Pastor's Corner

In his July 7, 2013 Angelus reflection, Pope Francis reminded those gathered in St. Peter's Square that all of the faithful are called to be missionaries, spreading the Gospel message.

Reflecting on the day's Gospel, he observed that "Jesus is not an isolated missionary, does not want to fulfill his mission alone, but involves his disciples."

Not only does he call the 12 apostles, The Holy Father noted, but "He calls seventy-two others, and sends them into the villages, two by two, to announce that the Kingdom of God is near."

"This is very beautiful! Jesus does not want to act alone. He has come to bring to the world the love of God and wants to spread that love with a style of communion and fraternity. For this reason, he forms immediately a community of disciples, which is a missionary community."

However, the Pope cautioned, "the purpose is not to socialize, to spend time together – no, the purpose is to proclaim the Kingdom of God, and this is urgent! There is no time to waste in small talk, no need to wait for the consent of all – there is need only of going out and proclaiming."

He pointed to the many missionaries that carry out this work of bringing Christ's peace, healing and hope to remote areas of the world.

Observing that the 12 apostles represent the bishops, their successors, he reflected that the 72 disciples sent by Christ represent not only priests and deacons but also "catechists and lay faithful who engage in parish missions, those who work with the sick, with the various forms of discomfort and alienation, but always as missionaries of the Gospel, with the urgency of the Kingdom that is at hand."

He added that the missionaries in the Gospel returned full of joy "because they had experienced the power of the Name of Christ against evil." We must remember, however, that we are not the protagonists in mission work, but our joy is in the Lord and his grace.

MY CHILD TAKES ART, KARATE, DANCE, SCOUTS, AND VIOLIN LESSONS. WE DON'T HAVE TIME TO KEEP COMING TO RE, WE ARE WAY TOO BUSY! WHY DO WE HAVE TO KEEP COMING SINCE SHE HAS ALREADY RECEIVED FIRST COMMUNION & CONFIRMATION?

Yes, we know that your family can be busy; however, we truly hope your child will continue their religious education long after receiving the sacraments. Your/their faith is a life-long learning process! Set some faith priorities!

A Smile – Farmer: One of our pigs was sick, so I gave him some sugar. City Dude: Why would you give a sick pig sugar? Farmer: What? You've never heard of sugarcured ham?

TILLIE & MAIZEY – Tillie didn't even know how to speak a foreign language, how was she supposed to know anything about Totus Tuus? What if they all spoke a different language that she didn't know, how would she know what to do? She thought about it, and decided that she would just follow what the other kids were doing; and she would be fine.

RE CHALLENGE – Have you ever been faced with something that you were unfamiliar with; and didn't know how you would fit in? What did you do? See p.7.

STEPHEN MINISTRY TRAINING STARTING SOON!

Stephen Ministers offer emotional and spiritual support in times of need. They walk with others through their crisis and help them to see that with God's love, they will be okay.

This ministry is based on the passion, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ and is grounded in the last commandment given by Jesus:

Love one another, even as I have loved you, that you also love one another. By this, all men will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another. John 13: 34-35

Stephen ministry offers 50 hrs. of training for you to help others through their hurts and to be an effective caregiver through skills, trust, and our Catholic faith.

Training is from October-May

If you have the care-giving gifts of compassion, being a good listener, and a desire to walk with those who are going through a difficult life challenge, please contact us for more information:

IMPORTANT INFORMATION IF YOU ARE BEING ADMITTED TO THE HOSPITAL:

When being admitted to the hospital you are typically asked if you would like a clergy visit. Please say "Yes", in order for someone from the Catholic Church to be able to bring you Holy Communion, or pray with you. It does not mean that you want a priest to visit you. We have Eucharistic Ministers from St. Francis of Assisi and St. John's who bring Communion to the hospital every day of the week.

If you are admitted through the ER, you might not be asked about a visit from your church, please let them know that YES, you would like a Communion visit.

Our life toward heaven is a journey. Let's travel the road together!

Did you know.....?

"When I was young, I said to God, 'God, tell me the mystery of the universe.' But God answered, 'That knowledge is reserved for me alone.' So I said, 'God, tell me the mystery of the peanut.' Then God said, 'Well George, that's more nearly your size.' And he told me."

- George Washington Carver (Carver discovered over 300 uses for peanuts, ranging from shaving cream and shampoo to wood stains and plastics. He also came up with an amazing number of edible options for peanuts.)

Who are you and what is your calling?

"Christian Youth, I need to ask why you sit in the padded pews of your fathers while all around the darkness takes your cities and your friends."

Can you figure out what this means?

"Really, a young Atheist cannot guard his faith too carefully. Dangers lie in wait for him on every side." -C.S. Lewis
