18th Sunday in Ordinary Time
XVIII Domingo Ordinario

8.02.2026

Easily overlooked in the account of the feeding of the multitudes is that no distinctions are made among the people in the crowd. No division is made between those who believed and those who just tagged along, between those who had plenty of food back home and those who often went hungry, between those who were Jewish and those who were not, between the disciples themselves and the crowd, or among men, women, and children: "they all ate and were satisfied" (Matthew 14:20). Jesus did not separate the people by religion or baptism or race or ethnicity or immigration status or criminality or age or gender or any other criteria, nor did he discriminate in any way. All were seated. All were served. All were satisfied.
— Pastoral Patterns

* * *

Algo que fácilmente se pasa por alto en el relato del darle de comer a la muchedumbre es que no se hizo distinción entre la gente congregada. No se dividen los que son creyentes de los que vinieron por seguir a los demás, ni los que tienen abundancia de comida en su casa de los que a menudo pasan hambre, ni los que son judíos de los que no lo son, ni siquiera los discípulos del resto de la muchedumbre, y tampoco se dividen los hombres de las mujeres y de los niños: "Todos comieron hasta saciarse" (Mateo 14, 20). Jesús no separó a la gente según su religión o bautismo, su raza u origen étnico, ni por su estatus migratorio, ni por su criminalidad, tampoco por su edad o su género, ni por ningún otro criterio: o sea, él no discriminó de manera alguna. Todos se sentaron. Todos fueron servidos. Todos quedaron saciados. – Palabras Pastorales

CHRIST'S COMPASSION

We all have times when we feel the need to be alone. We may be depressed, or grouchy, or overwhelmed, or just plain tired. In the Gospel today, Jesus was grieving when he sought a deserted spot to be by himself. But when seeing the crowds following him, "his heart was moved with pity for them" (Matthew 14:14). The Greek word Matthew uses is perhaps closer in meaning to guts; either way, this implies that the feeling comes from deep inside him and is as physical as mental. This visceral feeling drives Jesus to change his plans, teach the vast number of pilgrims, cure those who were sick, and, his heart still moved with pity, feed the entire crowd. Let us pray that when we see others in need even when we wish to be left alone, our hearts will be moved to help, and in our guts we will know we should reach out. ©Pastoral Patterns

SUNDAY LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading — Come to the Lord. (Isaiah 55:1–3)

Psalm — "The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs." (Psalm 145)

Second Reading — Nothing can separate us from God's love. (Romans 8:35, 37–39)

Gospel — The people ate and were satisfied (Matthew 14:13–21).

Pope's August prayer intention:

For evangelization in the city.

Let us pray that in large cities often marked by anonymity and loneliness we find new ways to proclaim the Gospel, discovering creative paths to build community. Amen.

LA COMPASIÓN DE CRISTO

Todos tenemos momentos en los que sentimos la necesidad de estar solos. Podemos estar deprimidos, malhumorados, agobiados o simplemente cansados. En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús estaba viviendo un duelo cuando buscó un lugar apartado para estar a solas. Sin embargo, al ver a la multitud que lo seguía, "sintió compasión de ellos" (Mateo 14, 14). La palabra griega que utiliza Mateo alude, tal vez, más bien a las entrañas; en cualquier caso, esto implica que el sentimiento surge de lo más profundo de su ser y es tanto físico como mental. Este sentimiento visceral impulsa a Jesús a cambiar sus planes: enseña a la gran multitud de peregrinos, cura a los enfermos y —con el corazón aún conmovido por la compasión— alimenta a toda la gente. Oremos para que, cuando veamos a otros necesitados — incluso cuando deseemos estar solos, nuestros corazones se sientan movidos a ayudar y sintamos en nuestras entrañas el impulso de tenderles la mano.

LITURGIA DE LA PALABRA DEL DOMINGO

Primera lectura — Vengan al Señor. (Isaías 55, 1–3)

Salmo — "La mano del Señor nos alimenta; él satisface todas nuestras necesidades." (Salmo 145)

Segunda lectura — Nada puede separarnos del amor de Dios. (Romanos 8, 35. 37–39)

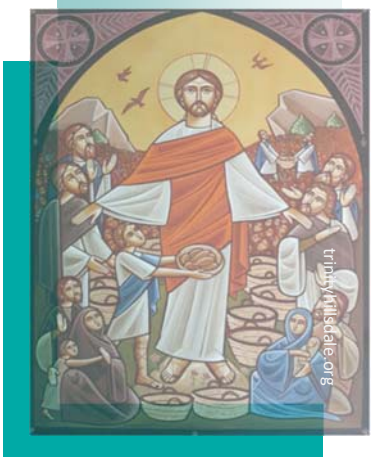

Evangelio — La gente comió y se sació (Mateo 14, 13–21).

Salmo responsorial: Leccionario Hispanoamericano Dominical © 1970, Comisión Episcopal Española. Usado con permiso. Todos los derechos reservados.

Intención de oración del Papa:

Por la evangelización en la ciudad.

Oremos para que, en las grandes ciudades, a menudo marcadas por el anonimato y la soledad, encontremos nuevas formas de anunciar el Evangelio, descubriendo caminos creativos para construir comunidad. Amen.

SAINTS and SPECIAL OBSERVANCES

Sunday: 18th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Tuesday: St. John Vianney
Wednesday: Dedication of the Basilica of St. Mary Major
Thursday: Transfiguration of the Lord
First Friday: Sacred Heart of Jesus; St. Sixtus II and Companions; St. Cajetan
Saturday: Blessed Virgin Mary; St. Dominic

AUGUST: DEDICATED TO THE IMMACULATE HEART OF MARY

The month of August is traditionally dedicated to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. The physical heart of Mary is venerated (and not adored as the Sacred Heart of Jesus is) because it is united to her person and is the seat of her love (especially for her divine Son), virtue, and inner life. Such devotion is an incentive to a similar love and virtue.

Consecration Prayer:
Oh, Mary, My Queen and my Mother, I consecrate to thee this day my eyes, my ears, my mouth, my heart, my whole being without reserve. Wherefore, Good Mother, as I am thine own, keep me and guard me as thy property and possession. Amen.

SAINT JOHN VIANNEY (August 4)

St John Vianney, priest. Born near Lyons (France) in 1786; died at Ars on August 4, 1859. Overcame various obstacles, including little education and lack of means, to be ordained a priest. Served in a remote parish as the Curé of Ars, where his sanctity attracted thousands of visitors. Noted for his preaching and confessional counsel and is honored as a model for parish clergy. Within three years he was made parish priest of Ars – a village of just 230 people. He visited every house...He immediately tried to restore a sense of Sunday in his flock, not just in getting them to attend Mass but also to refrain from unnecessary work. When he spoke on the 'tenderness of God' who had been offended, he often moved the hardest of hearts to change their ways. During the last ten years of his life he would spend up to eighteen hours a day in the confessional. His advice was sought by everyone, from bishops and priests to people in all sorts of difficulty. He loved especially those who were sick. Towards the end of his life, although unable to preach audibly, people knew that God loved them because they saw this in his eyes.

Almighty and merciful God, who made the Priest Saint John Vianney wonderful in his pastoral zeal, grant, we pray, that through his intercession and example we may in charity win brothers and sisters for Christ and attain with them eternal glory. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

SAN JUAN MARÍA VIANNEY (Agosto 4)

San Juan María Vianney, sacerdote. Nació cerca de Lyon (Francia) en 1786 y falleció en Ars en Agosto 4, 1859. Superó diversos obstáculos, como su escasa formación y la falta de recursos, para llegar a ser ordenado sacerdote. Ejerció su ministerio en una parroquia remota como el Cura de Ars, donde su santidad atrajo a miles de visitantes. Destacó por su predicación y sus consejos en el confesionario, y es venerado como modelo para el clero parroquial. A los tres años fue nombrado párroco de Ars, una aldea de apenas 230 habitantes. Visitaba todos los hogares... De inmediato procuró restaurar el sentido del domingo entre sus feligreses, no solo logrando que asistieran a Misa, sino también que se abstuvieran de realizar trabajos innecesarios. Cuando hablaba de la "ternura de Dios"—a quien se había ofendido—, a menudo lograba conmover incluso a los corazones más endurecidos, llevándolos a cambiar de vida. Durante los últimos diez años de su existencia, pasaba hasta dieciocho horas diarias en el confesionario. Todos buscaban su consejo: desde obispos y sacerdotes hasta personas que atravesaban todo tipo de dificultades. Amaba especialmente a los enfermos. Hacia el final de su vida, aunque ya no podía predicar de viva voz, la gente sabía que Dios los amaba porque lo veía en sus ojos.

OUR SICK PARISHIONERS
"Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest." (Matthew 11:28)
That the sick, and all the sick of our parish community, may be healed in body and spirit.
OUR BELOVED DEPARTED:
Eternal rest grant unto Your faithful departed, O Lord. And let Your perpetual light shine upon them.
That all our departed sisters and brothers may be with their Savior in paradise.
"My Father's house has many rooms; if that were not so, would I have told you that I am going there to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am."
(John 14:2-3)

OUR LORD AWAITS US...
Come, let us adore Christ in the Most Blessed Sacrament

All are invited to come and spend time with God and adore Him in the Most Blessed Sacrament. Be with Christ, the One who loves us the most and who alone can give us true peace, healing and happiness. All are welcome to pray in our adoration chapel on Fridays from 4pm to 7pm and in the church from 7pm to 8pm.

Come, let us bow down in worship, let us kneel before the Lord our Maker; for he is our God and we are the people of his pasture, the flock under his care.
– Psalm 95:6-7

ARCHDIOCESAN ANNUAL APPEAL 2026

Prayer for Healing of Victims of Abuse

Holy Spirt, comforter of hearts,
heal your people's wounds
and transform brokenness into wholeness.
Grant us the courage and
wisdom, humility and grace,
to act with justice.
Breathe wisdom into
our prayers and labors.
Grant that all harmed by abuse
may find peace and justice.
We ask this through Christ, our Lord.
Amen.
