Merry Christmas!

We celebrate with joy that Jesus has come for us. Someone recently asked me about the meaning of Christmas for Catholics. However, the meaning of Christmas is the same for everyone. Pope Saint Leo the Great once preached, “Dearly beloved, today our Savior is born; let us rejoice. Sadness should have no place on the birthday of life. The fear of death has been swallowed up; life brings us joy with the promise of eternal happiness. No one is shut out from this joy; all share the same reason for rejoicing. Our Lord, victor over sin and death, finding no man free from sin, came to free us all. Let the saint rejoice as he sees the palm of victory at hand. Let the sinner be glad as he receives the offer of forgiveness. Let the pagan take courage as he is summoned to life.” No one is shut out from this joy; all share the same reason for rejoicing. Jesus came for everyone. Let us sing with joy like the angels, “Glory to God in the highest!” I wish you and your loved ones a very blessed Christmas season! God bless!
