GOSPEL REFLECTION:

The Parable of the Prodigal Son is a profound narrative illustrating God's boundless mercy and unconditional love. In the story, the younger son demands his inheritance, squanders it in reckless living, and, upon reaching destitution, decides to return home, hoping for his father's forgiveness. To his surprise, his father welcomes him back with open arms, celebrating his return.

This parable reminds us that no matter how far we stray, God's compassion awaits our return. Lent is a time for introspection and repentance, encouraging us to acknowledge our shortcomings and seek reconciliation with God. The father's joyous reception of his repentant son exemplifies the divine mercy that embraces us when we turn back with sincere hearts. As we journey through Lent, let's reflect on areas where we need to return to God's embrace and trust in His unwavering love.

REFLEXIÓN DEL EVANGELIO:

La Parábola del Hijo Pródigo es una narrativa profunda que ilustra la infinita misericordia y el amor incondicional de Dios. En la historia, el hijo menor exige su herencia, la derrocha en una vida desenfrenada y, al llegar a la indigencia, decide regresar a casa, esperando el perdón de su padre. Para su sorpresa, su padre lo recibe con los brazos abiertos, celebrando su regreso.

Esta parábola nos recuerda que, sin importar cuán lejos nos hayamos alejado, la compasión de Dios espera nuestro regreso. La Cuaresma es un tiempo de introspección y arrepentimiento, que nos anima a reconocer nuestras faltas y buscar la reconciliación con Dios. La alegre recepción del padre a su hijo arrepentido ejemplifica la misericordia divina que nos abraza cuando volvemos con corazones sinceros. A medida que avanzamos en la Cuaresma, reflexionemos sobre las áreas en las que necesitamos regresar al abrazo de Dios y confiemos en Su amor inquebrantable.

FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

"THIS SON OF MINE WAS DEAD,
AND HAS COME TO LIFE AGAIN;
HE WAS LOST, AND HAS BEEN FOUND."

LUKE 15:24

BE TRANSFORMED

Who knew that when Moses led the Israelites out of slavery it would mean forty years of wandering in the desert before they were able to enter the Promised Land? Many of us experience periods of wandering in our life. Perhaps we made some poor judgment calls in our younger days, or maybe as adult children we returned home to live because of struggling with substance abuse, or unemployment, or a divorce. Or maybe we fell away from Church for a bit. This is nothing new. The second reading calls us to be new creations in Christ, to put away our old selves, to be transformed; and in the Gospel we hear the beautiful story of the Prodigal Son. Each of these calls for us to move, and grow, and leave old ways behind.

TESTING THE BOUNDARIES

Some of the first words a two-year-old might say are "Do by self!" It is almost a rite of passage for teenagers to test their parents as much as they can. Every parent who ever lay awake in bed at night waiting to hear the sound of the child pulling the car into the garage or opening the door knows at least as much about praying vigils as any nun in a convent. This is a deep and earnest prayer, and the parents can barely breathe until their child comes home. Usually when we think of the story of the Prodigal Son, we think of the feeling of guilt the son had as he realized how much he had messed things up, or we feel the injustice that the older brother felt, because he wasn't the rebel child leaving the home.

WELCOME HOME

What we don't often remember in the story of the Prodigal Son is that God is there welcoming, urging us on. A few years ago there was a funeral for a young man who died of a drug overdose within days of coming out of a treatment center. Many of his young friends came but expected fire and brimstone, and to be told what a bad child that boy was. Instead, the priest preached about God loving this child so much that perhaps the only way God could protect him was to bring him home. That gentle image of God welcoming him with open arms soothed the broken hearts and unspoken questions that were on many minds. Not every situation is that drastic, but God is calling us home this Lent no matter what mistakes we've made, or how many times we have made them.

SER TRANSFORMADOS

¿Quién iba a saber que, cuando Moisés sacó a los israelitas de la esclavitud, eso significaría cuarenta años de deambular por el desierto antes de poder entrar en la Tierra Prometida? Muchos de nosotros experimentamos periodos de alejamiento en nuestra vida. Tal vez tomamos algunas decisiones equivocadas en nuestros días de juventud, o tal vez como hijos adultos regresamos a casa a vivir debido a la lucha contra el abuso de sustancias, o el desempleo, o un divorcio. O tal vez nos alejamos de la Iglesia por un tiempo. Esto no es nada nuevo. La segunda lectura nos llama a ser nuevas creaciones en Cristo, a despojarnos de nuestro viejo yo, a ser transformados; y en el Evangelio escuchamos la hermosa historia del hijo pródigo. Cada una de ellas nos llama a movernos, a crecer y a dejar atrás las viejas costumbres.

PROBANDO LOS LÍMITES

Algunas de las primeras palabras que tal vez puede decir un niño de dos años son "¡lo hice!" Es casi un rito de paso para los adolescentes poner a prueba a sus padres todo lo que puedan. Todos los padres que alguna vez se han quedado despiertos en la cama por la noche esperando oír el sonido del hijo metiendo el coche en el garaje o abriendo la puerta, saben al menos tanto sobre las vigiliass de oración como cualquier monja en un convento. Se trata de una oración profunda y sincera, y los padres apenas pueden respirar hasta que su hijo vuelva a casa. Normalmente, cuando pensamos en la historia del hijo pródigo, pensamos en el sentimiento de culpa que tuvo el hijo al darse cuenta de lo mucho que había estropeado las cosas, o sentimos la injusticia que sintió el hermano mayor, porque no era el hijo rebelde que se iba de casa.

BIENVENIDO A CASA

Lo que no solemos recordar en la historia del hijo pródigo es que Dios está ahí dando la bienvenida, instándonos a seguir adelante. Hace unos años hubo un funeral por un joven que murió de sobredosis a los pocos días de salir de un centro de tratamiento. Muchos de sus jóvenes amigos acudieron, pero esperaban fuego y azufre, y que les dijeran lo malo que era ese chico. En lugar de eso, el sacerdote predicó que Dios amaba tanto a ese niño que quizá la única forma de protegerlo era llevarlo a casa. Esa amable imagen de Dios recibéndolo con los brazos abiertos alivió los corazones rotos y las preguntas no formuladas que había en muchas mentes. No todas las situaciones son tan drásticas, pero Dios nos llama a casa en esta Cuaresma, sin importar los errores que hayamos cometido, o cuántas veces los hayamos cometido.

Even now, says the LORD,
return to me with your whole heart,
with fasting, and weeping, and mourning;
Rend your hearts, not your garments,
and return to the LORD, your God.
For gracious and merciful is he,
slow to anger, rich in kindness,
and relenting in punishment.
—Joel 2:12-13

Esto dice el Señor:
Todavía es tiempo.
Vuélvanse a mí de todo corazón,
con ayunos, con lágrimas y llanto;
enluten su corazón y no sus vestidos.
Vuélvanse al Señor Dios nuestro,
porque es compasivo y misericordioso,
lento a la cólera, rico en clemencia,
y se conmueve ante la desgracia.
—Joel 2:12-13

Coming up in April: BIBLE STUDY ON THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES

We are about to begin our third year of St Luke / St Timothy cluster Bible Study on Thursday April 3rd, 2025. We will be studying Acts of the Apostles, and classes will be held on the 1st and the 3rd Thursday of each month from 7:00 p.m. to 8:30 at St Luke Church in the same Mathew room. Class participants will be given two great resources: Catholic Biblical Scholar Stephen Binz's study guide of Acts of the Apostle, and detailed scripture commentary from the Navarre Catholic study Bible.

Here are comments from a few of a recent class cluster Bible Study attendees:

"Bible Study has made Jesus more relevant in my life. Jesus is right with me every day as my teacher, friend and inspiration. I now have my bible close by."

"Bible Study and group sharing brought me closest to Jesus. I feel the humanity of Jesus more, and that He is one of us, our brother and friend."

Bible study has changed my life so much. What I thought was important in life does not really matter anymore. Now I really want to desire to be close to Jesus, so I can be good example to my children's and others."

To sign up for cluster Bible Study on Acts of the Apostle please contact the parish office at 650-345-6660

PLEASE PRAY FOR OUR SICK PARISHIONERS and FRIENDS
