By our baptism, we are each called to be disciples of the Lord. We are called to follow Jesus. What do we see when we follow him? We see him “teaching in their synagogues, proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom, and curing every disease and illness among the people” (Matthew 4:23). When he later sends out his disciples in pairs, these are the things he calls upon them to do. We are Jesus’ hands and voices now, called to spread the gospel, to teach lessons by word and deed, to bring healing to the afflicted, and to care for those in need. Today we hear how he sets an example for the first disciples . . . and for his current disciples. – Pastoral Patterns

Por virtud de nuestro Bautismo estamos llamados a ser discípulos del Señor. Estamos llamados a seguir a Jesús. ¿Qué vemos cuando lo seguimos? Lo vemos “enseñando en las sinagogas y proclamando la buena nueva del Reino de Dios y curando a la gente de toda enfermedad y dolencia” (Mateo 4, 23). Luego, cuando envía a sus discípulos de dos en dos, éstas son las cosas que les pide que hagan. Nosotros somos ahora las manos y la voz de Jesús, llamados a difundir el Evangelio, a enseñar de palabra y de obra, a curar a los afligidos, y a atender a todos los necesitados. Hoy vemos cómo él le expone el ejemplo a los primeros discípulos . . . y también a los actuales discípulos. – Palabras Pastorales

“Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men.”

Matthew 4:19

“Síguenme y los haré pescadores de hombres”

Matthew 4:19

CALLED BY THE LORD

Interestingly, when Jesus begins his mission and goes out to call disciples, he does not go to Jerusalem, to the temple, or to a synagogue at all. No, he goes down to the shores of the Sea of Galilee. As he told religious authorities later, he came to call sinners, not the righteous. Therefore, he chooses to go down to the sea to walk among sailors and fishers, not up to the synagogue to find those at prayer. When you wonder whether you are being called by the Lord and think yourself to be unworthy, know that you are unworthy. But this is exactly why Jesus is calling you.

The first disciples left their old lives behind to follow Jesus. What is Jesus calling me to leave behind? — Pastoral Patterns

LLAMADO POR EL SEÑOR

Resulta interesante que cuando Jesús comienza su misión y se dispone a llamar a sus discípulos no se dirige a Jerusalén, al templo, ni tampoco a una sinagoga; sino que va a las orillas del lago de Galilea. Tal como les dijo más tarde a las autoridades religiosas, él vino a llamar a los pecadores y no a los justos. Por eso prefiere ir junto al lago y caminar entre marineros y pescadores, y no a la sinagoga a buscar a los que están rezando. Cuando te preguntes si el Señor te ha llamado y te consideras indigno, piensa que sí eres indigno. Pero por eso precisamente es que Jesús te llama.

Los primeros discípulos dejaron atrás su vida anterior para seguir a Jesús, ¿qué me pide Jesús dejar atrás?

— Palabras Pastorales

The month of January is dedicated to the Holy Name of Jesus. "In the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of those that are in heaven, on earth and under the earth" (Phil 2:10). Christ's name is chosen in heaven, and the Angel Gabriel announces it when he informs the Blessed Virgin of the incarnation: "Behold thou shalt conceive in thy womb and shalt bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name Jesus". It is a name that has marvelous implications, for it means "savior." The very name bespeaks the magnitude of His mission, His infinite love, a love that will cause Him to offer Himself up for us.

Sts. Timothy and Titus, Bishops | Santos Timoteo y Tito, Obispos

Two of St Paul's most loyal disciples seem to have attended the Council of Jerusalem with him and both died toward the end of the first century. Timothy represented Saint Paul to various communities and, according to tradition, was eventually placed in charge of the Church at Ephesus. Titus was sent to organise the Church in Crete. They are honoured as leaders to whom St Paul sent pastoral letters in the New Testament.

Dos de los discípulos más leales de San Pablo parecen haber asistido con él al Concilio de Jerusalén y ambos murieron hacia finales del siglo I. Timoteo representó a San Pablo ante varias comunidades y, según la tradición, finalmente fue puesto al frente de la Iglesia de Éfeso. Tito fue enviado para organizar la Iglesia en Creta. Se les honra como líderes a quienes San Pablo envió cartas pastorales en el Nuevo Testamento.
