

MEET THE PROFESSOR!

"I have certainly learned and benefited as much from lecturing to seniors as, hopefully, they have from me."

- Professor Philip Leto III, J.D.

Professor Philip Leto III, J.D.

America's award-winning senior-living community is proud to introduce you to Professor Philip Leto III, J.D., Chairman of the Education Department at Discovery University and also one of our expert lecturers. Phil is a Tampa native who started his career as an attorney both in public and private practices, then followed his passion for researching and communications by becoming a lecturer and educator.

In addition to enjoying a career as a professor of government and world affairs at the University of Tampa, Phil is also an experienced guest speaker at various local and international presentations geared toward mature adults, working professionals and other groups.

Phil's areas of expertise include history, politics, government, international affairs, sports, Americana, media and the courts. Audiences find him thought provoking, informative and dynamic. Please welcome Professor Philip Leto!
