Strings TA

For incoming 7th-8th graders; can be used for service hours

You will attend the Level I jam sessions and help set up, tune instruments, and help the younger students follow along in the music. Please email Mrs. Schilmoeller to apply (limit 5 per session) terri-schilmoeller@cdolinc.net

SAIL Camp

A week intensive camp put on by LPS, usually in late July, for 5th-12th graders. We've had St. T's students attend in the past and it has really taken their playing to the next level. Currently the 2024 camp registration is not yet posted, but it will be found at this website: <https://sailmusic.camp>

Strings Audition Coaching Sessions

For incoming 5th – 8th graders who wish to audition for the Advanced Strings Group, Dr. Temme and I will offer three different (optional) coaching sessions to help you with the music. Auditions will be during the first full week of school. Students who choose not to audition will automatically be placed in the Intermediate Group. You may attend as many as you want. Meet in school music room.

August 8, 10:00 – 11:00am

August 9, 10:00 – 11:00am

August 15, 9:15 – 10:00am

Children's Choir

For incoming 2nd – 9th graders

Come join Mrs. Schilmoeller in the choir loft to sing some of the "greatest hits" from the schoolyear for the following Masses:

June 30, 8:00 Mass

July 4th, 8:15 Mass

August 15, 8:15 Mass

We won't rehearse – just come up to the choir loft 5-10 minutes before Mass starts.

Pius Summer Camps

Theater camps on the back of this page. Mrs. Schilmoeller will be teaching at the Performing Arts Camp. It's a lot of fun!

Incoming freshmen taking choir, consider "Harmony Explosion;" info here: <https://www.piusx.net/athletics/summer-camps/>
