SUPPORT A NEW LEVEL OF ATHLETIC EXCELLENCE

Queens University of Charlotte invites you to join The Royals Club – the primary way to fuel our continued success now competing at the NCAA Division I level.

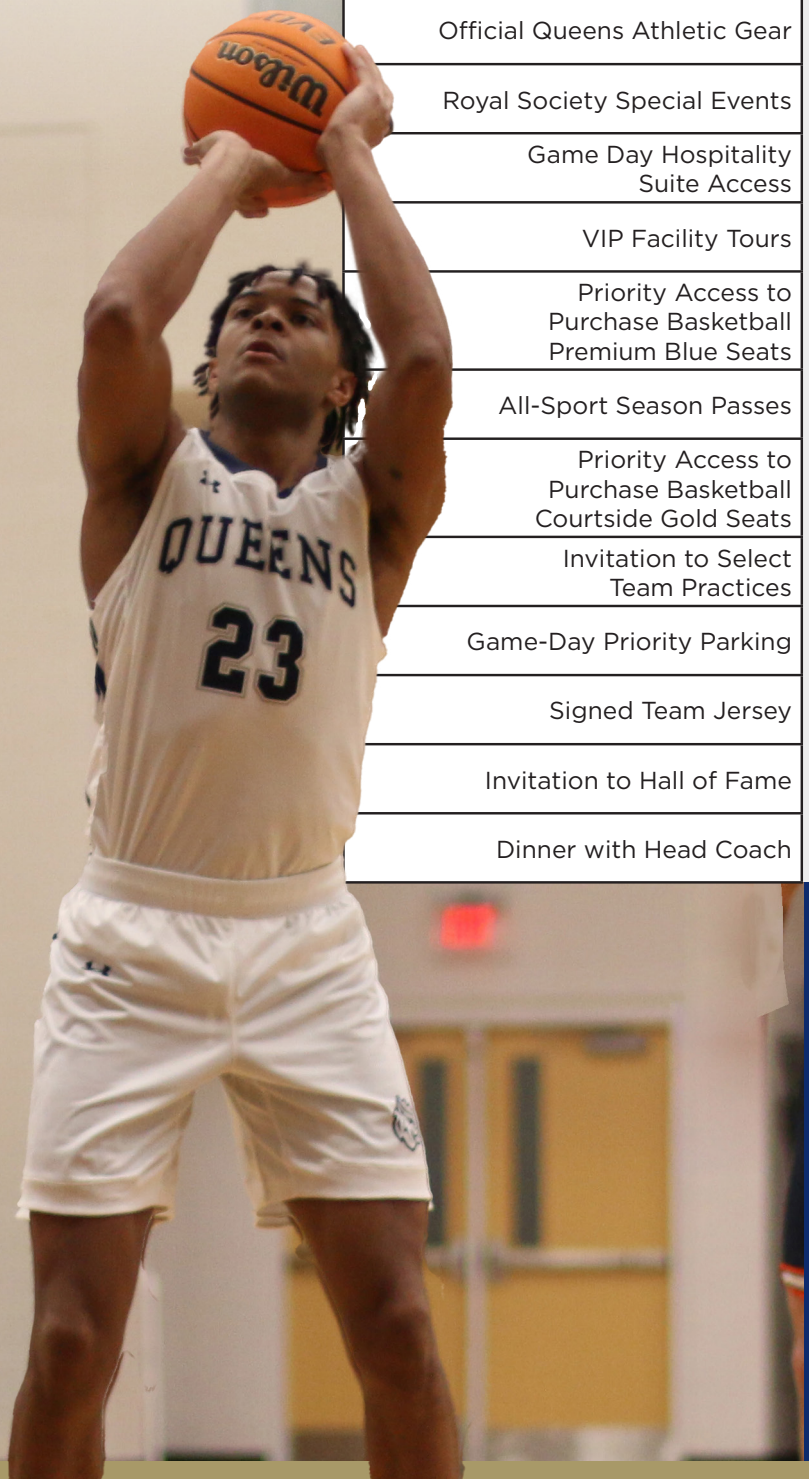

In May 2022 the Board of Trustees accepted a bid to join the ASUN Conference, elevating our national and international recognition. This move provides a new level of excellence for our student-athletes while bringing the Queens name to larger, more diverse audiences from Louisville, Kentucky to Jacksonville, Florida.

We want you to be a part of the team! Your support, this year and in the future, will ensure our over 600 student-athletes in 32 programs excel at the highest level of intercollegiate competition.
