

I N D E X

T O T H E

GOSPEL MAGAZINE for the YEAR 1781.

A.

ADMONITIONS, encouraging ones to doubting christians, 331.

Advice to young christians, 260.

Afflicted christians, encouraging considerations for them, 367.

Almost christian, 403.

Amusements, worldly, irksome to converted persons, 253.

Anecdote of political priestcraft, 383.

Anecdotes on popery, 25. 104. 237. 272.

Angel of God's presence, who, 213.

Answer to query, Whether it be possible to make God an idol, &c. 63.

— to the Letter from the young man in India, 325.

— to a query concerning church-fellowship, 388.

Assurance of faith, hints on that subject, 235. 260.

B.

Bereaving providences, their salutary tendency, 361.

VOL. VIII.

Bible, the christian's treasury and delight, 179.

Boromæus, archbp. extract from his charge relating to worldly pleasures, 270.

C.

Characteristics of the gospel, and the professors of it, 241.

Christ, his sinless nature proved, 58.

— the true and only head of the church, 141.

— why a stumbling-block to the Jews, 351.

— the only foundation of his church, 371.

Christian caution and foresight, essay on that subject, 108.

— fellowship, 243.

Christian, blessedness of a true one, 308.

Christians, their safety amidst national calamities, 305.

Church catechism explained, Article XIV. 22. Art. XV. 58. Art. XVI. 98. 132. 167. Art. XIX. 197. 229.

Coming of Christ to judgment, different effects the idea of it produces on different characters, 44.

Communion of saints, how discoverable, 140.

Conder, Rev. Dr. reflections on his death, 223.

Congregational music, thoughts on the nature of it, 32. It should be solemn and chearful, 33.

—— church in Scotland, its origin, 222.

Conversion, a remarkable one, 370.

Covenant and spiritual mercies, their inestimable value, 189.

—— of grace, its comfortable effects, 381.

D

Dealings in trade, cautions against unjust ones by professors, 55.

—— of God towards his people, are all in love, 326.

Directions for unexperienced believers, 298.

Divine breathing, 308.

E.

Earthquake, solemn thoughts on one, 65.

Ecclesiastical History, 26. 50. 88. 128. 159. 191. 398.

Edict of Nantz, granted to the protestants in France, 57.

Eternal generation of the Son of God, reply to G. B. on that subject, 27.

Existence, original, present, and future state of Satan, 193. 287. 323.

Extract from the jesuit's letter on Arminianism, 276.

F.

Faith, which influences the life and conversation, the only true and saving one, 355.

Family religion recommended, 258.

—— worship, the importance of it enforced, 207.

Fear of man, dreadful effects from the prevalence of it, 114.

—— of the Lord, blessedness resulting from it, 115.

Feelings, not to be rested on, 296.

Forgiveness of sins to be experienced by all true christians, 11.

Four perilous times, 164.

G.

God's free and distinguishing love in the salvation of sinners, and full display of it, 355.

Gospel minister, excellent character of one, 317.

—— church, nature and design of it, 391.

Graces of a christian, mixed with their opposites, 264.

Great and Good Shepherd, an essay on his characters, &c. 290.

H.

Happiness, mistaken conceptions of it, the principal source and cause of the misery of mankind, 307.

Happiness,

Happiness, true, an essay on the subject, 364.

History of the Inquisition, 111.

Holy Ghost, blessed effects of his quickening power, 293.

J. I.

Jesus and Mary, an essay, 7.

Ignorance the parent of popery, 273.

Immutability of the covenant of grace, 12, & seq.

Inquisition, popish, history of it, 72. Cruelties exercised in that of Portugal, ibid.

K.

Knowledge of God's love to us Christ, productive of genuine love to God, 11.

Knox, John, the Scots reformer, establishes the Genevan worship and discipline in Scotland, 222.

L.

Last day, 73.

League, popish, against the protestants, its institution, 51.

Letter from the Rev. Mr. Palmer, of Hackney, 76.

— to a lady, on Christ's union with his church, &c. 138.

— to Richard Taylor, a malefactor in the gaol at Northampton, 142.

— on the work of the ministry, 198.

— from a young lady to her friend, 202.

— from the Rev. Mr. Erskine to Mrs. Fisher, 295.

Letter from a young man in India, to his uncle, 299.

— to professors in general, 320.

— from a gentleman, to his friend in the country, 327.

— to a friend, on the death of his father, 360.

— to the Rev. Mr. D— o W—, 419.

M.

Man's fall and recovery, account of it, 380.

Massacre of the protestants in Paris, 16.

Massacres, popish, in France and Ireland, 237, 238.

Meditation on the New Year. 16.

— on Christ's second appearing, 44.

— on death, 68.

— in the fields, 332.

Memoirs of the life of Mr. G. Hughes, 84.

Mercies of God, a cursory retrospect of them, 187.

Mexted, Eliz. her death-bed experience, 125. 155.

Mil-way, Mr. his sermon and preface considered, 385.

N.

Narrative of a very remarkable conversion of a young woman, 123.

O.

Obedience of Christ, the sole procuring cause of pardon and acceptance, 363.

Observations on reading the scriptures, 70.

Original letter to S. Barrington, bishop of Llandaff, 93.

— from the late Rev.

Mr. Hervey to Mr. Whitefield, 92.

Owen, Rev. Dr. John, his life, 412.

P.

Passages of scripture explained and recommended, 101. 129.

Pastors, negligent, their woful state, 170. Characteristics of faithful ones, 171.

Personal and family reformation recommended, 134. 161. 295. 255. 301.

Personality of the Trinity asserted and maintained, 29.

Peter's fall, probable cause of it, 262.

Piedmontese and Parisians, barbarous persecution of them, 358.

Plays, &c. unlawful to christians, 340.

Pleasures of religion, 251.

Poem on the New Year, 6.

POETRY. On Ps. lxvii. 16.

p. 37. With, ibid. A sabbath evening's thought, ib.

On hearing the Rev. Mr. G—n, at H—d, Bucks, on

Col. ii. 19. p. 38. Hallelujah, ibid. Written after hearing the Rev. Mr. Rippon from Josh. ii. last clause of ver. 12. ibid. Complete redemption, 29. On Matt.

xiv. 12. ibid. The cause and cure of sinful fears, ibid.

On judgment, ibid. Composed after hearing the Rev.

Mr. De Courcy on Cant. v. 16. p. 77. Lines occasioned by the death of Mrs. H. of Highgate, 78. On 1

Theff. v. 17. ibid. The storm, ibid. An Evening walk among the tombs, 79.

Faith in a dying hour, 80.

An hymn to God the creator, 117. An hymn to God the redeemer, ibid. On Job xl. 4. p. 118. Desiring the divine presence, ibid. On Isa. liii. 8. ibid. The brea-things of a real saint, 119. On John i. 29. ibid. On Rom xiii. 12. p. 120. Occasioned by hearing a sermon preached by the Rev. Mr. G. Burder, 149. On Psalm

xxx. v. ibid. On the birth of a daughter, 150. Christ a shelter in every storm, ib. Thoughts on the blessed influence of grace, ibid. On thunder, 151. On Col. iii.

3. p. 181. The 4th chapter of Job paraphrased, ibid.

A morning's meditation, 182. On Matt. xxv. 10.

p. 183. On 1 John iv. 19. ibid. The judgment-day, ibid. The disciple, 213. The christian's conflict, 214.

In Memory of Dr. Conder, ibid. On Luke xi. 21, 22.

p. 245. John vi. 28, 29. paraphrased, ibid. Light shining out of darkness, 246. A morning hymn, ibid.

“But ye are justified,” ibid. Love triumphant, 247. Christ worthy of all praise, ibid. On 2 Sam. xxiii. 5. p. 277.

On a scandalous report on a minister, &c. ibid. Happiness, 278. On 2 Cor. v. 1, & seq. ibid. Written after a fit of affliction, 279. “He spake as never man spake,” ibid. The prospect, ibid. The christian degree of comparison,

parison, 280. Thoughts on the death of the Rev. Dr. Conder, 309. On Cant. iii. 1. p. 310. Soliloquies, ib. On Ps. lxxxiv. 11. p. 311. The prospect (part. II.) ibid. On Luke xiii. 3. 341. On John xv. 5. ib. Elegy to the memory of Amb. Isted. esq; 342. A prospect of popery, 343. On Rev. vii. 10. p. 344. A prayer on setting out in life, 373. The sheltered pilgrim, 374. On Ps. lxxiii. 24. p. 375. On Zec. ix. 9, 10. ibid. A Hymn sung after hearing four sermons upon the book of Ruth, 376. On Isa. iv. 6. ibid. On John xvii. 24. p. 405. The pilgrim's farewell, ib. On humility, ibid. The preciousness of Christ to the renewed and believing soul, 406. On Ps. cxlii. 7. ibid. A prayer, 407. Verses by Miss Woodward, on Miss E. Mac-Gowan, ibid. On Christmas Morn, 429. On Jesus, the once suffering, but now exalted Saviour, ibid. On Luke xiv. 16. ibid. In memory of an event observ'd annually in a private family, 430. Lines occasioned by the death of the late Rev. Dr. Gill, ib. On John vi. 68. p. 431. On Isa. xxvii. 13. ib. Popery, dreadful effects that would attend its re-introduction into England, 321. — censured, 339. — danger of tolerating it, 357. — inimical to the British constitution, 359. Popish cruelties in the Portuguese inquisition, 111. See Inquisition.

Popish delusion exposed, 146. — indulgences, 146. — cruelty in the island of Guernsey, shocking instance of it, 357. — fraud detected, 383. — unity, essay on that subject, 424. Practical inference from Gen. xiv. 14, 15. p. 264. Preface to vol. viii. p. iii. Protestants, cruel persecution of them in the reigns of Charles V. and Philip II. of Spain, 399. Punctilios in religion to be avoided, as not essential to salvation, 397. Purgatory proved to be a ridiculous and absurd tenet, 178.

Q.

Quæries proposed, 35. 75. 147. 183. 244. 340. — answered, 266—269. Query concerning a call to the ministry, 35. — on Job xix. 26. p. 35: — on Matt. xiii. 32, &c. p. 36. — on Philip. ii. 12, 13. p. 36. — on Rev. xxi. 8. p. 36. — on Mark iv. 12. p. 76. — on the predictions of the prophets, p. 76. — of Timidus, on Revel. xxi. 8. answered, 112. — on part of Dan. iii. 25. answered, 212. — on the prophetic predictions, answered, 145.

R.

Reflections on the county of Sussex, &c. 168.

Reflections

Reflections on seeing the malefactors pass by to execution, 306.

— on Ps. xxxvii. 25. p. 334.

— on Rom. v. 18. p. 379. 416.

Reformation in England and Scotland, account of it, 88. 128. 192.

Reformed, persecution of them in Scotland, 192.

Regenerate persons, of their falling and rising again, 133.

Religion not a comfortless, but a state of pure, unceasing joy, 366.

Religious letters, 92. 138. 198. 240. 295. 325. 360. 385. 419. See Letters.

Remarks on Dan. iii. 25. p. 233.

Retrospect of the mercies of God, 187.

REVIEW of A Companion to the christian in his field and garden, 40. An Essay on the character, &c. of Methodism, 80. Polygamy unscriptural, ibid. Pasham's edition of Dr. Watts's psalms and hymns, 120. The Poor man's spiritual instructor, 152. The christian's coat of arms, ibid. Scripture meditations, 184. Cardiphonia, 216. Songs in the night, ibid. The Blessings of polygamy, 248. Every Man's monitor, ibid. Lyric poems, 280. Observations on the nature, causes, and cure of melancholy, particularly that called religious melancholy, 312. J. Fellows's hymns in a great variety of metres, 344. Life of Christ, 408. A short Plea in favour of infant baptism, and of administering it by sprinkling, 408.

Righteous under the New Testament, description of them, 337.

Rooker, Rev. Mr. his character cleared, 275.

S.

Sabbath of rest, 327.

Salvation by Christ alone, evidently proved from scripture, 167.

Satan's final state and punishment, 323.

Scriptures antiently consisted of three divisions, 210.

Select sentences of eminent divines, &c. 24. 53.

Self-examination, considerations thereupon, before receiving the sacrament, 18. Heads of self-examination, 20. The true nature of it, ibid. When to be more particularly attended, to, 47. Awful consequences resulting from the neglect of this duty, 48.

— and penitential confessions, necessity of them, 135.

Serious consideration, 353.

Shaw, Rev. Mr. Samuel, his life, 283.

Spademan, Rev. Mr. John, his life, 219.

Supererogation, works of, unscriptural and absurd, 22. Description of that erroneous doctrine, 23.

T.

Talking at church, hint on that practice, 274.

Tallents, Rev. Mr. Francis, his life, 315.

Teaching,

Teaching, heavenly, its method, nature, necessity, and the subjects of it, 65.

Thelyphthora, a false assertion therein detected, 173.

Thoughts on Matt. xxviii. 9. 208.

Toplady, late Rev. Mr. his testimony respecting eternal generation, 31.

Transubstantiation, abp. Tillotson's opinion of the absurdity of it, 25.

Wife, character of an excellent one, 271.

Williams, Rev. Daniel, D. D. his life, 347.

Willingness and ability of Christ to save sinners, displayed, 328.

Wisdom of God in a mystery, an essay, 351.

Word of God, excellence and divine origin of it, 103.

Word to professors, 396.

Work of grace on the soul, its genuine effects, 126.

V. U.

Visible and invisible church of Christ, 197.

Visits on the sabbath-day, bad effects resulting from them, 163.

Vivian's dissertation on the latter part of Rev. xiii. 368.

Unchangeable goodness of God to his people, 336.

Unity among professors, a serious call to it, 60.

W.

"Watch and pray," 338.

Y.

Young believers, useful directions for them, 203.

Z.

Zechariah the penman of a remarkable passage concerning Christ, supposed to be found in Jeremiah, according to the reference in St. Matthew's gospel, 209.

Zophar, one of Job's friends, his wife and good advice, exhortation, and motives to personal reformation, considered, 136.

END OF VOL. VIII.

DIRECTIONS to the Bookbinder.

Place the HEADS opposite the LIVES of the Persons whom they represent. The HYMNS, we apprehend, should be placed all together at the End of the Volume.

Preserve the CUTS and SHEETS of the HOLY WAR, which (with the LIFE of Bunyan) are intended to be kept, and, with the subsequent part of that Work, when finished, bound up separately.