

ANNEX No. 2

To participate in the EGBL season, each team must pay a participation (license) fee of EUR 500 and refereeing, secretariat, and competition service expenses of EUR 500 (EUR 250 per stage for the first two stages), in accordance with the issued invoice.

No later than 10 days prior to each competition stage, the team must transfer EUR 60 per person per day to the EGBL bank account in accordance with the issued invoice. The fee includes:

1. Accommodation-Hosting-Catering

Accommodation is provided in hotels or hostels.

Hosting begins on the day of the teams' arrival (the day before the competition starts) and includes three (3) nights and nine (9) meals, starting from 15:00.

Catering begins with dinner on the arrival day (Day 1) and ends with lunch on the last day (Day 4).

On the final day of the competition, teams must vacate their hotel rooms by 12:00. If necessary, luggage storage may be arranged with the hotel administration.

2. Gym

The gym complies with FIBA regulations.

Seating is available for spectators.

Scoreboards and 24-second shot clocks must be fully operational.

Flags of the tournament member states and the EGBL flag must be displayed in the gym.

3. Provided Services

Important!

If a team arrives in a city other than the tournament location, the team is responsible for covering the cost of transportation to the city where the tournament takes place.

Teams may either use the transportation service offered by the organizer or arrange their own alternative transportation independently.

Teams that do not provide a gym for the competition or do not use accommodation, meals, and transportation services provided by the organizer must transfer EUR 15 per player per day (regardless of the number of games per day) to the EGBL account, in accordance with the issued invoice. The fee applies to each registered player in the stage.
