Dear Friends,

Have you sensed God calling you into a deeper walk? Consider taking a course of interest that is designed to equip you for any number of lay and ordained ministries. We are all in this together and now we can learn together! Local Ministry Schools in several western and northern Canadian dioceses are working collaboratively to give you these valuable in- person and online study opportunities. Emmanuel and St. Chad College oversees and grants the Licentiate in Theology to students registered through their local Diocese. To register for a specific course, contact the ministry school coordinator listed for that course.
