

INDEX.

|                                                                                                                                  | Page     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | Page. |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------|
| A                                                                                                                         |          | Calling , and electing considered, 121,239.                                                                                                                                                                                                  |       |
| ADAM , in his primeval state.....                                                                                         | 275      | Carnal mind , how to crucify.....                                                                                                                                                                                                                | 448   |
| —, his fall.....                                                                                                                 | ibid.    | Charges , foul ones made, and repell-ed, 469, 470, &c.                                                                                                                                                                                       |       |
| Address for a new year.....                                                                                               | 67       | Christ bearing of sin.....                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | 118   |
| Analogy , a most striking, respect-ing the prophecy of Ezekiel,and the book of Revelation, 268,326, 366, 413. |          | —, assumes various characters..                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | 458   |
| Annanias and Sapphira , their cha-racter.....                                                                  | 188, 233 | Christian , his servitude.....                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | 446   |
| Anecdote of Mr. Berridge.....                                                                                             | 404      | —, his last farewell.....                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | 479   |
| Arminianism , its vile principles, 135,272.                                                                           |          | Christianity , thoughts on its com-mencement.....                                                                                                                                                                                            | 89    |
| Antinomianism and Arminianism ,their coincidence .....                                                         | 248      | Church of Christ , all equally loved.                                                                                                                                                                                                     | 17    |
| —, used as a scare-crow by Messrs. Bogue andBennet.....                                                                  | 253      | —, black and lovely                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | 317   |
| Articles of faith , commended.....                                                                                        | 382      | Church communion recommended.                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | 218   |
|                                                                                                                                  |          | —, the spiritual, disregarded.                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | 269   |
| B                                                                                                                         |          | Clarke , Dr. Adam, his erroneousviews of God's prescience.....                                                                                                                                                                               | 449   |
| Baptism , a dispassionate view of... 260                                                                                  |          | Clayton , Mr. a preacher, his extra-ordinary proceedings against amember of his church by expul-sion, his generosity expatiatedon by himself, his terrific viewof a monstrous hydra, withother curious circumstances.... | 432   |
| —, particularly.....                                                                                                             | 347      | Collyer , Dr. a sentiment of his ex-posed.....                                                                                                                                                                                               | 293   |
| Baptists and Pedobaptists , bothparties reprehended.....                                                       | 248      | Condemnation of a sinner, the cause 165,292, 210.                                                                                                                                                                                            |       |
| Believing , on the duty of.....                                                                                           | 75       | Confession , a notable one of a Ger-man.....                                                                                                                                                                                                 | 74    |
| Believers , what is required fromthem.....                                                                            | 219      | Conversion , of a young man.....                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | 427   |
| Bible , the authenticity thereof, 177, 349,441.                                                                       |          | Correspondents , Myra's acknow-ledgments to.....                                                                                                                                                                                             | 59    |
| —, the study recommended.....                                                                                                    | 445      | Correspondences with the Editor,vide blue covers; also, 292, 325,420, 423, 470, 509—515.                                                                                                                                                 |       |
| Blessings of the gospel, considered                                                                                       | 316      | Criticism on Heb. xi. 16.....                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | 139   |
| Body , sanctification of.....                                                                                             | 116      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |       |
| Bogue and Bennet , their base insi-nuations.....                                                               | 258      | D                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |       |
| Books , the choice of some recom-mended.....                                                                          | 76       | Denunciation on those who preachnot the gospel.....                                                                                                                                                                                          | 68    |
| Bradford , John, letters.....                                                                                             | 410, 464 | Dialogue , between a believer andhis soul.....                                                                                                                                                                                               | 436   |
| Buckingham's travels in Palestine                                                                                         | 194      | Divine interference exemplified....                                                                                                                                                                                                              | 225   |
| Byron , Lord, an epistle addressedto him.....                                                                         | 172      | Divinity , a view of some peculiarnotions, vide preface.....                                                                                                                                                                                 | v.    |
| C                                                                                                                         |          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |       |
| Calvin's view of the Trinity.....                                                                                         | 30       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |       |

|                                                                                                      | Page |                                                                                                | Page.   |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------|
| Duty of man, to perform spiritual acts investigated, and the fallacy of such an opinion.....  | 506  | Hawker, Revd. Dr. a token of remembrance of his to the church of Christ.....            | 9       |
| —————, a question on.....                                                                     | 67   | —————, his letter to an under graduate.....                                             | 21      |
| E                                                                                             |      | —————, an attestation to his extraordinary talents, 23, 472, 515.                       | 472,    |
| Eggs, cockatrice ones, what.....                                                              | 295  | Heart, the depravity thereof.....                                                       | 390     |
| Election, some excellent thoughts on.....                                                     | 35   | Hebrews, the drift of the epistle....                                                   | 62      |
| —————, a personal act of the Father.....                                                      | 69   | Hints submitted to commentators..                                                       | 28      |
| ————— of men, from Dr. Gill.....                                                              | 143  | Holiness, a spurious description of.                                                    | 226     |
| Error, remarks on.....                                                                        | 92   | Human nature depicted.....                                                              | 280     |
| Evidences of an interest in election                                                          | 238  | —————, its depravity further considered.....                                            | 282     |
| Excuse, man left without.....                                                                 | 295  | Humanity and divinity of Christ, an important doctrine.....                             | 146     |
| Exhortations, important ones.....                                                             | 229  | Humility, a grand motive to.....                                                        | 214     |
| Experimental godliness, remarks on                                                            | 154  | I                                                                                       |         |
| Ezekiel, the prophecy considered, with reference to the church of Christ, 268, 326, 366, 413. |      | Infants, the supposition of their perishing is cruelty.....                             | 325     |
| F                                                                                             |      | Invitations of the gospel, properly discriminated, and who are the objects invited..... | 297     |
| Faith, the triumphs of.....                                                                   | 148  | ————— futile specimens of such 293, 424                                                 |         |
| Fear of God, what.....                                                                        | 300  | J                                                                                       |         |
| Flock of Christ, its value.....                                                               | 398  | Jacks, Mr. his remarks on Mr. Seabrook.....                                             | 29      |
| Foundation, a good one.....                                                                   | 167  | Jaxer, in twenty letters to the weak in faith.....                                      | 34, 259 |
| Fowler, Mr. his shepherd of Israel, an excellent discourse.....                               | 380  | Jehovah, remarks on his love.....                                                       | 311     |
| Freedom of the human will, how exemplified in the regenerate and unregenerate.....            | 510  | Jesus at his table, a glance of.....                                                    | 494     |
| Fullerism, odious and detestable... 136                                                       |      | ————, coming to him.....                                                                | 112     |
| G                                                                                             |      | Jews and Gentiles on an equality..                                                      | 225     |
| Garrow, Dr. observations on his sermon.....                                                   | 388  | ————ish and Christian dispensations, the close of.....                                  | 78      |
| German writer, a translation from                                                             | 73   | Job, a meditation from, and his profession of faith.....                                | 148     |
| Glance at the promise maker.....                                                              | 448  | Journal, a public one, should be impartial.....                                         | 470     |
| God's knowledge of his people, 52, 184                                                        | 184  | Judgments, which are to take place                                                      | 420     |
| ————, his love to them.....                                                                   | 352  | K                                                                                       |         |
| Gog and Magog, their attack on the church of God.....                                         | 414  | Kingly majesty of Christ expatiated on.....                                             | 400     |
| Gospel spurious, its easy reception.                                                          | 185  | L                                                                                       |         |
| ————, its properties.....                                                                     | 241  | Law, moral, an unequivocal declaration thereon....                                      | 252     |
| ————, its different success, and why                                                          | 293  |                                                                                                |         |
| ————, its effects.....                                                                        | 406  |                                                                                                |         |
| Grace, falling from.....                                                                      | 98   |                                                                                                |         |
| ————, its sufficiency.....                                                                    | 190  |                                                                                                |         |
| H                                                                                             |      |                                                                                                |         |
| Harangue to the unconverted, by the Revd. D. W.....                                           | 424  |                                                                                                |         |

INDEX.

527

|                                                                           | Page |                                                                           | Page |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|
| Law of works, its denunciation .....                               | 248  | Paul, St. his meaning of being cast away .....                     | 303  |
| Letter to an undergraduate .....                                   | 25   | Pause, at a view of death .....                                    | 176  |
| — to a young minister .....                                               | 277  | Peckwell, Dr. testimony to his worth, note .....                   | 523  |
| — from a minister to his people 81, 125                                   |      | Pelagian heresy, compared with the Arminian and Baxterian .....    | 313  |
| — one to a friend .....                                                   | 504  | Penitents, encouraged .....                                        | 174  |
| Licentious sentiments, the charge most curiously bandied about ... | 389  | Perfection, specimen of the doctrine held by an old heresiarch 512 |      |
| Lord's Supper, a meditation on .....                               | 494  | Persecution, the spirit the same in all ages .....                 | 185  |
| — several things suited for remembrance .....                             | 499  | — exemplified in a preacher .....                                         | 433  |
| Love of Jehovah, reflections on ...                                | 71   | Personality of Christ and the Holy Spirit asserted .....           | 513  |
| Luther's thoughts on the Trinity ... 32                            |      | Peterborough, Bishop, his speech, remarks on .....                 | 378  |

M

|                                                                                     |     |                                                                                                    |          |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------|
| Man, a description of a blessed one 462                                      |     | Poetry, vide preface, viii, 40—44, 84—88, 129, 130, 172—176, 309, 394—396, 436—440, 481—484 |          |
| —, condemned for being a sinner 165                                                 |     | Prayer, what it is .....                                                                    | 45       |
| — 510                                                                               |     | —, the formality thereof .....                                                                     | 46       |
| —'s awful degeneracy .....                                                          | 111 | —, for the Spirit of love .....                                                                    | 176      |
| Millennium, thoughts thereon .....                                           | 489 | Preachers, curious specimens of some of their harangues, 293, 295, 424                      |          |
| Ministers of Satan, a sketch of . .                                          | 57  | Prescience, mistaken views of .....                                                         | 449      |
| Miscellaneous thoughts .....                                                 | 124 | —, should be connected with God's omnipotence .....                                                | 450      |
| Missionary exertions, a scheme at the present day of human inventions ... .. | 334 | Privileges, living up to .....                                                              | 231, 269 |
| —, and its Utopian plans held up as delusions                                       | 335 | — of God's people.....                                                                             | 290      |
| Moral law, the nature and extent of 91                                       |     | Prophecies, a difficult knot to untie 247                                                   |          |

N

|                                              |     |                                                       |    |
|----------------------------------------------|-----|-------------------------------------------------------|----|
| Nance, Dr. his views of episcopacy 20 |     | Punishment for sin, the justness thereof ..... | 66 |
| Natural man, his religion .....       | 276 |                                                       |    |
| Nazareth, a description of .....      | 196 |                                                       |    |

O

|                                                                                      |          |                                                     |        |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------|-----------------------------------------------------|--------|
| Obituary , .....                                                              | 477, 521 | Question, considered on Heb. ii ... 16       |        |
| Offers of grace to the unconverted pregnant with the greatest absurdity ..... | 253      | — one answered on the extent of the atonement ..... | 63     |
| Operations of grace, how distinguished .....                                  | 243      | — four important ones .....                         | 120    |
| Oration, delivered at the Queen's Arms, 49, 108, 182, 273                     |          | — on Luke xii. ....                                 | 52, 53 |
| Origin of a sinner's salvation .....                                          | 270      | — three on the privileges of God's people .....     | 125    |
| — of the gospel .....                                                                | 405      | — on the spiritual reign of Christ .....            | 404    |
| Original and actual sin, revealed ... 351                                     |          | — on Micah v. 5.....                                | 426    |

R

|                                         |     |                                                |    |
|-----------------------------------------|-----|------------------------------------------------|----|
| Palestine, travels therein ..... | 193 | Redeemer, his passive state in death 90 |    |
| Past things, a look at .....     | 289 | —, his ascension .....                         | 91 |
|                                         |     | —, his person and character delineated .....   | 93 |

|                                                                                      | Page          |                                                                           | Page     |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------|
| Regeneration and faith considered                                             | 179           | T                                                                  |          |
| Religion and poverty of ten twin companions.....                              | 106           | Temptation , the lot of the godly....                              | 155      |
| — of Christ, its grand peculiarity .....                                             | 211           | Theoretical knowledge , no stability                               | 243      |
| — of the present day, a melancholy view of.....                                      | 486           | Throne , Christ upon that of his glory .....                       | 287      |
| Repentance described .....                                                    | 257           | Thurlow , Job, life of.....                                        | 40       |
| Resurrection , remarks on.....                                                | 492           | Token to the Church of Christ, by the Revd. Dr. Hawker .....       | 9        |
| Review of Books , 19—40, 192—218, 247—264, 333—348, 378—394                   |               | Toplady , an original letter of his... ..                          | 13       |
| Rome and Greece , a glance at.....                                            | 193           | —, attestation to his worth... ..                                         | 380      |
|                                                                                      |               | —, a hymn of his .....                                                    | 524      |
| S                                                                             |               | Tree of Life , considered .....                                    | 273      |
| Sacrifices , extent of .....                                                  | 90            | Trinity , the relation of the Church to the Holy Three in One..... | 10       |
| Saints , eternal security.....                                                | 114           | — and Jehovah in his Trinity of persons, his pleasure in his people.....  | 14       |
| Sanctification , remarks on ... 381, 382                                      |               | — all alike engaged in acts of grace .....                                | 15       |
| — not the will of God that his people are to be separated from sin in this life..... | 471           | — a defence of the doctrine, 30—33, 70, 216, 345, 421, 513                |          |
| — no doctrine more distorted by various sectaries                                    | 472           | U                                                                  |          |
| Satan's devices .....                                                         | 133           | Union , mystical one considered, vide Preface.....                 | iv       |
| Scriptures wrested from the hands of Infidels.....                            | 162, 305, 473 | V                                                                  |          |
| Seabrook's , Mr. an exposition of a letter of his.....                        | 29            | Village Sermons .....                                              | 337, 437 |
| Security , of believers .....                                                 | 240, 454      | Vision of the seven vials.....                                     | 247      |
| Self , a description of.....                                                  | 156           | Visit , Christ's to his people.....                                | 91       |
| Sermon , an outline of one.....                                               | 50            | W                                                                  |          |
| Sheep of Christ , described.....                                              | 103           | Water Baptism , wrongfully disparaged .....                        | 346      |
| Signs of the Times .....                                                      | 486           | Wesley , John, a character of... ..                                | 133, 345 |
| Si , the punishment of .....                                                  | 126           | —, specimen of his divinity.....                                          | 512      |
| —, the cause of punishment, 165, 187, 236, 362, 451, 488                             |               | Wilderness state of God's people... ..                             | 54       |
| —, its separation from holiness... ..                                                | 57            | Y                                                                  |          |
| —, how a believer cannot commit .....                                                | 158           | Year , an address on a new one.....                                | 67       |
| Sinner , his spiritual birth, its importance .....                            | 94            | Z                                                                  |          |
| Skeleton of Sermons , continued, 96, 294, 454                                 |               | Zeal , an unbecoming one depreciated .....                         | 206      |
| Smelt , Mrs. her life, remarks on, note.....                                  | 444           |                                                                           |          |
| Son of God , on his assumption of human nature.....                           | 139           |                                                                           |          |
| — his divinity and humanity of infinite importance.....                              | 147           |                                                                           |          |
| Spirit's operation .....                                                      | 301           |                                                                           |          |
| Spiritual discernment .....                                                   | 219           |                                                                           |          |
| Swedenborgianism , a specimen of... ..                                        | 212           |                                                                           |          |