ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

Ps. 105:3-4

(9:30) Gregorian Missal — Mode II

Laetetur cor quaerentium Dominum: quaerite Dominum, et confirmamini: quaerite faciem eius semper. V. Confitemini Domino, et invocate nomen eius: annunciate inter gentes opera eius.

Let the hearts of those who seek the Lord rejoice; seek the Lord and be strengthened; seek his face for evermore. V. Give thanks to the Lord, call upon his name, declare his deeds among the gentiles.

PENITENTIAL ACT

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

Striking their breast, the faithful say:

through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault;
therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Mass in Honor of Our Lady of Good Help - A. Esguerra

GLORIA

Congregational Mass—John Lee

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, only begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

FIRST READING

Sirach 35:12-14, 16-18

The Lord is a God of justice, who knows no favorites.
Though not unduly partial toward the weak, yet he hears the cry of the oppressed. The Lord is not deaf to the wail of the orphan, nor to the widow when she pours out her complaint. The one who serves God willingly is heard; his petition reaches the heavens. The prayer of the lowly pierces the clouds; it does not rest till it reaches its goal, nor will it withdraw till the Most High responds, judges justly and affirms the right, and the Lord will not delay.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 34:2-3, 17-18, 19, 23

R. The Lord hears the cry of the poor.

I will bless the Lord at all times;
his praise shall be ever in my mouth.
Let my soul glory in the Lord;
the lowly will hear me and be glad. R.

The Lord confronts the evildoers,
to destroy remembrance of them from the earth.
When the just cry out, the Lord hears them,
and from all their distress he rescues them. R.

The Lord is close to the brokenhearted;
and those who are crushed in spirit he saves.
The Lord redeems the lives of his servants;
no one incurs guilt who takes refuge in him. R.

SECOND READING

2 Timothy 4:6-8, 16-18

Beloved: I am already being poured out like a libation, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have competed well; I have finished the race; I have kept the faith. From now on the crown of righteousness awaits me, which the Lord, the just judge, will award to me on that day, and not only to me, but to all who have longed for his appearance. At my first defense no one appeared on my behalf, but everyone deserted me. May it not be held against them! But the Lord stood by me and gave me strength, so that through me the proclamation might be completed and all the Gentiles might hear it. And I was rescued from the lion's mouth. The Lord will rescue me from every evil threat and will bring me safe to his heavenly kingdom. To him be glory forever and ever. Amen.

GOSPEL

Luke 18:9-14

Jesus addressed this parable to those who were convinced of their own righteousness and despised everyone else. "Two people went up to the temple area to pray; one was a Pharisee and the other was a tax collector. The Pharisee took up his position and spoke this prayer to himself, 'O God, I thank you that I am not like the rest of humanity -- greedy, dishonest, adulterous -- or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week, and I pay tithes on my whole income.' But the tax collector stood off at a distance and would not even raise his eyes to heaven but beat his breast and prayed, 'O God, be merciful to me a sinner.' I tell you, the latter went home justified, not the former; for whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted."

HOMILY

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, +Bow down+ and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. +Stand+ For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

OFFERTORY MOTET (9:30) Heinrich Schütz (1585-1672)

The Pharisee and Publican: Es gingen zweien Menschen hinauf

Es gingen zweien Menschen hinauf in den Tempel, zu beten, einer ein Pharisäer, der ander ein Zöllner. Der Pharisäer stund und betet bei sich selbst: Ich danke dir, Gott, dass ich nicht bin wie die andere Leute, Räuber, Ungerechte, Ehebrecher, oder auch wie dieser Zöllner. Ich faste zweier in der Wochen und gebe den Zehnten von allem, das ich habe. Und der Zöllner stund von ferne, wollte auch seine Augen nicht aufschlagen gen Himmel, sondern schlug an Gott, sei mir Sünder gnädig! Ich sage euch: Dieser ging hinab gerechtfertigt in sein Haus für jenem. Denn wer sich selbst erhöht, der wird erniedriget werden; und wer sich selbst erniedriget, der soll erhöht werden. ~Luke 18:10-14

Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican. The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, "God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican. I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess." And the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner. I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other: for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

AS THE WORLD SPINS, THE CROSS STANDS FIRM

THE HUMILITY TO ASK

*"The prayer of the lowly pierces the clouds; it does not rest till it reaches its goal."
-Sirach 35:21*

Last weekend's Papal Day Celebration in Kolbe Hall marked forty-four years since St. John Paul II's election as the successor of St. Peter in 1978. In this Month of October, dedicated as it is to Our Blessed Mother and the Holy Rosary, I find a deep resonance in this weekend's Scriptures with the teaching of St. John Paul II on the theme of prayer as a fervent asking for what we need from Mary and her Son, Jesus. On this theme, I share an excerpt from the Polish pope's remarkable Apostolic Letter on the Rosary which was promulgated in 2002 on the anniversary of his October 16th election as Pope, which was the Feast of St. Hedwig:

Jesus invited us to turn to God with insistence and the confidence that we will be heard: "Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you" (Mt 7:7). The basis for this power of prayer is the goodness of the Father, but also the mediation of Christ himself (cf. 1Jn 2:1) and the working of the Holy Spirit who "intercedes for us" according to the will of God...In support of the prayer which Christ and the Spirit cause to rise in our hearts, Mary intervenes with her maternal intercession. "The prayer of the Church is sustained by the prayer of Mary". If Jesus, the one Mediator, is the Way of our prayer, then Mary, his purest and most transparent reflection, shows us the Way. "Beginning with Mary's unique cooperation with the working of the Holy Spirit, the Churches developed their prayer to the Holy Mother of God, centering it on the person of Christ manifested in his mysteries". At the wedding of Cana the Gospel clearly shows the power of Mary's intercession as she makes known to Jesus the needs of others: "They have no wine" (Jn 2:3).

The Rosary is both meditation and supplication. Insistent prayer to the Mother of God is based on confidence that her maternal intercession can obtain all things from the heart of her Son. She is "all-powerful by grace", to use the bold expression, which needs to be properly understood, of Blessed Bartolo Longo in his Supplication to Our Lady. This is a conviction which, beginning with the Gospel, has grown ever more firm in the experience of the Christian people. The supreme poet Dante expresses it marvelously in the lines sung by Saint Bernard: "Lady, thou art so great and so powerful, that whoever desires grace yet does not turn to thee, would have his desire fly without wings". When in the Rosary we plead with Mary, the sanctuary of the Holy Spirit (cf. Lk 1:35), she intercedes for us before the Father who filled her with grace and before the Son born of her womb, praying with us and for us.

(§16 of the Apostolic Letter, Rosarium Virginis Mariae, 2002)

What a weighty truth to ponder! St. John Paul II had a profound and lifelong devotion to the Holy Rosary and became one of its greatest champions in the history of the Church, proposing to the Church the Five Luminous Mysteries of the Rosary as well as sharing deep insights on the depth of the prayer of the Rosary for the faithful and its perennial value. You can easily find the full text of the letter online with a simple search.

John Paul's whole pontificate had a beautiful Marian dimension, true to his Papal Motto: Totus Tuus, or Totally Yours [Mary]. As the Church celebrates St. John Paul II's Feast this weekend—October 22—which is the anniversary of the inauguration of his pontificate, we give thanks for a man who practiced what he preached as he interceded for the needs of the Church and the whole world using the beads of the Rosary.

We sometimes stress how it takes courage to ask for what we need, but it occurs to me that it also takes profound humility. Let us be humble enough to ask.
