4th Sunday of Lent
IV Domingo de Cuaresma

3.15.2026

In today's first reading, the LORD asserts that God does not see how people see. We tend to see appearances, but God looks into the heart. How often do we find ourselves unable to see past appearances: the way someone looks, or sounds, or acts? In doing so, are we showing unconscious biases, prejudices, or assumptions? Let us not be like the Pharisees in the Gospel who become indignant when questioning the man who once was blind. They cannot see past their belief that the man must have been born in sin. Nor can they look past the fact that Jesus happened to heal this man on the sabbath. These preconceived judgments blind them to the wonders of God, revealed in Christ. – Pastoral Patterns

* * *

En la primera lectura de hoy el Señor afirma que Dios no ve de la misma manera que las personas ven. Nosotros tendemos a ver las apariencias, pero Dios ve el corazón. ¿Cuántas veces nos es imposible ver más allá de las apariencias: la manera que luce, o habla u obra una persona? Con esa clase de actitud, ¿demostramos acaso nuestros prejuicios, aprensiones o suposiciones? No seamos como los fariseos en el Evangelio, que cuestionaron indignamente al hombre que había sido ciego y a quien les era imposible ver más allá de creer que ese hombre debió haber nacido con pecado. Tampoco podían ver más allá de que Jesús había curado a este hombre en un sábado. Estos juicios preconcebidos los ciegan y por eso no pueden ver las maravillas de Dios reveladas en Cristo. – Palabras Pastorales

"You were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Live as children of light."
Ephesians 5:8

CHILDREN OF THE LIGHT

The future king, David, in today's first reading, is an example of a type of character present throughout the Hebrew scriptures. He is the child born out of place (not the eldest or most favored) who ends up receiving the promise of the covenant. The spirit of God's anointing rushes upon him. In this way, he is similar to the man born blind from today's Gospel. David's family and the blind man's community did not expect the miraculous grace of God's love to work through them. Perhaps they, too, were "blinded" by the expectations and assumptions of those around them. Yet, after being touched by God, they both came to "see" the presence of God's will for them. Both became messengers of God's will. That same Spirit of God's anointing rushed upon us at our baptism; we were given a candle as a sign of our membership in the Body of Christ, the Light from Light. Our vocation, then, is to fulfill that enlightenment, that anointing, as Ephesians tells us, by living as "children of the light."

"En otro tiempo ustedes fueron tinieblas, pero ahora, unidos al Señor, son luz. Vivan, por lo tanto, como hijos de la luz."
Efesios 5:8

HIJOS DE LA LUZ

El futuro rey, David, en la primera lectura de hoy, es un ejemplo de un tipo de personaje presente a lo largo de las escrituras hebreas. Es el hijo que nace fuera de lugar (no es ni el mayor ni el preferido) pero a fin de cuentas recibe la promesa de la alianza. El espíritu de Dios lo llena con su unción. En esto, se parece al hombre que nació ciego del Evangelio de hoy. La familia de David y la comunidad del ciego no esperaban que la gracia milagrosa del amor de Dios obrara por medio de ellos. Quizás ellos, también, estaban "ciegos" por las expectativas y suposiciones de los que los rodeaban. Sin embargo, luego de ser tocados por Dios, ambos "vieron" la presencia de la voluntad de Dios para ellos. Ambos se convirtieron en mensajeros de la voluntad de Dios. Ese mismo Espíritu de unción de Dios nos llenó en nuestro bautismo; se nos dio un cirio como símbolo de que somos miembros del Cuerpo de Cristo, la Luz de la Luz. Nuestra vocación, entonces, es cumplir esa iluminación, esa unción, como se nos dice en Efesios, viviendo como "hijos de la luz". Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

SAINT JOSEPH (March 19)

St. Joseph was an ordinary manual laborer although descended from the royal house of David. In the designs of Providence he was destined to become the spouse of the Mother of God. His high privilege is expressed in a single phrase, "Foster-father of Jesus." About him Sacred Scripture has little more to say than that he was a just man-an expression which indicates how faithfully he fulfilled his high trust of protecting and guarding God's greatest treasures upon earth, Jesus and Mary. Of St. Joseph's death the Bible tells us nothing. There are indications, however, that he died before the beginning of Christ's public life. His was the most beautiful death that one could have, in the arms of Jesus and Mary (thus invoked for a happy and peaceful death). catholicculture.org

Grant, we pray, almighty God, that by Saint Joseph's intercession your Church may constantly watch over the unfolding of the mysteries of human salvation, whose beginnings you entrusted to his faithful care. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

SAN JOSÉ (Marzo 19)

San José era un simple trabajador manual, aunque descendía de la casa real de David. En los designios de la Providencia, estaba destinado a convertirse en el esposo de la Madre de Dios. Su alto privilegio se expresa en una sola frase: "Padre adoptivo de Jesús". Sobre él, la Sagrada Escritura no dice mucho más que fue un hombre justo, expresión que indica la fidelidad con la que cumplió su alta misión de proteger y custodiar los mayores tesoros de Dios en la tierra: Jesús y María. La Biblia no nos dice nada sobre la muerte de San José. Sin embargo, hay indicios de que murió antes del comienzo de la vida pública de Cristo. La suya fue la muerte más hermosa que se puede tener, en los brazos de Jesús y María (invocados así para una muerte feliz y en paz). catholicculture.org

Let Us Adore Christ in the Most Blessed Sacrament

"From his entry into the world, even while still enclosed in Mary's womb as if a living ciborium, Jesus singled out Mary and Joseph to be his adorers. Joseph responded royally. He never ceased adoring Jesus in [Mary's] womb. And after the child's birth at Bethlehem, Joseph and Mary adored him uninterruptedly as he lay before their eyes. They represented all mankind at the feet of Christ."
