June 2017

Memorial Service Surprise

Pictured above is one of the beautiful Monarch butterflies that was released during our memorial service on April 29th. This butterfly decided to land on a hanging plant and linger for the rest of the service. There was a butterfly for every person remembered that morning. Another picture from the service is on page 3.

Father's Day Social

Monday, June 19th, 2:00-3:00 pm, Patio

Assisted Living and Memory Care residents will celebrate Father's Day. We will honor our fathers, grandfathers and uncles with food and fun. Men will feast on watermelon and wings! Games will include a watermelon spitting contest and corn hole toss. All men are invited to come and be recognized.

Summer Begins on Wednesday, June 21st!

The American Automobile Industry: From Boom to Broke?

The U.S. dominated the production and sale of autos for most of the 20th century. Learn about Henry Ford and Alfred P.
Sloan (General Motors), and the international auto industry.

Transportation provided for assisted living residents-sign up!

Sandy Loth and husband, are comforted
by the butterfly.

A daughter spent time with a butterfly she named "Mom" during our memorial service in April. It was a meaningful time for the whole community.

Wit & Wisdom

"My father gave me the greatest gift anyone could give another person; he believed in me."

—Jim Valvano

"My dad had this philosophy that if you tell children they're beautiful and wonderful then they believe it, and they will be."

—Emily Mortimer

"Anyone who tells you fatherhood is the greatest thing
that can happen to you,
they are understating it."

—Mike Myers

"My father was my teacher.
But most importantly he was a great dad."

—Beau Bridges

"It was my father who taught me to value myself. He told me that I was uncommonly beautiful and that I was the most precious thing in his life."

—Dawn French

"Even if society dictates that men and women should behave in certain ways, it is fathers and mothers who teach those ways to children, not just in the words they say, but in the lives they lead."

—Augustus Y. Napier

"Fatherhood is everything
I wanted it to be and more.
It's an unbelievable experience."

—Rodger Berman
