Jesus, who is our salvation, warns his disciples to be prepared always. Advent is our annual reminder to prepare for the day when he comes again, not just at the end of time, but at any time into our hearts and lives. As we will sing at Christmas: “let every heart prepare him room.” May our hearts grow over the next four weeks in order to allow more and more of Jesus’ love to enter in so that it may then overflow to all those we meet. – Pastoral Patterns

Jesús, que es nuestra salvación, le advierte a sus discípulos que siempre deben estar preparados. El Adviento es nuestro recordatorio anual de prepararnos para el día en que él venga de nuevo, no sólo al final de los tiempos, sino a nuestro corazón y a nuestra vida en cualquier momento. Como dice un villancico: “Le llevo al Niño que nace, como a Dios, mi corazón”. Que nuestro corazón se inflame en el curso de las cuatro semanas próximas a fin de permitirle entrada al amor de Jesús y que ese amor desbordante se extienda a todos los que encontremos en nuestro camino. – Palabras Pastorales

FIRST SUNDAY OF

Advent

NOVEMBER 30, 2025

“You also must be prepared,
for at an hour you do not expect,
the Son of Man will come.”

MATTHEW 24:44

PREPARE

Have you ever been caught off guard? The first Sundays of Advent often have an ominous quality to them. Jesus reminds his listeners today about how many people who lived at the same time as Noah were caught off guard when the deluge came. Of course, we can end up being complete nervous wrecks if we spend each day in paranoia, looking for signs of impending doom. A healthy readiness is called for, one that keeps us alert so we can find signs of God’s reign—soon to be made manifest in Jesus—around us. In the coming days of holiday sensate bombardment and hours that fill up with busyness, this readiness can also serve to keep us focused on the coming gift of the Messiah, God’s Anointed. Now is the time to take stock, to evaluate life, to make changes where necessary, preparing for God’s holy reign to come.

ON EDGE

There are numerous photographs of people who sleep on mountainside ledges, who carelessly dangle their feet into the space of geological chasms, and of course there’s the iconic photograph of workers eating their lunch on a beam of the under-construction Chrysler building in New York. Some people seem attracted to these precarious, stomach-churning locations; many of us are not. More of us have had the experience of beginning a new stage in life, with the excitement and occasional stomach-churning newness of a moment that can put us a bit on edge. Advent—its first couple of Sundays in particular—has a similar role in the passage of time that we call the liturgical year. It’s unlikely that the First Sunday of Advent makes many stomachs churn, but perhaps more would if we truly took it seriously that we are to make ourselves ready for the coming of the reign of God at any moment.

WALK IN THE LIGHT

When we encounter the daily news, it can seem as though Isaiah’s prophecy of swords turned into plowshares is running in reverse, making despair seem wiser than hopefulness. This is where Advent as the brink of God’s reign comes into play. Advent can be a time for each of us to de-weaponize, even in the smallest of ways, the world around us. Advent’s days offer a chance to look for opportunities to make the world a bit more hopeful for others. As we head through Advent, the elevated focus we have when we are standing at those new moments, those new stages of life, can help us tune out the despair, so we might open our ears and hearts to Jesus. This way, we can turn our backs on gloom, and accept Isaiah’s invitation to walk in the light of the Lord: Jesus Christ, the Word-made-Flesh!

PRIMER DOMINGO DE

Adviento

NOVIEMBRE 30, 2025

“También ustedes estén preparados,
porque a la hora que menos lo piensen,
vendrá el Hijo del hombre.”

MATEO 24:44

CONFIANZA VIGILANTE

Nosotros, la Iglesia, entramos al Adviento y al Año Nuevo litúrgico con una llamada a la confianza vigilante. En su origen, nuestras lecturas estaban destinadas para comunidades que sufrían de grandes pérdidas y confusión. Jeremías habla con la confianza de que Dios cumplirá las promesas antiguas a Israel, incluso en tiempos de invasión extranjera. Pablo habla de cómo Dios guía a la Iglesia hacia la santidad, mientras que la comunidad anhela la venida de Jesús. En el pasaje del Evangelio de Lucas, Jesús habla de señales poderosas y de una gran confusión que se avecinan, pero enfatiza que podemos ver hacia delante sabiendo que Dios no trae motivos para la desesperación, sino para la esperanza. Celebramos el Adviento para recordarnos de la fidelidad de Dios. Debemos de estar atentos para ver cómo Dios despierta a nuestro mundo. Dios agita tanto nuestro orgullo como nuestro exceso de confianza, y nos trae sanación y justicia. Nos preparamos para dar la bienvenida a Jesús, seguros de que Dios cumple todas sus promesas divinas . Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

EL CAMINO DE LA SALVACIÓN

Tampoco Dios desistió de su pueblo, a pesar de que este pueblo “escogido” se había alejado de Dios cada vez que enfrentaba dificultades y optaba por el pecado. Una y otra vez, Moisés y los profetas tuvieron que recordarle al pueblo sobre la fidelidad y la ira de Dios. Fue Dios quien repetidamente se reconciliaba con este pueblo desobediente. Pero todo esto cambia cuando Dios decide enviarnos al Hijo. Jesús se sacrifica a sí mismo a fin de expiar nuestros pecados de una vez por todas y ofrecernos el camino de la salvación. Como bien dice Pablo: “ahora nuestra salvación está más cerca que cuando empezamos a creer” (romanos 13, 11). — Palabras Pastorales

ESTA TEMPORADA DE ESPERA

Durante esta temporada de espera se nos recuerda que Jesús no vino a este mundo solamente una vez como un niño recién nacido y hace más de dos mil años, sino que también viene al mundo —y a nuestro corazón— en el curso de toda nuestra vida. Es más, tal como escuchamos en el Evangelio de hoy, él regresará al mundo sin previo aviso en el día del juicio. Por lo tanto, durante el tiempo de Adviento tenemos una gran motivación para preparar nuestro corazón en espera de su venida. Que las palabras de Jesús a sus discípulos nos calen hoy: “También ustedes estén preparados, porque a la hora que menos lo piensen, vendrá el Hijo del hombre”. — Palabras Pastorales
