

INDEX.

| A                                               | Page     | C                                             | Page     |
|-------------------------------------------------|----------|-----------------------------------------------|----------|
| Abraham's view of Christ .....           | 98       | Calvinism , the state of, under Eliza- |          |
| Abuses in religion, no criterion always  | 378      | beth.....                                     | 125      |
| Acceptance , with God, the sense of      |          | Charity , in what it consists .....    | 117      |
| the word.....                                   | 69       | Christ , his divine nature, begotten.  | 22       |
| —further remarks 109, 188, 212                  |          | the first-born from the dead                  | 33       |
| 276                                             |          | —his obedience and suffering                  | 43       |
| Acrostic , an.....                       | 483      | —the high priest .....                        | 77       |
| Adam , in his first state .....          | 443      | —his believing and repenting                  |          |
| Advent , of Christ, its design.....      | 355      | for his people.....                           | 82, 122  |
| Anecdote of George Whitfield.....        | 96       | —his designation .....                        | 153      |
| —of Mr. Toplady.....                            | 155      | —his purchase .....                           | 148      |
| Antinomian , a real one described... 447 |          | —love to.....                                 | 176      |
| —ism, a hideous spectre                         |          | —his divinity.....                            | 189      |
| in the fancy of a dreamer .....                 | 376      | —his person.....                              | 329      |
| Antiquity , gives no value to opinions   | 53       | Christianity , wrong views of .....    | 118      |
| Attestation , to some circumstances in   |          | Comfort , in trouble.....              | 308      |
| conversion.....                                 | 202      | Confession of the Trinity, by various  |          |
| —also to the doctrine of the                    |          | churches .....                                | 18       |
| Trinity.....                                    | 325, 431 | Confidence , when in trouble .....     | 484      |
|                                                 |          | Conversation , a supposed one, be-     |          |
|                                                 |          | tween the thief and John West-                |          |
|                                                 |          | ley .....                                     | 358      |
|                                                 |          | Conversion , of Saul.....              | 484      |
|                                                 |          | Covenant of grace , a description of   | 338      |
|                                                 |          | —God's faithful-                              |          |
|                                                 |          | ness engaged therein.....                     | 340      |
|                                                 |          | Creature , the earnest expectation of  | 365      |
|                                                 |          |                                               |          |
|                                                 |          | D                                             |          |
|                                                 |          | Death , reflections on .....           | 479      |
|                                                 |          | Decision , between two masters.....    | 45       |
|                                                 |          | Deist and Unitarian undivided.....     | 435      |
|                                                 |          | Depravity of the heart .....           | 229      |
|                                                 |          | Dialogue , a curious one.....          | 228, 309 |
|                                                 |          | Difficulties , advice under .....      | 306      |
|                                                 |          | Drink offerings, a relation to prayer  | 302      |
|                                                 |          | Divinity of Christ, attested ...       | 189, 409 |
|                                                 |          | Duty , a sophistical way of enforcing  |          |
|                                                 |          | vide preface.....                             | v        |
|                                                 |          |                                               |          |
|                                                 |          | E                                             |          |
|                                                 |          | Editors , their motives for carrying   |          |
|                                                 |          | on this work, see preface                     |          |
| Babe , in Christ described .....         | 43       |                                               |          |
| —of Bethlehem , faith's view of          | 216      |                                               |          |
| Baptism , two opinions on.....           | 387      |                                               |          |
| Barker , Revd. John, a testimony         |          |                                               |          |
| concerning .....                                | 235      |                                               |          |
| Barnard , Revd. S. remarks on.....       | 482      |                                               |          |
| Beauties of Dr. South .....              | 448      |                                               |          |
| Believer , his life.....                 | 303      |                                               |          |
| Bigotry , how to disarm.....             | 114      |                                               |          |
| Blessings conferred on the elect from    |          |                                               |          |
| everlasting .....                               | 349      |                                               |          |
| Bogue , Revd. Mr. strange views of       |          |                                               |          |
| the millennium .....                            | 170      |                                               |          |
| —A fulsome panegyric of his                     | 171      |                                               |          |
| Branches in Christ by profession... 62   |          |                                               |          |
| Brine , quotation from.....              | 493      |                                               |          |
| Britain , Great, a serious charge        |          |                                               |          |
| against .....                                   | 224      |                                               |          |
| British people , an opinion of.....      | 391      |                                               |          |
| Brutes , thoughts on their deliverance   | 365      |                                               |          |
| Bunches of violets .....                 | 448, 521 |                                               |          |
| Burial Ground , reflections therein      | 478      |                                               |          |
| Burke , Mr. a quotation from .....       | 382      |                                               |          |

| N                                                                      | Page     |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------|
| National liberty to be defended .....                           | 392      |
| Nature and grace , in hostility..                               | 417      |
| New man described .....                                         | 437      |
| New nature , the, discriminated                                 | 254, 417 |
| Nicene council , its view of the Unityand the Trinity ..... | 23       |

O

|                                                              |          |
|--------------------------------------------------------------|----------|
| Offers of grace , the fallacy thereofexposed..... | 310, 375 |
| Oil , an emblem of the Holy Ghost                     | 301      |
| Oratory , exemplified.....                            | 96       |
| Original sin , remarks from an olddivine.....     | 227, 298 |

P

|                                                                     |               |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------|
| Peep into the professing world.....                          | 269           |
| Perfection ,.....                                            | 404, 443, 487 |
| ———, in the flesh..                                                 | 68, 106       |
| Personal testimony of God the Fa-ther considered.....    | 392           |
| ——— ity and glory of Christ ,considered .....            | 5             |
| Pierce , Revd. Mr. an address to...                          | 131           |
| Pilgrim , his path to Zion.....                              | 346           |
| Poetry , viii. 41—44, 88, 130—2, 176,216, 300, 348, 483  |               |
| Prayer , an encouragement to .....                           | 218           |
| Preaching , in vain to many .....                            | 56            |
| Pre-existence , investigated. ....                           | 324           |
| ——— of Christ , with hisdivine and essential personality | 6             |
| Preservation , in body, a mercy ...                          | 467           |
| Priestley , Dr. a continuance of areply to .....         | 47, 102       |
| Profession , of religion, a false oneunmasked .....      | 364, 418      |
| Promises , how precious.....                                 | 451           |
| Psalm cxxi , commented on.....                               | 462           |
| Public opinion , how it operates.....                        | 391           |
| Purity , inward .....                                        | 413           |

Q

|                                                             |               |
|-------------------------------------------------------------|---------------|
| Questions propounded ...                             | 121, 344, 429 |
| ——— What think ye of Christ451, 482              |               |
| Quotation from Mr. Denham, anexcellent one ..... | 173           |
| ——— from Dr. Owen .....                                     | 457           |

R

|                                      |     |
|--------------------------------------|-----|
| Rainbow of the covenant ..... | 421 |
|--------------------------------------|-----|

|                                                                                            |     |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Reason , its proper place. ....                                                     | 434 |
| Regeneration , what.....                                                            | 40  |
| ——— further expatiated on                                                                  | 196 |
| 254, 290                                                                                   |     |
| Relationship between Christ andhis people.....                                  | 331 |
| Resentment against those who holdthe leading doctrines of the gos-pel ..... | 273 |
| Review of Books , 157, 176, 376, 396,430, 436                                   |     |
| Righteousness of Christ extolled ...                                                | 244 |
| ——— human , depreciated                                                             | 449 |

S

|                                                                                    |                        |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------|
| Sabellian , the frank confession of one                                     | 119                    |
| Salt , an emblem of the word of God                                         | 302                    |
| Sanctification , remarks on.....                                            | 36, 56                 |
| ——— a necessary grace... ..                                                        | 88                     |
| ——— protest against pro-gressive, see note 231, 293, 299, 321357, 393, 470 |                        |
| ——— progressive and bo-dily , .....                                    | 68, 191, 230, 242, 369 |
| Scriptures , their immediate and ple-nary inspiration .....             | 155                    |
| Seeking the Lord, its importance ...                                        | 220                    |
| Sermon , a sketch of one.....                                               | 97                     |
| Serpent , the crooked one, thoughtsthereon.....                         | 23, 224                |
| Sin , put away by Christ.....                                               | 81                     |
| —— the forgiveness of.....                                                         | 234                    |
| Sincerity brought to the test .....                                         | 116                    |
| —— vide note.....                                                                  | 404                    |
| Socinianism , a rebuke to a professorof it.....                         | 409                    |
| Son of God , being subject to the Fa-ther, considered .....             | 341, 360               |
| Spirit , human and angelic, a con-templation .....                      | 25                     |
| Supra-lapsarian doctrines, the im-portance of ... ..                    | 349                    |

T

|                                                                                      |                    |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------|
| Tempted , the, an address to .....                                            | 427                |
| Thief , on the cross, his character ...                                       | 319                |
| Theology , the study of .....                                                 | 380                |
| Toplady , Mr. an anecdote of.....                                             | 155                |
| Trinity , hymn to, vide preface ...                                           | vii.               |
| ——— its importance .....                                                             | 5                  |
| ——— the confession thereof, bythe churches of Bohemia and theWaldenses ..... | 18                 |
| ——— further thoughts .....                                                           | 152                |
| ——— Dr. T. Goodwin's thoughtson.....                                             | 205, 287, 324, 485 |

