Fr. Coady Owens grew up in Fishers and attended Ball State University before entering seminary. Ordained in 2017, he currently serves in Muncie. Fr. Coady loves singing 90s music in his car, picking bluegrass music on his porch, and watching late-night Cubs games. He is addicted to stories and has watched ABC's hit series "LOST" more times than you. He gets pumped about waking people up to the reality of the Gospel and the connection between God's word and the human heart.
