Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you.

34th Sunday in Ordinary Time – November 22

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

Ezekiel 34:11-12, 15-17. Psalm 23:1-2, 2-3, 5-6.

1 Corinthians 15:20-26, 28. Matthew 25:31-46

Six Grows to Nine. We get the start of the Corporal Works of Mercy in Matthew 25. Two more are added over time. Pope Francis adds one more. These are the behaviors by which each will be judged – actions toward others are, in fact, done for and to God.

What we think is important. What we may say is also important. But what we do is key, is more important. Here is the list: Corporal Works of Mercy " Feed the hungry " Give drink to the thirsty " Shelter the homeless " Clothe the naked " Visit the sick " Visit the prisoners " Bury the dead " Give alms to the poor " Care of our Common Home

- Who does not have enough that I will feed?
- Whom will I welcome?
- How will I be responsible for the earth?

From our Pastor's Desk

Father Alfred Tumwesigye

Praised be Jesus Christ! This weekend of November 22, 2020, as we celebrate the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, at St. Elizabeth Parish we begin the Liturgy of the Hours and Exposition of the Holy Eucharist. Every Sunday evening (7:00-8:00 p.m.) we will be gathering together for one hour adoration with evening prayers (Vespers) with and of the whole Church.

I remember when in 1997, at an orientation course to join the seminary life, was given a book Christian Prayer: The Liturgy of the Hours, a one volume version of the Liturgy of the Hours. It was a beautiful well bound book and there were all these ribbons in the book. Along the years as I prayerfully and skillfully moved between different parts of the book without missing a line, I found it enriching to my spiritual life, along with those with whom I prayed with.

I'm therefore happy to announce that over the next years, we will be coming together every Sunday evening for the celebration of the Liturgy of the Hours and Exposition of the Holy Eucharist. Drawing from my own personal experience, I am certain that this will transform our lives and our parish community, and will help us, little by little, to see the world, our neighbors, and even ourselves as God sees us.

Christ told us about the necessity "to pray always without becoming weary." (Luke 18:1). Our Lord Jesus teaches us the need of persistent prayer so that we not fall victims to temptation. Prayer and praise is a fundamental duty of every Christian toward God. As Saint Ignatius of Loyola put it: "Man was created to praise, venerate and serve the Lord his God, and in this way to save his soul."

All of us are invited to pray the Liturgy of the Hours with each other, whether that happens to be alone in our rooms or in our families, with a small group before a daily Mass, or with a larger community.

Those of us clergy and religious are morally bound, to the celebration or the entire and daily recitation of the Liturgy of the Hours, and you the laity too are encouraged to participate as often as possible.

This prayer of the universal Church is done seven times a day: i.e. Office of Readings · Morning Prayer (Lauds) · Mid-Morning Prayer (Terce) · Midday Prayer (Sext) · Afternoon Prayer (None) · Evening Prayer (Vespers) · Night Prayer (Compline).

As a community, we will be doing together the Evening Prayer (Vespers) giving thanks for the day just past and making an evening sacrifice of praise to God (see Psalm 141:1), and our Lord Jesus in the Eucharistic Exposition and Adoration with Benediction.

Please come join in prayer every Sunday evening at 7:00 p.m. I hope and pray that you will find spiritual nourishment, strength and consolation in praying together Liturgy of the Hours as we all go through these difficult, uncertain times.

People who pray together stay together in God's service to this work, according to the image of Christ's own prayer to the Father, "for where two or three are gathered in my name, I am there among them" (Matthew 18:20).

HAPPY THANKSGIVING!
Fr. Alfred Tumwesigye

Faith Formation & Discipleship

Deacon Candidate Michael Halbrook

"Who wants to be a saint?" is how I started our class at the start of November on "How Do Saints Become Saints – and Can I Become One Too?" It's been quite a month reflecting upon all saints, on our own holiness, and praying for the souls of the faithful departed who have gone before us. In a way, it was also striking to kick off our celebration of 150 years as a parish in the context of remembering especially the holy souls who have gone before, who set an example for us of "Strong in Faith!"

This weekend we celebrate my favorite day in the Church year – the Solemnity of Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. Yes, the Easter Triduum is THE biggest and most important liturgy in our Church year (a continually unfolding 3-day liturgy commemorating Christ's passion, death, and resurrection.) But Christ the King is still my favorite. I love how we end our year with a final reminder that in the end, all of creation will be taken up into Christ our head, and become one in God through Christ Jesus. It reminds us of the proper order of things, and the finality in Christ and in God. It reminds us that regardless of the craziness around us in the world, God is eternally in control, and we are part of that grace and peace inasmuch as we turn our lives over to Christ and become one in Him.

Next week we kick off Advent and a new Church year, so this weekend is like "New Year's Eve" of the Church year, and next Sunday is like "New Year's Day" of the Church year. At my day job, our fiscal year also ends at the end of November, so I have come to make my New Year's Resolutions each year aligned to the Church year (and my work year) instead of with the secular new year in January.

Give this some thought this week... if you make a "Church New Year's Resolution" as we kick off Advent and the new Church year next week, what would it be? Some ideas:

- Resolve to read the Gospel during the week, before coming to Mass, and pray about what it means for you in your life. During the year, learn about and start to practice Lectio Divina prayer.
- Resolve to attend 1 or 2 Faith Formation sessions/classes during the upcoming Church year.
- Resolve to pray the Rosary each day, or if you already do, to make a stronger effort to reflect upon the Mysteries of Christ's life and ministry that they present.
- To commit to an additional act of charity or service each week... Perhaps to ask the parish if there's something you could do in an hour a week of volunteering.
- To join a Bible study group.
- To make an hour of Adoration each week... or, for starters, once a month (sign up at adorationpro.org/elizabethil)
- To join us for Sunday evening Vespers and Holy Hour.
- To meet someone new at church.

Our parish family provides so many wonderful ways to grow in prayer, in faith, and in discipleship. Give some prayerful discernment to what you can do differently in this "new year."

Forming Saints for the next 150 Years!

Yours in Christ the Servant,
Michael Halbrook

Celebrating 150 Years

The 150th Anniversary was kicked off with a Mass celebrated by Bishop Paprocki, Father Alfred, and assisted by Father Brian Alford. If you were unable to attend, the Mass will be available to view online.

The Bishop asked to have a message conveyed to all the parishioners: "I am sorry we could not celebrate with hundreds of parishioners and guests. Please know that my prayers are with everyone for a continued celebration and hopefully we can all be together for the close on November 13, 2021."

Thank you to all who had a part in making this celebration beautiful and meaningful. Please note if you were unable to purchase an ornament at Mass this weekend you can purchase them at the school or church office and if we have any left we will sell them again in December.

A Prayer for Protection During the Coronavirus

Lord, we admit that we are afraid. The spread of the Coronavirus is happening rapidly and throughout the world. We pray for healing for those who are sick. We pray for those who have lost loved ones into death. We pray for protection. We come to your throne of grace asking for you to stop the spread of this virus. We ask that our family, loved ones, and communities be protected and not become sick.

We pray for medical providers. We pray for leaders, government officials, and those in authority that they would have the knowledge and desire to make decisions in the best interests of the people they serve. We pray for those in the media, that they would give us the information we need without creating needless fear or panic.

Lord God, you are in control of all things and we place our lives into Your hands. In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, we pray. Amen.

IMPORTANT CORONAVIRUS GUIDELINES UPDATE

To comply with the current IDPH and CDC guidelines, and to adhere to our Diocesan guidance on the practice of our faith, we will now be operating within these high-level guidelines:

- Church capacity remains at 25% as it has these many months, with seating areas marked to allow for safe distancing.
- Meetings of parish organizations and councils, faith formation gatherings, and the like should comply with a maximum of 10 participants or 25% of the capacity of the meeting space, whichever is lesser. When possible, we should make use of digital meeting technology (Zoom, etc.) to allow participation without in-person gathering. If your organization needs support with digital meeting tech, contact tech@stelizabethgc.org.
- Our school will continue operating under its ongoing guidance from the deanery, Diocesan Office of Catholic Education, and the county and state health departments.
- When possible, please call or email the Parish Office for parish business, reducing the number of visitors to the Parish Office as much as is possible.

Thank you for your participation and assistance in ensuring the ongoing practice of our faith in a reasonable, safe, and healthy manner.

Respect Life

A PRAYER FOR OUR COUNTRY

O Most Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of Mercy, at this most critical time, we entrust the United States of America to your loving care. Most Holy Mother, we beg you to reclaim this land for the glory of your Son. Overwhelmed with the burden of the sins of our nation, we cry to you from the depths of our hearts and seek refuge in your motherly protection.

Look down with mercy upon us and touch the hearts of your people. Open our minds to the great worth of human life and to the responsibilities that accompany human freedom. Free us from the falsehoods that lead to the evil of abortion and threaten the sanctity of marriage and family life. Grant our country the wisdom to proclaim that God's law is the foundation on which this nation was founded, and that He alone is the True Source of our cherished rights to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.

O Merciful Mother, give us the courage to reject the culture of death and the strength to build a new Culture of Life. Amen.

Veritas Wilks, FSGM (Director of Youth and Women's Ministry) from the Office of Ministry and Evangelization will be heading to Washington, D.C. for the March for Life. Teens accompanied by parents/guardians and other family members are invited to join us. We will be there to greet you, feed you, organize prayer and programming, and provide a place for the Diocese of Springfield in Illinois to gather. Sister M. Karolyn, FSGM (Vocations Director for the Sisters of St. Francis of the Martyr St. George, in Alton, IL) will be there to speak and lead us in games, prayer, and music. Bishop Paprocki will be there to greet us, and to celebrate Mass with us. Please visit benotafraid.dio.org/experience to learn more and to register.

Catechism Corner

"At the end of time, the Kingdom of God will come in its fullness. Then the just will reign with Christ for ever, glorified in body and soul, and the material universe itself will be transformed. God will then be 'all in all' (1 Cor 15:28), in eternal life." – CCC 1060

Read the Catechism online at stegranitecity.org/faith-formation or ask Michael Halbrook, who can help secure you a copy of the Catechism in book form (they run roughly $30)

DIVINE MERCY MINUTES FROM THE DIARY OF ST. FAUSTINA

"Jesus, give me the souls of sinners; let Your mercy rest upon them. Take everything away from, but give me souls. I want to become a sacrificial host for sinners. Let the shell of my body conceal my offering, for Your Most Sacred Heart is also hidden in a Host, and certainly You are a living sacrifice." (Diary, 908).
