection on Fraternity and Social Friendship. Also, see pg. 8.

Ushers Needed at Mass

Because of a shortage caused by the pandemic, we are looking for some new, committed ushers.

Ushers greet the faithful, seat people properly and safely, watch the sanitizing of hands, organize the taking of collections, help with proceeding to communion, and hand out bulletins to the faithful as they leave safely. After a brief training, you can begin serving the parish in this way.

Next Weekend's Readings

Solemnity of All Saints, Year A

Reading I: Revelation 7: 2-4, 9-14

Here, we have two visions of John. In the first, 144,000 are observed "sealed on the forehead" with God's name. In the second, an uncountable group wear white robes, cleansed in the Lamb's Blood, and they hoist the palm frond of victory.

Reading II: I John 3: 1-3

This reading tells the Johannine community that God's love for them makes them "children of God." They sing in response because they believe that they will become divinized and that God demands that they be as pure as possible.

The Gospel: Matthew 5: 1-12a

The famous "Sermon on the Mount" begins with Jesus' eight beatitudes. A beatitude is defined as "an exclamation of congratulations that recognizes an existing state of happiness."

Discerning Your Vote : Care for Creation

We are called to live our faith in all aspects of our lives. This statement requires much prayer and discernment from each of us. We acknowledge the difficulty of this and the perceived alignment or misalignment of the candidates and issues with our Catholic faith. We will not be telling you for whom or what to vote. We will be encouraging careful discernment, intentional prayer, and a universal call to holiness and compassion to inform your voting.

This week, we focus on Care for God's Creation. Beginning with Pope St. John Paul II through Pope Francis, care for creation has been an integral part of Catholic social teaching. "Everything is connect-

iVoteCatholic
Care for God's Creation

ed. Concern for the environment thus needs to be joined to a sincere love of our fellow human beings and an unwavering commitment to resolving the problems of society...we human beings are united as brothers and sisters on a wonderful pilgrimage woven together by the love God has for each of his creatures." (#92,93 Pope Francis)

When we do things to protect the earth and care for it, we show reverence for God, the creator of all. Under this principle fall issues such as laws governing corporate and individual use of environmental resources - including land, water, and air - which impact all living things.

Fratelli Tutti

Pope Francis' Latest Encyclical

On October 4, the feast of St. Francis of Assisi, Pope Francis issued his latest encyclical, Fratelli Tutti, On Fraternity and Social Friendship. This is more than just another Church document. It is Pope Francis' "cry from the heart" to all people of the earth to see beyond their differences—indeed, to work with their differences—and begin to grow together to build a new and peaceful world.

Using the parable of the good Samaritan as a model, the pope lays out concrete ways to begin this process: listening to one another, caring for one another, reaching out beyond our own culture, and being willing to engage in honest and open dialogue. To achieve all this, we need to be like the good Samaritan—acting as a loving neighbor, leaving behind our self-imposed border walls (prejudice, judgmentalism), and taking the risk to encounter others as they are.

Returning again and again to themes he has developed throughout his papacy, Pope Francis speaks of the need for equality and justice for all, cooperation, caring for the most vulnerable, doing the hard work of learning to listen to and accompany others, and caring for the earth that nurtures and sustains us all.

The pope ends his letter to the world with this prayer to the Holy Spirit: "Come, Holy Spirit, show us your beauty, reflected in all the peoples of the earth, so that we may discover anew that all are important and all are necessary, different faces of the one humanity that God so loves."

Si tiene preguntas acerca de cualquier aspecto de nuestra Fe o Religión Católica. Deje una nota o llámenos y le responderemos de la mejor manera posible.

252. “¿Cómo puedo encontrar y leer una copia de los documentos escritos por el Papa?”

Después que un Papa escribe un documento, como el del Papa Francisco Exhortación, “La alegría del Evangelio” - algunas veces escritos en su idioma natal - es traducido al Latín, idioma oficial de la Iglesia. A continuación es traducido a numerosos idiomas.

De allí se rápidamente se abre camino a la red del Vaticano, la cual es <http://www.vatican.va/>. Allí se puede encontrar el documento en ocho idiomas, incluyendo Inglés, Español e Italiano puedes leerlo en la red, bajarlo, o copiarlo en la computadora.

La disponibilidad en papel será de manera más lenta. El Vaticano oficialmente publicará traducciones en papel, las cuales podrán ser adquiridas en tiendas Católicas o a través de casas publicadoras también Católicas. La casa de publicación oficial del Vaticano es la “Librería Editrice Vaticana y usted puede adquirir este documento a través de la tienda en la red.

Finalmente, los periódicos Católicos, boletines y todos los que hayan adquirido derechos para publicar el documento, comienzan a disseminar el texto.

El asunto es leerlo, estudiarlo, orar y ponerlo en práctica lo que el Santo Padre - o una de las congregaciones de la curia - desean que aprendamos.

En este momento el documento más reciente del Papa Francisco es la encíclica “Fratelli Tutti” (“Todos somos hermanos y hermanas”). Búsquenlo, encuéntralo, léanlo es un documento importante que trata de las reflexiones acerca de la Fraternidad y la amistad en sociedad.
