

House of the Rising Sun

The image shows a musical score for the song 'House of the Rising Sun'. It consists of two systems of piano accompaniment. The first system covers measures 13 to 16, and the second system covers measures 17 to 20. The music is written in a key with one flat (B-flat) and a 4/4 time signature. The first system features a melodic line in the treble clef and a bass line in the bass clef. The second system includes a repeat sign in the treble clef and a more complex bass line with many chords.

There is a house in New Orleans they call the Rising Sun,
It's been the ruin of many poor girl, and me, O God, for one.

If I had listened what mama said, I'd'a' bee at home today, being so young and foolish, poor boy, let a rambler lead me astray.

Go tell my baby sister never to do like I have done,
To shun that house in New Orleans they call the Rising Sun.

My mother she's a tailor, she sold those new blue jeans,
My sweetheart, he's a drunkard, Lord, Lord, drinks down in New Orleans.
