

Resurrection Pastoral Council 2025 Selection Process

The weekend of May 24/25 marks the beginning of the 2025-2026 Pastoral Council selection process. The Pastoral Council is responsible for advising the pastor as we, together as a parish, seek to achieve the mission of the Church. The Council is the visioning and advisory body for all parish ministry concerns. It identifies the needs of the parish, studies and reflects upon those needs, and makes recommendations to the pastor to address those needs.

Returning members who automatically continue on the council are: Nancy Ault, Diane Lohr, Jim McCloskey, Terry Morrison, and Doug Skinner. Special thanks to Devlin Cox, Mike Santone, and Dave Wilmesher for their service.

Eligibility

There are two positions available, and those selected will serve a three-year term, beginning July 1. Nominees must:

1. Be a registered parish member and at least 16 years of age.
2. Be able to attend monthly meetings.
3. Be able and willing to arrive at decisions through consensus.

Nominations

Please use the form at the bottom to nominate yourself and/or other parishioners. Please submit the form with up to two names in the collection basket or in the nomination box in the commons area by Sunday, June 8.

Invitation

The parishioner(s) who receives a number of nominations (determined by the Selection Committee to be the minimum number for inclusion in the process) will be contacted by Father Nixon to determine their willingness to serve. If an agreement is reached, they will be appointed to the new council by Father Nixon.

If you have questions, please contact Diane Lohr, Terry Morrison, or Jennifer McLaughlin.
