GOSPEL REFLECTION:

The readings for the 1st Sunday of Lent Year C emphasize the importance of wholeheartedly surrendering ourselves to God. Moses instructs offering the best to the Lord, the psalm sings of deliverance, Paul urges following Jesus with both heart and mind, and the gospel portrays Jesus resisting temptation in the desert, trusting in God. The themes encompass giving ourselves to God, preparing for our mission, and facing and overcoming temptation.

REFLEXIÓN DEL EVANGELIO:

Las lecturas del 1.er domingo de Cuaresma del Año C enfatizan la importancia de entregarnos de todo corazón a Dios. Moisés instruye a ofrecer lo mejor al Señor, el salmo canta la liberación, Pablo insta a seguir a Jesús con el corazón y la mente, y el evangelio retrata a Jesús resistiendo la tentación en el desierto, confiando en Dios. Los temas abarcan la entrega a Dios, la preparación para nuestra misión y el enfrentamiento y la superación de la tentación.

"YOU SHALL NOT PUT THE LORD, YOUR GOD, TO THE TEST."

LUKE 4:12

RELYING ON GOD

Face it, the last couple of years have worn us all down. Sometimes we don't know how to pray, or we don't seem to find the words we want. It is easy to falter and waver. Lent is a time to get back to the basics. There is much hope and strength in our readings as we begin our Lenten journey. The letter to the Romans tells us today that "everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved," and this is an idea we hear throughout the scriptures. Psalm 91 shows us exactly how to cry for help, "Be with me, Lord, when I am in trouble." In Deuteronomy, Moses teaches the people to bring their firstfruit offerings to God, and put their faith and trust in God, and Jesus teaches us in today's Gospel that we find our life in the word of God.

GOOD ZEAL AND TEMPTATIONS

In the chapter of Luke preceding today's Gospel, Jesus was baptized in the Jordan and began his adult ministry. Immediately afterward he was led by the Spirit into the desert to be tested. While this might seem almost surreal as we imagine the devil taking Jesus from place to place, it is really much more simple and common than that. For many of us, as we strive to live our lives, we deal with many temptations. Sometimes it is a matter of having the zeal and desire, but not the practical experience or knowledge to carry out a goal. Other times, we are afraid to ask for the assistance that we need to carry a project through to completion. Or we might think that we deserve more, or that our results should be happening more quickly. Our egos can be destructive.

KNOWING YOUR TOUCHSTONES

When Jesus found himself tested by the devil, he was given several different scenarios. The devil brought up situations that he knew could specifically test Jesus, but similar situations would test any of us. Physical hunger is a real need, and many of us might yearn for success, or better paying jobs, or power, or the like. The difference is that when Jesus was tempted, he had some strong "touchstones" to hold onto, secure answers to lead him. He went to simple, basic scriptures that he could call upon in his time of need. For many, one of those basics would be Jeremiah, "I know the plans I have in mind for you—plans for peace and not disaster." For another it might be the Beatitudes or the twenty-third Psalm. Whatever it may be, have ready those touchstones, those "go to" prayers or phrases that you can hold onto during the times when you are sorely tested in your life. Let those stones be your firm foundation.

TODAY'S READINGS

Deuteronomy 26:4-10
Psalm 91:1-2, 10-11, 12-13, 14-15
Romans 10:8-13
Luke 4:1-13

"NO TENTARÁS AL SEÑOR, TU DIOS".

LUCAS 4:12

CONFIANDO EN DIOS

Reconócelo, los últimos dos años nos han desgastado a todos. A veces no sabemos cómo rezar, o parece que no encontramos las palabras que queremos. Es fácil flaquear y vacilar. La Cuaresma es un tiempo para volver a lo básico. Hay mucha esperanza y fuerza en nuestras lecturas al comenzar nuestro viaje cuaresmal. La carta a los romanos nos dice hoy que "todo el que invoque el nombre del Señor se salvará", y esta es una idea que escuchamos a lo largo de las Escrituras. El salmo 91 nos muestra exactamente cómo clamar por ayuda: "Acompáñame, Señor, cuando esté en apuros". En el libro del Deuteronomio, Moisés enseña al pueblo a traer sus ofrendas de primicias a Dios, y a poner su fe y confianza en Dios, y Jesús nos enseña en el Evangelio de hoy que encontramos nuestra vida en la palabra de Dios.

BUEN CELO Y TENTACIONES

En el capítulo de Lucas que precede al Evangelio de hoy, Jesús fue bautizado en el Jordán y comenzó su ministerio de adulto. Inmediatamente después fue conducido por el Espíritu al desierto para ser probado. Aunque esto podría parecer casi surrealista, ya que nos imaginamos al diablo llevando a Jesús de un lugar a otro, en realidad es mucho más sencillo y común que eso. Para muchos de nosotros, mientras nos esforzamos por vivir nuestras vidas, nos enfrentamos a muchas tentaciones. A veces se trata de tener el celo y el deseo, pero no la experiencia práctica o el conocimiento para llevar a cabo un objetivo. Otras veces, tenemos miedo de pedir la ayuda que necesitamos para llevar a cabo un proyecto. O podemos pensar que nos merecemos más, o que nuestros resultados deberían producirse más rápidamente. Nuestro ego puede ser destructivo.

CONOCIENDO TUS REFERENTES

Cuando Jesús se encontró con la prueba del diablo, se le dieron varios escenarios diferentes. El diablo planteó situaciones que sabía que podían poner a prueba a Jesús, pero situaciones similares nos pondrían a prueba a cualquiera de nosotros. El hambre física es una necesidad real, y muchos de nosotros podemos anhelar el éxito, o un trabajo mejor pagado, o el poder, o cosas similares. La diferencia es que cuando Jesús fue tentado, tenía algunos "referentes" fuertes a las que aferrarse, respuestas seguras para guiarlo. Acudió a pasajes de las Escrituras sencillas y básicas a las que podía recurrir en su momento de necesidad. Para muchos, uno de esos fundamentos sería Jeremías: "Yo sé los planes que tengo para ti: planes de paz y no de desastre". Para otro, podrían ser las Bienaventuranzas o el salmo 23. Sea lo que sea, ten preparadas esos referentes, esas oraciones o frases "imprescindibles" a las que puedas aferrarte en los momentos en que tu vida sea sometida a una dura prueba. Deja que esos referentes sean tu fundamento firme.

Even now, says the LORD,
return to me with your whole heart,
with fasting, and weeping, and mourning;
Rend your hearts, not your garments,
and return to the LORD, your God.
For gracious and merciful is he,
slow to anger, rich in kindness,
and relenting in punishment.
—Joel 2:12-13

Esto dice el Señor:
Todavía es tiempo.
Vuélvanse a mí de todo corazón,
con ayunos, con lágrimas y llanto;
enluten su corazón y no sus vestidos.
Vuélvanse al Señor Dios nuestro,
porque es compasivo y misericordioso,
lento a la cólera, rico en clemencia,
y se conmueve ante la desgracia.
—Joel 2:12-13
