Most importantly, those who are older, have medical conditions, or are frail are strongly urged to stay home. There are ample opportunities online and on television to view mass. Masses within our cluster are available online and information is included in this newsletter.

St. Joseph's in Greenwich will continue to post Sunday mass on YouTube. Fr. Ed Kacerguis will be the celebrant with Maureen Cossey serving as music minister. Dear friends,

Our Gospel next weekend is the recounting of the loaves and fishes. Note the disciples' reaction to the plight of the hungry crowd: "Send the people away so that they can buy." The disciples have gone for the fix which puts no responsibility on them. They are willing to entrust the hungry crowd to market forces. Those with money can eat: those without, can't. For the disciples, money and commerce are the answers to hunger.

Jesus rejects that solution. "There is no need for them to go; give them something to eat yourselves." The solution to the hunger of that crowd was to give generously what little the disciples had. What they could have kept for themselves was to become gift. Once the disciples were in Jesus' frame of mind, the hunger of the crowd was satisfied. How did this come about? The answer lay in human cooperation with the impulse of Divine generosity which knows no limits. The story simply says that Jesus blessed and broke the loaves "and handed them to his disciples who gave them to the crowd." Jesus depended on the disciples to obey him: "Give them something to eat yourselves."

Jesus still looks with great compassion on those who are hungry in our own society and throughout the world. If we answer that market forces will suffice, Jesus will reject our answer as decisively as he rejected the answer of his earliest disciples. We have to take responsibility to share what we have, to be generous with what we have. After all, Jesus, commands us: 'Give them something to eat yourselves'. Note how Jesus blessed those loaves and broke them before they were distributed, which reminds me of the words of Pedro Arrupe, former General of the Jesuits, "Eucharist will never be complete so long as people still go hungry in the world."

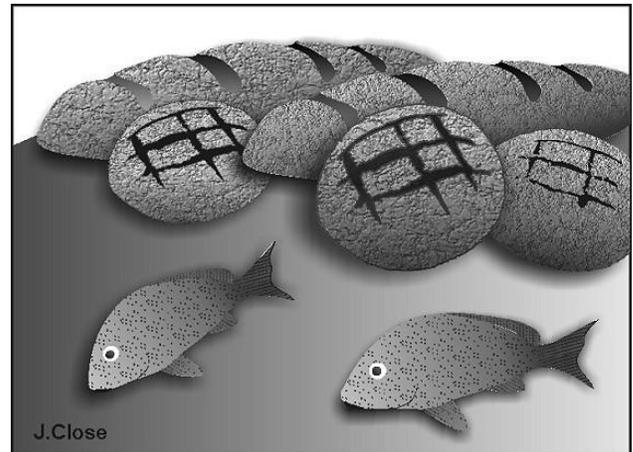

Let's ask who are those hungry people crowding in on us, and then pray that we may respond to them as our Lord commanded, so that the hungers of the crowd, and our hunger to really follow our Lord, will be satisfied.

In Christ,
Jeff Peck

Faith Formation Survey

We are in the process of planning for Fall Faith Formation for grades K-12. The possibilities and opportunities this year will provide are very exciting! Overcoming the obstacles created by the pandemic has allowed us to try new methods and materials. Our emphasis will be on Family, Friends, Faith and Fun!

We need your input to create a program best suited to the needs of your family. An email survey will be sent to parents today, Monday, July 27, using Flocknote. If you have a child in grades K-12 and do not receive the survey, please contact Mary Rosmus by the end of this week. This is especially important for families with children who are ready to prepare for the sacraments of Reconciliation and First Eucharist. We are looking forward to working with your family!

Lectionary Art and Reflection by Jenny Close Reflection by Artist

Five loaves and two fish were more than enough to feed a large crowd of people in today's Gospel reading. A semblance of eucharist is apparent here in this four part action, i.e. in the taking, blessing, breaking, and eating of the food. Likewise, our eucharist provides more than enough nourishment for our needs.
