And one of them, realizing he had been healed, returned, glorifying God in a loud voice; and he fell at the feet of Jesus and thanked him. He was a Samaritan. Jesus said in reply, "Ten were cleansed, were they not? Where are the other nine? Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?" - Lk 17:15-18

28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

It seems that there is always an exception. The rules for a game are to be observed, except when certain conditions arise that make for a new rule. While much of the game is the same, the rules in baseball or football have adapted to different situations over time. The NFL did not allow a two-point conversion after a touchdown while the AFL did. After the leagues merged, the two-point conversion was abandoned. It would return twenty-five years later when the NFL adopted the two-point conversion rule in 1994. The exception that the AFL had in its ten years of existence eventually became the rule in league play. For most fans this nearly twenty year-old play is just part of the game, although some purists still debate the wisdom of the move. In the Gospel today, Jesus tells the ten lepers to go and show themselves to the priests who are the ones who can certify that the leprosy with which they were each afflicted has been cleansed. This was the statute prescribed in the law of Moses, and after an examination by the priests, a leper who was healed could then return to the community. Nine of these lepers follow the rules. One of them breaks away after he realizes that he has been cleansed and returns to thank Jesus. The action of the leper who returned to give thanks has become the exception that proves the rule. The law of Moses required that anyone cleansed of leprosy would offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving to Lord for the divine intervention. When the Samaritan returned to thank Jesus, he was implicitly signaling that the Lord was present in our midst. Like the Samaritan leper, we can recognize that the Lord has been at work in our lives, and we can offer thanks. It's a good rule to put in place for our entire life, and not just an occasional exception.

Faith Formation

FORMACIÓN EN LA FE

The Holy Spirit has given all those responsible for catechizes a vocation and a mission. Jesus said to his apostles, "what I heard from my Father I tell the world" Jn 8:26, the apostles, on their part, were to echo this divine word faithfully and completely. This "echo" of the Word of God is catechizes it is among the principal means by which the Church hands on the faith, a faith the is professed, lived and celebrated in Liturgy and prayers. I want to thank and congratulate all the women and men who have generously responded to Jesus' bidding. May Mary and St. Joseph guide you as you share with others the spiritual treasure you have found. By: Sister Hilda Natalia Rodriguez

El Espíritu Santo ha dado a todos los responsables de la catequesis una vocación y una misión. Jesús dijo a sus apóstoles, "yo les he dicho todo lo que he escuchado de mi Padre" Jn 8:26 los apóstoles, por su parte, deberían, fiel y completamente, hacer eco de esta palabra divina. La catequesis es justamente este "eco" de la Palabra de Dios pues es uno de los medios principales que la Iglesia utiliza para compartir la fe, esa fe que es profesada, vivida y celebrada en la Liturgia y en la oración. Quiero agradecer y felicitar a las mujeres y hombres que generosamente han respondido al llamado de Jesús. Le pido a María Santísima y a san José que los acompañen a compartir el tesoro espiritual que han encontrado. Por: La Hermana Hilda Natalia Rodríguez
